Hymn of Praise — Congregation Stan

1. We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing,
He chastens and hastens his will to make known;
The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing,
Sing praises to His name,--He forgets no his own.

2. Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Orgaining, maintaining his kingdom divi
So from the beginning the fight we we winning;
Thou, Lord, wast at our side, all glory be thine.

3. We all do extol thee, thou Leader triumphant,
And pray that thou still our Defender wi be.
Let thy congregation escape tribulation!
Thy name be ever praised! O Lord, make free!

Responsive Reading

Pastor: The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light;

People: They that dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

Pastor: For unto us a child is born,

People: Unto us a son is given;

Pastor: And the government shall be upon his shoulder:

People: And his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Pastor: Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end.

People: Upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it,

Pastor: And to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from henceforth even forever.

People: The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

Pastor: And there shall come forth a shoot out of the stock of Jesse,

People: And a branch out of his roots shall bear fruit.

Pastor: And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him,

People: The spirit of wisdom and understanding,

Pastor: The spirit of counsel and might,

People: The spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord.

Hymn of Advent

1. Watchman, tell us of the night, What its signs of promise are.
Traveler, o'er yon mountain's height, See that glory-beaming star.
Watchman, does its beauteous ray, Aught of joy or hope foretell?
Traveler, yes; it brings the day, Promised day of Israel.

2. Watchman, tell us of the night, Higher yet that star ascends, Traveler, blessedness and light, Peace and truth its course portends.
Watchman, will its beams alone, Gild the spot that gave them birth?
Traveler, ages are its own; See, it bursts o'er all the earth.

3. Watchman, tell us of the night, For the morning seems to dawn;
Traveler, darkness takes its flight, Doubt and terror are withdrawn.
Watchman, let thy wanderings cease; Hie thee to thy quiet home:
Traveler, lo, the Prince of Peace, Lo, the Son of God is come. ---Amen.

Hymn of Nativity ..... Congregation Stand

1. Hark! the herald angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King;
   Peace on earth, and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!"
   Joyful, all ye nations, rise, Join the triumph of the skies;
   With angelic hosts proclaim, "Christ is born in Bethlehem!"
   Hark! the herald angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King."

2. Christ, by highest heav'n adored; Christ, the everlasting Lord;
   Come, Desire of Nations, come, Fix in us thy humble home.
   Veiled in flesh the Godhead see; Hail th' Incarnate Deity, Pleased as man with man to dwell; Jesus, our Emmanuel.
   Hark! the herald angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King."

3. Hail, the heav'n-born Prince of Peace! Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!
   Light and life to all he brings, Ris'n with healing in his wings;
   Mild he lays his glory by, Born that man no more may die,
   Born to raise the sons of earth, Born to give them second birth;
   Hark! the herald angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King."

—Amen.

RESPONSIVE READING

Pastor: Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

People: Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

Pastor: When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

People: And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

Pastor: And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

People: And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

Pastor: Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

People: And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

Pastor: When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

People: When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

All: And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts: gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. GLORIA.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

It is a great privilege and a distinct honor to have Dr. Albert W. Palmer as our guest minister today. Dr. Palmer, for many years, was President of the Chicago Theological Seminary. Upon his retirement he was elected Radi Minister of First Congregational Church, Los Angeles, California. Last June he was elevate to the highest honor within the denomination t confer when he was elected Moderator of The General Council of Congregational Christian Churches of the United States. We welcome him into our community and will hear him preach with delight and profit.

The Community Young People's Pilgrim Fellowship will meet at seven o' clock tonight in Miss Browne's classroom in the Christian Education Building. We had more than 40 young people present last Sunday night, and we look forward to a larger group tonight. Everybody (15 to 24) welcome.

Vesper Services will be held at 7:00 tonight in this chapel. All college young people, as well as older people of the community, are welcome.

The Willing Workers, under the direction of Mrs. Lawrence Fogleman, will meet Monday at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. George Colclough. All Children of this age group are invited.

There will be a joint meeting of the Church Business Board, Board of Deacons and Finance Committee on Monday evening at 8:00. Let us have a full representation at this meeting.

Wednesday Evening at 6:30, the children at the Orphanage will meet for a worship service as last Wednesday.

Two more organizations are in the process of formation. One is a choir for the Community Young People. The other is a Pilgrim Fellowship for our Junior High School group.

How about a Sunday School class for married Veterans and their wives? We feel that there is an important place for such a class, and we hope all who are interested will speak to the pastor or Miss Browne about it. Let's get together. There are many things we can do together and have fun doing them.

This is Scout Day. We welcome Troop No. 51 to day.

SOME THINGS CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CHURCHES BELIEVE

1. WE BELIEVE IN GOD THE FATHER, Infinite in Wisdom, Goodness and Love.

2. WE BELIEVE IN JESUS CHRIST, His Son, our Lord and Savior, who for us and our salvation lived and died and rose again and liveth evermore.

3. WE BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT, who taketh of the things of Christ and revealeth them unto us, renewing, comforting, and inspiring the souls of men.

4. WE BELIEVE THE HOLY BIBLE IS A SUFFICIENT RULE OF FAITH AND PRACTICE. We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord, made known or to be made known unto us.

   The right of private judgment and the liberty of conscience is a duty and a privilege that should be accorded to and exercised by all.

5. WE BELIEVE THE LORD JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY HEAD OF THE CHURCH.

   Christian character is a sufficient test of fellowship and of church membership.

6. WE BELIEVE IT TO BE THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH OF CHRIST TO PROCLAIM THE GOSPEL TO ALL MANKIND: By exalting the worship of the one true God and laboring for the progress of knowledge, the promotion of justice, the reign peace, and the realization of human brotherhood; Depending, as did our fathers, upon the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all truth, we work and pray for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God.

7. WE BELIEVE IN THE UNION OF ALL THE FOLLOWERS OF CHRIST, that they may be one even as Christ prayed.

   The church of Christ should be so named and governed as to include all and exclude none who have been accepted by Christ.

8. WE LOOK WITH FAITH FOR THE TRIUMPH OF RIGHTEOUSNESS AND THE LIFE EVERLASTING.

The Congregational Christian Churches maintain a continuity with the Church of the Ages and desire order, dignity and beauty in their churches and worship.

The Young People will join with us in the Vesper Service at 7:00 this evening and will furnish our special music. There will be no Young People's Meeting other than the Vesper Service.

The regular Wednesday evening service will be held at the Orphanage at 7:00.

Spring holidays will last through next Sunday and again the total responsibility for the church services is upon us as a community. It is a good test for our loyalty and of "the stuff of which we are made". It sometimes happens that people are spoiled from giving their best through becoming accustomed to receiving the best given to them by others. This can never be true of any church which has its eye and its faith on its future ministry to its community and the world. Jesus said, "it is better to give than to receive", which applies as much to spiritual things as to monetary matters. There is no needful thing we cannot accomplish if we have the spirit and willingness to give our best. It is upon the feeling that that spirit exists in this community that we have set our faces steadfastly toward that future.

Pastor's Class meeting in the Christian Education Building at three o'clock today. Thirty-nine are enrolled in this class.

At Vespers tonight, Mr. Bob Graham will share the program with Dr. Dollar. Everybody is invited to the service.

Immediately after Vespers tonight, there will be a meeting of the Nominating Committee at the Home of Mrs. W. P. Lawrence. Mr. C. D. Johnston, Dr. Brannock, and Mrs. Lawrence are members of this committee.

Representative Carl Durham will speak at 7:30 Monday night in Society Hall. He will discuss international relations. The public is invited.

Our Special Easter Bulletins, and our Mother's Day bulletins have already been spoken for. You may still have the Palm Sunday Bulletins if you wish to dedicate them to someone.

Dr. Ralph Douglas Hyslop, Director of Student Work of our denomination, will be our guest preacher next Sunday morning.

Miss Ruth Dunn will share the Vesper program with Dr. Dollar next Sunday, and The Rev. Fred Register the following Sunday.

Are you remembering to place an offering in your special envelope--sent you at the beginning of Lent? Do it every day, and you will have a joyous offering to bring on Easter Sunday. If you are behind, catch up!

How far are you from your church membership? Are you making that church a good member?

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Final session of the Pastor's Class at 3:00 today.

Let us all remember the Palm Sunday Vesper Service at 7:00 p.m. today and be present.

Special Notice: There will be no chapel service Wednesday or Friday of this week. The church and college administration have worked out this helpful plan, and the students will be expected to attend evening church services.

The program for the week follows:

MONDAY--7:30 Worship Service
Sermon: "In The Temple Of His Glory"
TUESDAY--7:30 Worship Service
Sermon: "Truth That Will Stand Forever"
WEDNESDAY--7:30 S. C. A. in charge
Presentation and story of the painting "Christ in Gethsemane" -- copy by Dorothy Showe
THURSDAY--7:30 Worship
"The Seven Last Words of Christ" Choir
Holy Communion
FRIDAY--7:30 Crucifiction Story
"The Crown of Thorns"--one of the great moving picture stories of the Crucifiction.

Members will be received into the church on Easter Sunday morning. All those who are preparing for church membership or who wish to unite by letter of transfer are urged to be present and to present themselves.

Bulletins for the service today are in loving memory of Mrs. Cora Lou Brown by her son, C. E. Brown. She finished her work on earth on February 13, 1927.

We urge you to join us in making this Holy Week a benediction to your life.

PALM SUNDAY AND HOLY WEEK

PALM SUNDAY

This day of the triumphal entry stands at the beginning of Holy Week. It calls to mind the cheering multitudes who hailed Jesus as a conquering King. He knew that, all too soon, these same followers would be shouting, "Crucify Him!" Jesus had set his face "as though he would go to Jerusalem." The road required eyes unwavering and a heart unflinching. Palm Sunday is the gate to Holy Week. (Read Mark 11)

MONDAY — The Day of Authority

On this day He went into the Temple and cast out the thieving money-changers, and pled for the "House of Prayer." Read Mark 11:12-26.

TUESDAY — The Day of Controversy

On this day our Lord poured forth an indignant condemnation upon the Pharisees; gave us the Great Commandment; watched the widow make her sacrificial offering; and saw the Greeks, who came looking for Him. Read Mark 11:27-33.

WEDNESDAY — The Day of Retirement

We have no record of this day's activities other than that it was spent with friends at Bethany. What a benediction it must have been to His friends! Read Mark 13:1-27.

THURSDAY — The Day of Fellowship

On this day Jesus gathered the twelve in that "Upper Room" to keep the Passover. He also founded that sublime sacrament, "The Lord's Supper." Read Mark 14:1-46.

FRIDAY — The Day of Suffering

Who can adequately describe the incidents of this day? It was the day of Gethsemane and Calvary. Truly a day of suffering.
Read Mark 15:1-47.

EASTER SUNDAY — Read Mark 16:1-21

We are expecting approximately 200 women and pastors to be present this week for the School of Missions and Pastors School. Schedules of classes and services are posted on the Dulleti Boards. There will be a special worship servic at eight o'clock each evening, to which the pu lic is invited. Our church will have charge or Wednesday evening. Registrations begin Monday at noon. It is a fine program, with outstanding speakers and teachers. Don't miss it. Our church should be well represented.

DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL
Begins a Week from Tomorrow

Everything is pointing with pride to the beginning of our Daily Vacation Bible School June 23. It is a tribute to the interest of the entire community that not one person has declined to help. The organization of faculty and assistants has gone along with enthusiasm. We are looking forward to a fine school. The dates again* *June 23 to July 4.

We will hold a Sunday School Picnic on Friday afternoon, July 4, and the Commencement exercises will be held for the D. V. B. S. on Friday night.

All classes of the Bible School will be held in the High School Building, because they can meet on the first floor, where it will be cooler, and where there is plenty of water for the children.

This Daily Vacation Bible School is for ALL the children in the community between the ages of 3 and 14 years. Will you please help us to get them this word, and have them present? Speak to their parents about it.

HOW TO KILL AN ORGANIZATION

1. Don't attend meetings, but if you do, come late and leave early.
2. Vote to do everything, do home and do nothing.
3. Get all the organization will give you, but don't give the organization anything in return.
4. Talk about cooperation, but don't cooperate.
5. If asked to help, always say you haven' time.
6. Never accept an office, as it is easier to criticise than to help do the work.
7. If appointed to a committee, smile and do nothing to accomplish the committee's purpose.
8. Don't do anything you can get out of, and when others willingly and unselfishly use their ability, howl because of the "click."

SOME THINGS CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CHURCHES BELIEVE

1. WE BELIEVE IN GOD THE FATHER, Infinite in Wisdom, Goodness and Love.

2. WE BELIEVE IN JESUS CHRIST, His Son, our Lord and Savior, who for us and our salvation lived and died and rose again and liveth evermore.

3. WE BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT, who taketh of the things of Christ and revealeth them unto us, renewing, comforting, and inspiring the souls of men.

4. WE BELIEVE THE HOLY BIBLE IS A SUFFICIENT RULE OF FAITH AND PRACTICE. We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord, made known or to be made known unto us.

   The right of private judgment and the liberty of conscience is a duty and a privilege that should be accorded to and exercised by all.

5. WE BELIEVE THE LORD JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY HEAD OF THE CHURCH.

   Christian character is a sufficient test of fellowship and of church membership.

6. WE BELIEVE IT TO BE THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH OF CHRIST TO PROCLAIM THE GOSPEL TO ALL MANKIND: By exalting the worship of the one true God and laboring for the progress of knowledge, the promotion of justice, the reign peace, and the realization of human brotherhood; Depending, as did our fathers, upon the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all truth, we work and pray for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God.

7. WE BELIEVE IN THE UNION OF ALL THE FOLLOWERS OF CHRIST, that they may be one even as Christ prayed.

   The church of Christ should be so named and governed as to include all and exclude none who have been accepted by Christ.

8. WE LOOK WITH FAITH FOR THE TRIUMPH OF RIGHTEOUSNESS AND THE LIFE EVERLASTING.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2-p.m. The Choir will broadcast over WBBB and a network of fifteen stations. It is a distinct tribute to the quality of music our choir renders that the hook-up has been widely extended to give many thousands of people the privilege of hearing music of such high quality. Listen!

7-p.m. Vesper service sponsored by the S. C. A. James Hailey will be in charge of the program.

7-p.m. Pilgrim Fellowship for the young people of the community. Peggy Braxton will be in charge of the program. All community young people are invited to attend.

A very important business meeting of the church is called to meet at the close of the service today. We will discuss plans for the chapel.

at a Blessing it is to have our beautiful Altar the center of our worship! These symbols are not aced here for show, but as means of helping each us to worship God more effectively. If you will nter your attention upon this altar as you come to the Sanctuary you will soon find how helpful ey are to you. Try it!

e Bible: Symbol, and in fact-His Holy Word in r midst. In it is recorded His Will for us and r the world. It is indeed "A lamp unto our feet i a light upon our pathway."

e Cross: Symbol of the suffering and death of rist-and to remind us that He died for us.

e Candlesticks: With burning tapers are a symbol His eternal spirit giving light to all who seek . His Spirit is with us here!

e Flower Vases: With their offering of flowers symbolic of life and beauty.

ly, Holy, Holy: Across the altar cloth describes e character of God; He is "Holy," and is salution and Adoration.

e Cross and Crown: On the Bible marker, are two mbols of the Christian religion which should ver be separated. The cross symbolizes responbility of the Christian--that he should be will-g to suffer as Christ did, if need be. The Crown symbolic of the Reward that comes to those who e faithful "until death."

e IHS: On the Pulpit Scarf, is an ancient sign by ich Christians used to identify themselves to ch other. It was a secret sign. Its earlier mean-g was to those who used it very much the same as e Cross is to us today-a sign of allegience to rist.

e cross in the corners of the Altar Cloth is an rly form of the cross. Later the cross was pic-red as we know it today.

ere are many other symbols of our faith which are ed in stained glass windows and many other places oks on Church Symbolism have been placed on a ecial shelf in the library for your study. You ll find such a study most helpful-and enjoyable.

7-p.m. Vesper Service, under the direction of the Student Christian Association. Why not close the day in a period of helpful worship?

7-p.m. Pilgrim fellowship for all community young people of high school age and older. After the program we shall have another period of discussio of personal Christian living.

Supper Meeting of Missionary Society at 6:30 in the High School Cafeteria:--covered dish style! Following the mean, Miss Betty Chicoine will review the Mission Study Book. All members are urged to attend.

"Ridicule is the first and last argument of fools."
"The martyrs never reminded anyone of it."

Plans For the Chapel: At a called meeting of the church last Sunday morning a committee appointed to recommend a plan of finance made its report. The plan adopted requests every member of the church with an income to give at least 5% of his income for 1948 to the Chapel Fund. Some members are giving 10% of their income--above their regular church pledges. That spirit will win!

A goal of $10,000 was set. It is felt that this amount will pay for the chapel, move it, erect it and furnish it for service-including an up-to-date kitchen.

You may be surprised to know that on the basis of $40 a week (which all agree is below the average income) our church membership has an annual income of $228,800. If all our members tithed, this would give the church an income of $22,088 a year. The tithe should be the minimun of every Christian! How can we complain when we are asked to give only 5%? That will give is $11,044. Some may not give anything-we hope not-and some will give more. We feel that we can reach our goal of $10,000 when all is averaged up. But IF we reach that goal YOU must do your share. It probably can be more. It should not be less.

The campaign will begin Sunday, February 15, and will close within ten days. You will be given the necessary time to pay your pledge, but it is hoped that all pledges may be paid between February 15 and July 15 so that we may proceed with the work without delay. We hope to have the building ready for use by mid-spring.

The above information is given in advance so that the entire community may know what our plans are. Keep this Bulletin so you may study the plans and be prepared to answer any questions concerning them. As St. Paul said, "Be prepared to give a reason for the faith that is in you."

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Altar flowers for the service today are given by Mrs. Russell T. Bradford in loving memory of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Atkinson.

The Bulletins for the service today are given by Mrs. J. B. Long, in loving memory of her parents Mr. and Mrs. George T. Johnson.

We note, with appreciation, the presence of many visitors in our Easter Service. Some are former neighbors and friends. Some have recently moved into the community. To our new neighbors we extend a hearty welcome, and hope you will make it a habit to worship with us regularly.

We are requested to announce that Ex-Governor Broughton will speak to the International Relations Club at seven o'clock Monday night. The meeting will be held in Society Hall. The subject of the address will be, "America's Role in World Affairs." The public is invited.

OUT OF THIS LIFE

Out of this life I shall never take Things of silver and gold I make.
All that I cherish and hoard away,
After I leave on earth must stay.

Though I have toiled for a painting rare
To hang on my wall, I must leave it there.
Though I call it mine and boast its worth,
I must give it up when I leave the earth.

All that I gather and all that I keep
I must leave behind when I fall asleep.
And I wonder often what I shall own
In that other life when I pass alone.

What shall they find and what shall they see
In the soul that answers the call for me?
Shall the great Judge learn when my task is through
That my spirit had gathered some riches, too?

Or shall at the last it be mine to find
That all I had worked for I'd left behind?

CALVARY AND EASTER

A song of sunshine through the rain,
  Of spring across the snow;
A balm to heal the hurts of pain,
  A peace surpassing woe.
Lift up your heads, ye sorrowing ones,
  And be ye glad of heart,
For Calvary and Easter Day
  Were just three days apart!

With shudder of despair and loss
  The world's deep heart is wrung,
As, lifted high upon His cross,
  The Lord of Glory hung--
When rocks were rent, and ghostly forms
  Stole forth in street and mart;
But Calvary and Easter Day,
Earth's blackest day, and whitest day,
  Were just three days apart.

Circle III will meet with Miss Caroline Powell Tuesday at 8-p. m. Mrs. Lillian Kimery, Mrs. W. C. Council and Miss Nannie D. Reitzell as co-hostesses. Dr. D. J. Bowden will be guest speaker.

We wish publicly to express the appreciation of the church to all who cooperated in making our Daily Vacation Bible School a most successful one.

It was deemed wise to discontinue, for the time being, our Summer Recreational Program. It will likely be resumed within a short time. The one case of Polio in our community is reported "very light" and the child is up and at play. We are thankful.

Our "Fellowship Center"(?)will soon be a reality at the rate the carpenters are moving. The foundation is complete and the sub-floor is laid. Work on assembling the trusses for the roof is under way-and is proving most difficult because the timbers are warped. But, within this week you will see a great change. The building should be enclosed in another two weeks. Incidentally, we are spending about $800.00 a week. Those who are in position to pay even a part of their pledges will greatly favor the project to do so immediately. We need-in fact we must have-more pledges and cash to keep going!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The announcement sent out during the week cancelling all our Sunday School Departmental meetings was a real test, but the only wise course in the face of the present Polio epidemic. But the real test of our strength will come when it is time to call back to normalcy those who will be scattered by this curtailment of our regular program. Let us make sure our interest and loyalty do not wain.

Community Report on Polio Hospital Fund: It is a matter of real pride that we can announce that this community has already contributed approximately $700.00 to the Polio Hospital fund. Everyone should feel proud, for it is another indication that we are really growing in Community Spirit. We congratulate those who headed the drive and did the canvassing. Obviously, it was a job well done. This is not a final report on the amount given.

6. The workers in the Every-Member Canvass will meet back here promptly at two o'clock where final instructions will be given and the field work begun.
7. The workers will go out in tow's and will report back here as soon as the calls are made.

Next Sunday Is World Community Day. The womans Missionary Society will sponsor the service, and will receive their Thank Offering, which, this year, has been designated to War Victims and Reconstruction. Members of the society will use special envelopes, but we wish all to have a part in this worthy undertaking. To that end, bring an offering so that we may join them. All loose offerings next Sunday will be designated for War Vicims and Reconstruction.

Spiritual Emphasis Week has been scheduled from November 14 to 21. Teachers, and others responsibile for setting up schedules of activities, are requested to keep the schedule clear for this period. It is an extremely important week to all of us. Your cooperation will be deeply appreciated.

Tuesday, 7-p.m. Junior High Pilgrim Fellowship (Note the change in time from Friday night) will meet for weekly program.

Another Year Gone! Today is the last Sunday in the church year 1947-48. Next Sunday will, obviously, be the first Sunday in the new church year. We will begin our third year together as pastor and people. We plan to make it by far our best year. It will take the cooperation of every member to do it.

The installation of officers of the church for the coming year will be postponed until a later date due to the Thank Offering service next Sunday.

Our week of Religious Emphasis has brought us face to face with many of the common weaknesses of our professed christianity-and emphasized the fact that we as professed Christians are standing before the mirror of Truth, and WE are the fault. It is up to us to see that whatever is wrong with us is corrected or the reminders will come to naught. The success or failure of these services will be writte into what we are willing to do about it. Dr. Owen did his work well. Let the Spirit take over from he

We are grateful for the privilege of having Dr. W. W. Sloan, of the Department of Religion, conduct our Thanksgiving service today. Although he is comparatively new in our community he has already been called upon as a special speaker for numerous church and civic occasions.

Our offering today, along with that of thousands of churches throughtout our Fellowship, will be designated for the Committee for War Victims and Reconstruction. It is hoped that the many offerings received today will push us over the goal of $1,900.000 which this world-wide organization is spending for us in relief and reconstruction in many needy lands.

Dr. and Mrs. Dollar extend to each member of the church, and to all their friends throughout the community, their best wishes for a Happy Christmas. This greeting is as sincere and as persona as if it came through the mails. In this way no one is missed.

Remember that next Sunday-The Day After Christmas-will be the appropriate subject of the sermon. We should also keep in mind that the service will be broadcast. But all who are able should be here.

The Sunday after Christmas is always a "hard" Sunday, because of the Christmas rush and the fact that everyone is weary. It is a fact, however, that to remain away from church is not a good way to end the year, nor is it a good way to begin the New Year.

It Ought To Be that with activities slowing down in the community during the Holidays, many of our men should find time to work on the Parish House. We had good response last week, but this week has been one of the worst, far as the men showing up for work. The time has come when the furnace must be installed so that the men can work in comfort. This means that, when the work is finished on that one item, we must pay $1,000.00. We don't have it, but we must give it. The Finance Committee will make the matter more explicit.

The Board of Deacons Meet tonight at eight o'clock Although it is not the regular time-which is next Sunday night-it is felt that we will have a better attendance by meeting, just after the pageant tonight.

We are very grateful for the fact that the Missionary Society has voted to furnish the kitchen at the Parish House. This is very gracious on the part of our women, and as soon as the committee is announced we will begin activities which will result in the equipment being made ready for use. Come on men, let's get the building ready!!

The Altar Flowers for the service today are given by Mrs. W. E. McCaidle, in memory of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Atkinson.

FROM EASTER TO PENTECOST

The period from Easter to Pentecost is similar in length to that from Ash Wednesday to Easter-forty days. It runs from Easter Sunday to Ascension Day, which, this year, is May 26. Pentecost Sunday is the Sunday following Ascension Day.

The sermon theme for this period will be:

THINKING ON THINGS THAT MATTER

April 24, Sermon subject:
"Even So Send I You." Scripture, John 20:19-31

May 1, (College Sunday) Sermon Subject:
"Meeting Jesus In Unexpected Places"
Scripture Lesson: John 21:1-14

(May 1 to 8 is Christian Family Week)

May 8, (Mother's Day) Sermon Subject:
"Pillars of A Christian Home."

May 15, Sermon Subject:
"Choices Which Make Or Mar Life"
Scripture Lesson: Titus 1:15,16. 2:1-15

May 22, (Rural Life Sunday) Sermon Subject:
"A Sower Went Out To Sow"
Scripture Lesson: Luke 8:1-15

May 29, (Commencement Sunday)
Sermon by Dr. Harold A. Bosley, Dean,
Duke Divinity School.

June 5, (Pentecost Sunday) Sermon Subject:
"Upon Being Filled With The Spirit"
Scripture Lesson: Acts 2:1-18

If we follow the above sermons we will be Spiritually Enriched. Following Pentecost there will be a series of sermons on The Early Church. They will be informative and inspirational.

CONSECRATION SERVICE FOR THE PARISH HOUSE
Elon College Community Church
June 5, 1949

Prelude,
Call to Worship:

Minister: Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; And let them say among the nations, The Lord Reigneth!

People: Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise.

Minister: Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, Call ye upon Him while He is near.

People: For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined into our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Invocation and Lord's Prayer
Hymn of Worship No. 10
"Come, Thou Almighty King"
Service of Consecration for This House of God

Minister: Having been prospered by the Good Hand of our God, and enabled by His grace and power to complete this house of worship to be used for the glory of His Name, standing now in His Holy Presence, we will consecrate this building to Him:

"To the glory of God our Father, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift;

"To the honor of Jesus Christ, Our Lord and Savior; To the praise of the Holy Spirit, source of light and life."

Minister: In grateful rememberance of all who have loved and served this church; with hearts tender for those who have joined the Church Triumphant:

People: We consecrate this Temple to the Lord our God.

Minister: For comfort to those who mourn; for strength to those who are tempted; for the sanctification of the family; for the instruction and training of youth; for the building of strong bodies and enrichment of all through fellowship

e with another; for the giving of hope and coure to all human hearts:
People: We consecrate this Temple to the Lord God.
Minister: As a tribute of gratitude and love, a e-will offering of thanksgiving and praise, from se who have tasted the cup of salvation and exienced the riches of Thy Grace:
People: We, the Officers of this church, together h the members of the congregation and people of community, recognizing our own unworthiness, and ying upon God for wisdom and strength, do here-covenant that we will exemplify in our lives the ty and strength of the church in this house, to end that the God we worship may be pleased and people who assemble for worship, whether rich poor, may rejoice together. As we consecrate lselves to these ends, we consecrate also this ire house, for the worship of Almighty God, and the service of our fellow men, in the Spirit
our Lord and Saviro, Jesus Christ. Amen

Prelude,
Hymn of Joy No. 78
"Joy To The World"
Call to Worship:

Minister: Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.

Junior Department: Oh give thanks unto the Lord, call upon His Name; Make known among the peoples his doings. Sing unto Him, sing praises unto him; Talk ye of all his marvelous works. Glory ye in His Holy Name.

Primary Department: Thou shalt Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

Congregation: Psalm 23 in unison

Minister: For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. Doxology-Congregation

Prayers:

Minister: Great God, Our Father, guide, and Helper, we praise Thee, we worship Thee, we Love Thee. In this morning hour we turn our thoughts to Thee. Our hearts and minds seek after Thee and Thy way for us in this world.

Primary Department: Father of all, we come to Thee, Thy love and beauty we would see. May all our thoughts to Thee belong, Quiet, kind, brave and strong.

Junior Department: Just as I am, young, strong and free, To be the best that I can be, For truth and righteousness and Thee, Lord of my Life, I com

"Where Cross The Crowded Ways of Life"

Narrator 1: Ye are my friends, if ye do the things which I command you.

Narrator 2: No longer do I call you servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I heard from my Father I have made known unto you.

Narrator 1: Ye did not choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it to you.

Narrator 2: These things I command you, that ye love one another.

Narrators 1 and 2: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength; and thy neighbor as thyself. You are my friends, IF--you do the things which I command you.

THE MEANING OF LENT

Lent begins with Ash-Wednesday. The day was so named from the cermonial use of ashes as a symbol of penitence in the service of the day. Ashe were used as a sign of penitence by those who wis ed to make public testimony of their conviction o sin. Later in history ashes were scattered over the entire congregation assembled for the service of penitence. The cermony of Ash-Wednesday--the first day of Lent--has been in use for more than a thousand years. For many years after the Reformation only the Episcopal Church, of those breaking away during the Reformation, continued the religious rites of Ash-Wednesday and the Lenten Season.

In later years many of our Protestant Churches, realizing the deep significance of the Lenten Season, have begun to use it widely. The Ash-Wednesday cermony was originally followed by a 40 hour fast. Later the fast, used in connection wit the service of penitence, was extended to 40 days Lent now runs from Ash-Wednesday which is set 40 days before Easter Sunday. Though the fast has passed from use, it remains a season of penitence and self-denial.

Lent, to us, means a Season of penitence, prayer, and spiritual renewal. The program of the more progressive Protestant churches is now designed to make effective the preparation of Christian people for the spiritual experience of Resurrection Day--Easter Sunday. Our services during Lent will be especially designed to help all worshipers to bring themselves to a deeper understar ing and a spiritual readiness to sing with understanding "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today"--on Easter Sunday morning. You are invited to follow with us the program for Lent and Holy Week to appear on later Bulletins of our church services

6:00 p.m. Senior Pilgrim Fellowship meets at the Parish House to go on a picnic. Bring your sandwitches and drinks will be provided.

7: 00 p.m. Monday evening the Junior P.F. will meet at the Parish House.

Dr. Truitt will supply the pulpit of our church again next Sunday.

It seems wise that we continue the church services in the Parish House through the first Sunday in September, giving the college the advantage in the re-decoration of Whitley Chapel.

The Third Quarterly Conference of the church will likely be held on the first Sunday night in September. Those having reports should prepare them through the period ending July 31.

The North Carolina and Virginia Conference of Congregational Christian Churches will meet for its annual sessions on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, at Ingram Christian Church, Halifax County, Virginia. Our church will be represented by a full corps of delegates, the pastor and Director of Religious Education.

The membership will be notified immediately of a most important decision of the church in its recent Annual Meeting. If the request is met by the membership it will be a strong guarantee to the future development of the church. Watch for it in the mail, and measure your love in its fulfillment.

Dr. Dollar has accepted a call to Liberty Spring Christian Church, Suffolk, Virginia, and will move when his responsibilities with this church are fulfilled.

THE MAN WHO TAKES MY PLACE

There's a toast I'd like to drink,
To a man I'll never know.
It's to the man who will take my place
When it's time for me to go.

I've wondered what kind of a man he'd be,
And longed to take his hand,
Just to whisper "I Wish You Well, old man,"
In words he'd understand.

I'd like to give him the cheerful word
At times I've longed to hear;
I'd like to give him a warm clasp hand
When never a friend is near.

For I've learned my knowledge by sheer hard work-
I'd like to pass it on
To the fellow who will take my place
When I some day am gone.

Will he see all the mistakes I've made,
  And note the battles lost?
Will he ever guess at the tears they have caused,
  And the heartaches they have cost?

Will he gaze through the failures and fruitless toil
  To the underlying plan?
And catch a glimpse of the real intent
  And the heart of the vanquished man?

I dare to hope he will pause some day,
  As he toils as I have wrought,
And gain some strength for his weary task
  From the battles I have fought.

But I have only the task itself to leave,
  With the cares for him to face,
And never a cheering word to speak
  To the fellow who will take my place.

Then here's to your health, Old Chap-
  I drink as a bridegroom to a bride'.
I've left an unfinished task to you,
  But God knows how I've tried.

I've dreamed my dreams, as all men do,
  But seldom has one come true;
But my prayer today is that all my dreams
  Will be realized in you.

We'll meet some day, in the great unknown,
  Out in the realms of space
You will know my clasp as I take your hand
  And gaze in your tired face.

Then all our failures will be success,
  In the light of the new found dawn
So I'm drinking to your health, Old Chap,
  Who'll take my place when I'm gone!
(Gleaned from the rubbish of a preacher's study)

THURSDAY, 10-a.m. Thanksgiving Service in Whitley Chapel. Dr. W.M. Brown will be our guest speaker. Everyone is invited, and we should take the time to express our gratitude on the day which has for so long been set apart as a Day of Thanksgiving.

"Come, Ye Thankful People, COME! "

A Committee to seek a pastor was elected by the Board of Deacons in a meeting called for that purpose last Sunday night. Professor A. L. Hook, Mr. George Noah, and Mrs. Lois Bost are the committee. They are already at work. As soon as they have persons who may be available, they are to report back to the Board of Deacons, and contacts will begin. It seems a very wise set-up, and we all hope that a suitable future pastor may be located and secured at an early date. It is entirely appropriate for all of us to join with the committee and the Board of Deacons in prayer for the guidance of God. He has the man. We must be led to him. Pray over it.

Today is Thanksgiving Sunday. For many years it has been the custom of the churches of the Convention to receive an offering for Our Orphanage at Thanksgiving time. We are glad to offer that opportunity to the people in this service today. Give as you would wish others to give for the care and training of your own child, if he were left without you.

Scout Investiture Service. The Senior Girl Scout troop will have an investiture service at the Parish House on Monday evening at 7:30. The public is invited, and there should be a good response on the part of the people of the community.

"When some people encounter difficulty, they take the attitude of meek surrender. Instead of getting to their feet like men, they lie bewailing their fate. Some become cynical. They grow hard and bitter. This really is only another form of surrender and defeat. The effective way to react when life gets hard is not to surrender weakly and grow cynical, but to come up with a smiling face, ready for a new battle. The whole world cannot defeat a fighter. Each man needs an undying faith in himself and in his God."

If you have that, you can win!

GIVING THANKS

For the hay and the corn and wheat that is reaped,
For the labor well done,
  and the barns that are heaped,
For the sun and the dew
  and the sweet honeycomb,
For the rose and the song,
  and the harvest brought home-- Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving!

For the trade and the skill and the wealth in our land,
For the cunning and strength of the workingman's hand,
For the good that our artists and poets have taught,
For the friendship and hope and affection have brought-- Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving!

For the homes that with purest affection are blest,
For the season of plenty and will deserved rest,
For our country extending from sea to sea,
The land that is known as the "Land of the Free"--
    Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving!

Our Service on Christmas Day-Next Sunday-will be held in the Parish House. Help us get the news around so there will be no misunderstanding. Only once in eight years does Christmas Day come on Sunday. It is the Family Season, and it is hoped that our people will attend service next Sunday in groups; the Families sitting together.

New Years Day comes on Sunday. We will have our service that day in the Parish House, also.

January 8-12 Cooperative Leadership Training School, First Christian Church, Burlington. All E&R and C.C. Churches in Alamance County are cooperating.

Communion Table Dedicated: We are happy to announce that the Communion Table at the Parish House has been given and Dedicated to Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Atkinson, by their children, Jennie Willis, Mary D., Oscar and Emma. No gift could be more fitting to the lives and memory of these two Saints of God who lived and served the Kingdom and this community for so many years. We are deeply grateful for this gift to "their" church by their devoted Children.

The Pastor's Christmas Wish

As we stand on the threshold of Christmas, we wish for each of you-and for all people-a deeper joy than you have ever known, a more real sense of His presence than you have ever felt, a greater sense of Divine Mission for your lives than you have ever known before. Thus will this Christmas, and all those that shall follow, be the richest, brightest, most joyous you have ever known. These are our heart wishes to each of you.

Very Sincerely,
The Dollars

A CHRISTMAS PRAYER

They must have been tired and discouraged
That night when they came to the inn,
And the heart of the wearied Mary
Must have wept from the depths within
When they gave her a bed in the stable
To mother her precious care;
But the hope of the world was born anew
When the Christ Child was cradled there.

The blue of the sky for a shelter,
As the stars looked down on the earth,
Only they and the lowing cattle
Had witnessed the Savior's birth;
But the angels sang forth their story
Which down through the ages will ring:
"Unto you this day in Bethlehem
There is born a Savior and King."

"And His name shall be called Wonderful, Mighty Counsellor, Prince of Peace,"
And the sages held forth promise
Of a suffering world's release:
A King to bring only glad tidings
Of peace and good will toward all men,
A Savior who paid redemption's price
That the world might be free again.

But the war lords have sounded the trumpet,
While greed sits high on the throne,
And the heart of the Christ Child bleeds afresh for the wrongs we must atone.
Be Thou our king in the battle,
Be Thou our guide in the fray--
Let this be the prayer from the hearts of men
To Him on this Christmas Day.

Choir to have new robes: The college choir is in the midst of procuring new robes-badly needed. We understand that the new robes are to carry the school colors of Maroon and Gold. They will cost $25 each. Persons desiring to help in this good project should see any member of the music faculty, or let your desires be known and someone will call upon you. They want to get the new robes for their spring tour. Let us make the hearts of these fine singers glad. Give a robe-or even a half-a-robe!

Church Night Supper at 7:00 this Thursday Night. Circle Three, of the Woman's Missionary Society is sponsoring the supper this time. Come, bring a covered dish of what you like. It will be shared from a common family table. Invite your neighbor to come. The whole Community is invited. There will be food and fellowship for all, and games for the children following the meal. You will enjoy it!

Members to be received next Sunday. Dr. Dollar is very anxious to receive a number of people into the fellowship of the church before he leaves. Many of these have been considering the move, and it will make a fitting climax to his ministry here to have them unite with the church at his final service. YOU are invited to consider, and to unite.

Christian Worker's Conference: The Annual Christian Workers Conference will be held next week. A fine program has been prepared. Laymen's Rally will open the program at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, with a banquet for Ministers and Laymen at six o'clock. The Conference will continue during the week, with such speakers as Dr. Martin Goslin, Dr. Roy Helfenstine and others. All meetings will be open to the public, and a cordial welcome will be yours. Complete programs of the Conference are available as you leave the service today.

WHAT CAN I DO TO HELP?

1. As a Christian layman I can help my Church by faithfully attending its regular services of worship.

2. I can make a financial pledge for the support of my church's work in my community, nation and world.

3. I can be friendly, welcoming those who may be strangers, with a kind word and hand clasp.

4. I can be a growing Christian, eschew provincialism of spirit, be gloval-minded in outlook.

5. I can speak an occassional word of encouragement to my Pastor, and to those who serve with him on the Church Staff.

6. I can say a heartening word to the young people and the children, letting them know how much they mean in the life of our Church.

7. I can stem false rumors by refusing to repeat them, and pledge myself to pass along only what is good about another.

8. I can help forward the great task of evangelism by being contagious, winsome disciple of Jesus.

9. Somewhere in the serving ranks of my Church there is a place for me. I can discover that place, and with God's help, fill it to the best of my ability.

10. Above all, I can pray, get my hand on a spiritual lever, and lift.

These things I CAN DO. If I have been doing them, I shall strive to do them better. If not, with God's help, I shall begin--today!

7:00 p.m. Senior Pilgrim Fellowship meets at the Parish House. The topic for discussion will be "The Person I'm Becoming". Shirley Cox, Virginia Black, Mary Sue Colclough, and Karen Martin will have the program.

The General Quarterly Meeting of the Women's Missionary Society meets at the Parish House Monday at 8:00 p.m. Circle II will give the program. The recent Missionary movie, "Kyoto Story" will be shown. All members are urged to attend.

The Board of Deacons will meet at the Parish House Wednesday evening at 7:30. All Deacons are asked to be present.

"One Great Hour of Sharing" is being observed today interdenominationally. The chief reason behind this project is the fact that relief, reconstruction and interchurch aid needs continue to exist. A vast refugee problem exists in Europe and Asia. Christians just cannot turn their backs on such tragic needs. Last night a nation-wide promotion of this project was made through radio. Today you are asked to make a contribution in the envelopes provided in the bulletins.

Sunday, March 19 -8:00p.m. the Quarterly Conference of the church will be held at the Parish House. All members of the church are urged to be present for this important meeting.

The Church wishes to express its appreciation to the Community Choir for their willingness in rendering music for the worship services during the absence of the College Choir. Especially do we thank Mrs. T. H. Mackintosh for directing.

The Elon College Choir is on its annual Northern Spring Tour. Their itinerary included concerts in Lynchburg, Luray, Winchester, Virginia, Barrington, R. I., Providence, R. I., Jersey City and Drexal Hill, Pa. They will return to the campus on Monday and will be with us next Sunday.

The Pulpit Committee has reported that they hope to have some definite recommendations for a new minister at an early date.

Mr. J. C. McAdams and Mrs. W. C. Nicker have been ill for the past week. Let us remember them in our prayers for a speedy recovery.

A world without a Sabbath would be like a person without a smile, like a summer without flowers, and like a homestead without a garden. It is the joyous day of the whole week. --Henry Ward Beecher

Let every dawn of morning be to you as the beginning of life and every setting sun be to you as its close; then let every one of these short lives leave its sure record of some kindly thing done for others, some goodly strength or knowledge gained for yourself.

--John Ruskin

Our home joys are the most delightful earth affords, and the joy of parents in their children is the most holy joy of humanity. It makes their hearts pure and good, it lifts men up to their Father in Heaven.

--Pestalozzi

When you make a mistake, don't look back at it long. Take the reason of the thing into your mind, and then look forward. Mistakes are lessons of wisdom. The past cannot be changed. The future is yet in your power.

LEGEND OF THE DOGWOOD TREE

Richie T. Weikel

Oft have we heard at our mother's knee
The legend of the dogwood tree,
How its fragile trunk once strong and grand
Grew tall as the oak in the Holy Land.

From its sturdy timber the cross was made
To crucify, shame and degrade
Our Lord, Who, sensing its humility
As He hung suspended for all to see Murmured, " 'Tis not your fault I now hang here,
And because I know you are sincere
As you tremble for My earthly pain,
This hour do I promise never again
Will you be the means of pain and loss
To earthly beings formed as a cross."

"From now henceforth do I decree
That slender, twisted and bent you'll be.
That your flowers enrich the countryside;
The fame of their beauty spread far and wide,
But, their petals soft as the purest floss
Will ever take the form of a cross,
On whose outer edge as now I've bled
Will appear brown nail prints stained with red.
In each flower center a crown of thorns
The like of which My head adorns
That they who look deeper than beauty may see
And remember this day on Calvary."

My Risen Lord

My risen Lord, I feel Thy Strong protection;
I see Thee stand among the graves today;
"I am the Way, the Life, the Resurrection,"
I hear Thee say.
And all the burdens I have carried sadly
Grow light as blossoms on an April day;
My cross becomes a staff, I journey gladly
This Easter Day -Author Unknown

EASTER MORNING

Tomb, thou shalt not hold Him longer:
Death is strong, but life is stronger;
Stronger than the dark, the light;
Stronger than the wrong, the right;
Faith and hope triumphant say,
"Christ will rise on Easter Day!"

While the patient earth lies waking
Till the morning shall be breaking,
Shuddering 'neath the burden bread
Of her Master, cold and dead,
Hark! she hears the angels say,
"Christ will rise on Easter Day!"

And when sunrise smites the mountains,
Pouring light from heavenly fountains,
Then the earth blooms out to greet
Once again the blessed feet;
And her countless voices say:
"Christ has risen on Easter Day!"

Bible School Institute:

Our Bible School teachers are invited to attend the Bible School Institute for this area of our Conference on Tuesday Night April 18 at 7:30 at the Congregational Christian Church in Burlington. At this institute methods and materials to be used this year will be presented and it is important for those teaching to take advantage of this opportunity. We are going to have our Bible School here June 5-10. Will you give some time in helping with the school? More teachers are needed and you will be rendering a Christian Service by offering you assistance.

March, April, May, and June are our Mission period months. Do not forget to contribute to you Cent-A-Meal jar and remember you are helping to make a Christian World.

The best measure of any civilization or nation is its citizens. The way we affect the next generation in the homes we are making today will determine the kind of world we will have. It is our responsibility as Christian leaders or as parents to transmit a fine heritage to the next generation. This can be accomplished only through the development of sons and daughters under the influence of the Christian home. --Josephine H. Kyles

Christ can be most effictively made known to the world today only by those who know him. People everywhere are hungry and thirsty for truth which will give new meaning to life. They can be helped to understand how the Christian gospel is relevant to their condition only by those in whose lives God is real and Christ a living presence. One of the chief tasks of the pastor is to train his people for the work of witness. It is mainly the layman who can carry Christ out into the ordinary ways of life. This calls for a vivid experience of Christ.

BECAUSE MEN PLOW

So many furrows
in so many lands,
So many plows
beneath men's guiding hands,
And lo! the old earth's surface has been tilled.
To meet the world's need, granaries are filled
With corn and wheat and rye from countless fields.

Because men plow,
there are these golden yields;
Because their silver shares have pierced the sod
And they have worked together with their God,
The hungry world has food enough to eat
If we share wisely-- and shared loaves are sweet.
The plows go down the land,
the furrows run
Forever curved and deep beneath the sun:
The ancient furrows,
and the fresh-turned furrows now--
There will be bread while men have faith to plow.

We thank Thee, God,
for the heartening thought of men
Sowing and plowing and reaping, to plant again.

To live content with small means; to seek elegance rather than luxury; and refinement rather than fashion; to be worthy, not respectable; and wealthy, not rich; to study hard, think quietly, talk gently, act frankly; to listen to stars and birds, to babes and sages, with open heart; to bear all cheerfully, do all bravely; await occasion, hurry never; in a word, to let the spiritual, unbidden and unconscious, grow up through the common--this is to be my symphony.

--William Henry Channing

Thank God every morning, when you get up, that you have something to do that day which must be done, whether you like it or not. Being forced to work and forced to do your best, will breed in you temperance, and self-control, diligence and strength of will, cheerfulness and content and a hundred virtues which the idle man will never know.

--Charles Kingsley

VESTIGIA

I took a day to search for God,
And found him not. But as I trod
  By rocky ledge, through woods untamed,
  Just where one scarlet lily flamed,
I saw His footprint in the sod.

Then suddenly, all unaware,
Far off in the deep shadows, where
  A solitary hermit thrush
  Sang through the holy twlight hush--
I heard His voice upon the air.

And even as I marveled how
God gives us Heaven here and now,
  In a stir of wind that hardly shook
  The popular leaves beside the brook--
His hand was light upon my brow.

At last with evening as I turned
Homeward, and thought what I had learned
  And all that there was still to probe--
  I caught the glory of His robe
Where the last fires of sunset burned.

Back to the world with quickening start
I looked and longed for any part
  In making saving Beauty be...
  And from the kindling ecstasy
I knew God dwelt within my heart.

VESTIGIA

I took a day to search for God,
And found him not. But as I trod
  By rocky ledge, through woods untamed,
  Just where one scarlet lily flamed,
I saw His footprint in the sod.

Then suddenly, all unaware,
Far off in the deep shadows, where
  A solitary hermit thrush
  Sang through the holy twlight hush--
I heard His voice upon the air.

And even as I marveled how
God gives us Heaven here and now,
  In a stir of wind that hardly shook
  The popular leaves beside the brook--
His hand was light upon my brow.

At last with evening as I turned
Homeward, and thought what I had learned
  And all that there was still to probe--
  I caught the glory of His robe
Where the last fires of sunset burned.

Back to the world with quickening start
I looked and longed for any part
  In making saving Beauty be...
  And from the kindling ecstasy
I knew God dwelt within my heart.

3:00 p.m. The Junior Pilgrim Fellowship will meet at the Parish House. Katie Jo McAdams will present a Mother's Day worship service. The program topic is "Our Parents and Us". All Junior boys and girls are urged to come.

7:00 p.m. The Senior Pilgrim Fellowship will meet at the Parish House. The program will be centered around the theme of Mother's Day. All young people are invited.

The flowers on the altar today were given in memory of Mrs. J. O. Atkinson by her daughter, Mrs. J. Davis Reed, London Bridge, Virginia

We are in the midst of the Mission Period. There are many needs which are pressing the Board at present and an appeal is being made that all churches pay their Home and Foreign Missions apportionment at this time if possible. We have an opportunity to help organize two churches in growing areas but we must act now. Men are available to undertake this work but the Board does not have the necessary funds. The Jacksons and Riggses are at work in Foochow, China and doing what they can to assist the Shaowu work until they can return there. Remember your Cent-a-meal boxes so that our apportionment can be paid as soon as possible and this work can go forward.

Bible School has been set up for June 5-10 to be held at the high school. If there are children in your family between the ages of 4 and 16, see that they are enrolled. An excellent faculty has been secured and we look forward to a week of Christian work and fellowship. With your cooperation our school will be successful.

Student Recitals:

Today -- 4:00 p.m. Fred Shalman will give an organ recital.

Today -- 8:30 p.m. Dorothy Parker will give a voice recital.

Monday -- 8:00 p.m. James Clyburn will give a piano recital.

Reverend Howard P. Bozarth, Walpole, Massachusetts has accepted the call to be the full time pastor of the Elon College Community Church. He expects to arrive in this field about August 15.

MOTHER'S DAY

Beautiful white rose with rich green stem
And the blushing red so fair, Waiting to be plucked by human hands
In honor of Mother to wear.

Some will sadly pluck the virgin white
While their breasts will leave and rise;
They will silently wipe away the tears
Which rise unbidden to their eyes.

A feeling of peace some hearts will know
Because they have done their best;
Others, their all would give to kneel
And hear Mother forgive and bless.

Some carelessly will snatch the red
And go singing along their way
Still tramping on Mother's love
Forgetting some day they'll pay.

Some will gladly and calmly wear
the red
Giving Mother the honor her due,
Heaping love and blessings upon her head;
Which of these, my friend, are YOU?

3:00 p.m. The Junior Pilgrim Fellowship meets at the Parish House. The topic for study this afternoon will be "Is There Anything in It for Me?" Let's have a large attendance this afternoon. Shall we?

7:00 p.m. The Senior Pilgrim Fellowship will meet at the Parish House. The topic for discussion will be "The Importance of Summer Camps and Conferences". All young people of the community are invited to be present and to make plans to attend a camp or conference.

Circle Meetings:

Circles I, II, III will meet in joint session Monday evening, June 5 at 8:00 in the Parish House to hear Mr. John Graves of Burlington review the home mission study book "Missions at the Grassroots" by W. P. Shriver. The review and special music promise to be most interesting and a large attendance is expected. Mr. Graves is a 1950 graduate of Elon College, is director of the Teen Age Club in Burlington, and director of the young people's work in the Congregational Christian Church there. He plans to enter Divinity School in the fall for graduate study.

Hostesses for the meeting are Mesdames Charles Jeffries, Warren Jeffries, K. K. Rudisell, Lillian Kimrey, T. A. Boland, M. D. Joy, J. W. Barney, Mrs. Branch, Mrs. Waugh.

Daily Vacation Bible School:

Daily Vacation Bible School begins tomorrow morning, June 5 at 9:00 at the high school. All children 4 to 15 years of age are invited and urged to attend. This school will last through Saturday and Commencement will be in connection with the Children's Day on Sunday morning at 11:00 at the Parish House. We will close each morning at 11:30.

Today we observe the first anniversary of our moving into the Parish House. We are all proud of this building and realize the need that it has filled in the community. The goal set for today's offering on the indebtedness is $1,000. We know that you will do your best to make your offering as large as possible in the envelopes sent to you this week for that purpose.

The public library near the high school will be opened each Wednesday evening from 1:30 to 3:30. Then from 3:30 to 4:00 there will be story telling for children up to ten years of age. See that your child takes advantage of this opportunity.

TWO TEMPLES

A builder builded a temple,
He wrought it with grace and skill;
Pillars and groins and arches,
All fashioned to work his will.
Men said, as they saw its beauty,
"It shall never know decay;
Great is thy skill, O Builder!
Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A Teacher builded a temple
With loving and infinite care,
Planning each arch with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.
None praised her unceasing efforts,
None knew of her wondrous plan,
For the temple the Teacher builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the Builder's temple,
Crumbled into the dust;
Low lies each stately pillar,
Food for consuming rust.
But the temple the Teacher builded
Will last while the ages roll,
For that beautiful unseen temple
Was a child's immortal soul.

FOR JUST ONE SHEEP

For just one sheep the Shepherd went out,
  Far out on the hills again,
While ninety and nine lay down in the fold,
  All safe from the cold and rain.

"Here are ninety and nine," His helper said,
  "So why should you care for one
 Is lost in the storm and the pitch black night
  On the hills so wild and lone."

But the shepherd could not lie down to rest,
  Although the long day was done.
He couldn't enjoy his ninety and nine
  For sorrow about the one.

So all night long in the blinding rain,
  And the lightning's fearful flash,
He searched the hills and the vales between,
  Without fear of the thunder's clash.

Then just as the day began to break,
  Grey, cloudy and damp and chill,
He found that little lost lamb at last
  On the steep rough brow of the hill.

Then He carried it home in His thorn-torn arms,
  And in through the sheepfold door,
And He warmed it there by the dim wood fire
  On the safe dry earthen floor.

If you were the Shepherd, what would you do?
  Search all through the night? Or Sleep?
But you'd want to be found, and so would I,
  If we were the lone lost sheep.

WHAT IS PRAYER?

And what is prayer, you ask of me?
It's talking with God in secrecy;

It's looking up with tear filled eyes
Into the blue of Heaven's skies;

It's wanting strength to conquer strife,
And blessings rich to gladden life;

It's telling God what's in your heart,
Entreating Him to take your part;

It's drawing near to touch His hand--
It's begging Him to understand;

It's promising to do your best--
It matters not how hard the test;

It's gratitude for favors past--
A hope that they may always last;

A rod that bars the way of sin
And keeps the soul at peace within;

A prayer is this, the thought that goes
With folks all day until its close.

The world about us is very beautiful. Its glory should awaken our praise. Every inch of earth is a thing of wonder. The simplest flower is a miracle. Each leaf is a work of beauty, designed by its network of veins. The commonest stone is filled with mystery. Trees and flowers, lakes and rivers, hills and valleys, earth and sky, - O Lord, how maniflod are thy works!

ALL THINGS WORK OUT

Because it rains when we wish it wouldn't Because men do what they often shouldn't
Because crops fail, and plans go wrong
Some of us grumble, the whole day long,
But somehow in spite of the care and doubt,
It seems at last that things work out.

Because we lose where we hoped to gain,
Because we suffer a little pain,
Because we must work when we'd like to play
Some of us whimper along life's way,
But somehow, as day will follow the night,
Most of our troubles work out all right.

Because we cannot forever smile,
Because we must trudge in the dust awhile,
Because we think the way is long--
Some complain that life's all wrong.
But somehow we live and our sky is bright,
Everything seems to work out all right.

So bend to your troubles and meet your care,
For clouds must break and the sky grow fair
Let the rain come down as it must and will,
But keep on working and hoping still,
For in spite of grumblers who stand about,
Somehow, it seems all things work out.

EARTH'S COMMON THINGS

Seek not afar for beauty. Lo! it glows
  In dew-wet grasses all about thy feet;
  In birds, in sunshine, childish faces sweet,
In stars and mountain summits topped with snow

Go not abroad for happiness. For see,
  It is a flower that blossoms at thy door!
  Bring love and justice home, and then no mor
Thou'lt wonder in what dwelling joy may be.

Dream not of noble service elsewhere wrought;
  The simple duty that awaits thy hand
  Is God's voice uttering a divine command, Life's common deeds build all that saints have thought.

In wonder-workings, or some bush aflame,
  Men look for God and fancy Him concealed;
  But in earth's common things He stands revea
While grass and flowers and stars spell out Hi name.

Reverend Howard P. Bozarth will be present to begin his ministry with us and will deliver the sermon, August 20.

The church is glad to welcome

Reverend Howard P. Bozarth and family.

Specific announcements with respect to a reception, to be given for our pastor and his family will be given later.

When we commit our fears to the Lord, He brings in their place His peace and presence.

EARTH'S COMMON THINGS

Seek not afar for beauty. Lo! it glows
  In dew-wet grasses all about thy feet;
  In birds, in sunshine, childish faces sweet,
In stars and mountain summits topped with snows.

Go not abroad for happiness. For see,
  It is a flower that blossoms at thy door!
  Bring love and justice home, and then no more
Thou'lt wonder in what dwelling joy may be.

Dream not of noble service elsewhere wrought;
  The simple duty that awaits thy hand
  Is God's voice uttering a divine command,
Life's common deeds build all that saints have thought.

In wonder-workings, or some bush aflame,
  Men look for God and fancy Him concealed;
  But in earth's common things He stands revealed
While grass and flowers and stars spell out His name.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The flowers provided for this service are given in memory of Rev. J.L. Foster, by his family.

The Pilgrim Fellowship meet this evening in the Parish House at 7 o'clock. All high school students cordially invited.

The Elon Student Fellowship, sponsored by the S.C.A. will meet at 7 o'clock hereafter as their regular Sunday evening hour, in the Student Union. This evening's program will be a Faculty-Student Panel, with four students and four faculty members leading in a discussion of areas in which faculty and students may work in making college life increasingly beneficial. All faculty and students are invited.

Arrangement has been made through the college bookstore, so that cold drinks will be available at the usual rate, to students wishing to eat their evening lunch in Student Union before the meeting of the Student Fellowship and enjoy a social period before the formal meeting. Six o'clock is the hour suggested for those who wish to take advantage of this opportunity.

The Girl Scout Committee of the church are seeking two young women to ehlp with the scout program. This a good opportunity for two students, whether experienced or not, to render valuable service, and obtain excellent experience in Scouting work. Notify the pastor if interested.

Sunday, October 7, two weeks from today, we observe World Communion Day here. New members will be received into our church on that Sunday. We cordially invite all who worship with us to affilliate with us, as members, while in residence here, either on Confession of Faith, by letter, or as associate members.

Come not without a prayer for thyself, for those who minister to you and for those to whom we may be sent. For the healing of the hurt, the inspiration of the discouraged; fellowship for the lonely, strength of heart for the weary and salvation to the lost, this church offers its ministry in love.

We cordially welcome the members of the campus Greek letter societies at this service this morning.

The Pilgrim Fellowship youth will go to Apple's Chapel this afternoon for the Rally Service there at 3.

Mr. Baxter Twiddy, now with the Friends Service Committee, Greensboro, will lead a discussion this evening, at 7, in Student Union, on "Is Universal Military Training Essential." The meeting is sponsored by the S.C.A.

The Deacons meet this evening, at 8, in the Parish House.

Tomorrow evening at 8, in the Parish House, the Women's Missionary Society meets, members to bring their gifts for the "Friendly Service" projects, warm clothing to be sent to our missions in cold climates, other clothing for those in warmer areas. Miss Caroline Powell will be in charge of the program, which our women are all urged to attend. Mr. Bozarth will lead in the devotional service, presenting the theme for the Women's Departments of our churches, this year, "A Highway For Our God." In furthering the work of the Friendly Service projects, a group of our women are meeting on Wednesday mornings, for six weeks, in the home of Mrs. Carl H. Dawson, each bringing her own lunch.

The first Laymen's Supper, of this year, is to be held Wednesday evening, this week, at 6:15, in the Parish House, with Dr. Earl Danicly the speaker on "Live Churchmanship." One of the Missionary Circles is preparing the supper. The evening program is designed to further acquaintance and fellowship among our men. Every man in our parish is invited.

Following the service, this morning, a brief business meeting will be held, of the members of the church, to take action on the proposed budget for the coming fiscal year in our church. Please remain, if a member, and it is possible.

Come not without a prayer for thyself, for those who minister to you and for those to whom we may be sent. For the healing of the hurt, the inspiration of the discouraged; fellowship for the lonely, strength of heart for the weary and salvation to the lost, this church offers its ministry in love.

The service this morning will conclude after we have made out our pledge cards, following the sermon, and they have been placed in dedication on the altar.

This evening, at 7:30, here, we will enjoy a brief devotional service followed by a song service led by Mr. Westmoreland and the choir. Hymns new and old will be sung. It is our first venture, which we hope to make a monthly feature. We are certain to enjoy the evening, and we very much appreciate Mr. Westmoreland's gracious invitation to come and join together with the choir in this evening's sing. The SCA will make the song service their special feature for this evening, holding no meeting at Student Union.

Next Sunday we will observe as Missions Sunday. In the evening, also, at 8, there will be a business meeting of the church, this being the last Sunday of our church year and reports and election of officers will take place.

In the near future, a special arts and crafts exhibit is being sponsored by the book club of Elon College, Miss Ann Watson, in charge of arrangements. All who have hobbies, and items to exhibit, are asked to plan to help make this occasion of pleasure to all of us in Elon.

Religious Emphasis Week begins Sunday, Nov. 4, and continues through Thursday, Nov. 8. Dr. Hardcastle of Chuckatuck, Va., Dr. Hose of Southern Pines, Rev. Andes of Winston-Salem, Rev. Jackson of Chapel Hill, and Rev. Robinson of Burlington assisting us. Service each evening at 7:30. Make your plans now to attend.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The morning services of this church, this month, are broadcasted over WBBB.

Following the singing of the Gloria Patri this morning, the officers and teachers of the church elected for this year, at the annual meeting of the Church last Sunday evening, will be formally installed. See the insert in this morning's calendar. Take the insert home for future reference.

The Circles of the Women's Missionary Society meet this week as follows: Circle 1, Monday at 3:30, with Mrs. J.W. Matlock, Jr. and Mrs. D.D. Ledbetter; Circle 2, Monday at 3:30, with Mrs.A.L. Hook and Mrs. W.E. Lowe; Circle 3, Tuesday evening at 8:45, in order that members may attend the evening services at the church, with Mrs. K.K. Hughes and Miss Edith Brannock; Circle 4, Tuesday evening at 8:45, with Mrs. Howard Edgerton and Miss Virginia Bradshaw.

Beginning this evening, and continuing through Thursday, at 7:30 each evening, there will be preaching services here, during this, our Religious Emphasis Week. The full schedule of services with preachers and subjects will be given you as you leave the service this morning. Dr. H.S. Hardcastle will preach this evening. You are asked to take extra copies of the week's program with you to give to a neighbor or friend with invitation to share these services with us.

All are invited to attend the chapel services of the week, at 10 o'clock, in Whitley. The chapel service on Wednesday will be at 11 A.M., when Billy Graham and his party conduct the service.

Anyone wishing to invite one or more of our guest preachers to their home for a meal this week may do so by getting in touch with Mr. Bozarth.

Each evening an offering will be taken to enable us to meet the incidental expenses of Religious Emphasis Week.

Come not without a prayer for thyself, for those who minister to you and for those to whom we may be sent. For the healing of the hurt, the inspiration of the discouraged; fellowship for the lonely, strength of heart for the weary and salvation to the lost, this church offers its ministry in love.

CALL TO WORSHIP - The Minister

PRAYER OF INVOCATION (All uniting)

O God, the King Eternal, who dividest the day from darkness, and turnest the shadow of night into morning: cast far from us all wrong desires, incline our hearts to love thy law; and guide our feet into the way of peace; that we may do thy ill with cheerfulness while it is day, and when evening comes, rejoice and give thanks unto thee. Bless us in our worship of thee, in this hour. Impart to us thy goodness; inspire us in thy love; protect us by thy power, and receive us in thy mercy, now and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Student Fellowship will meet in the parish house this evening at 5:30, for a special devotional program in keeping with the nation-wide observance on college campuses of World Day of Prayer. Several students will take part in the service and the film-trip, "Seek Ye First the Kingdom," with accompanying address, will be seen and heard. All are invited.

The Pilgrim Fellowship for young people of junior and senior high ages, will meet at 7 in the parish house for their regular session. This group has grown recently in interest and attendence and we urge all who are eligible to participate.

The Lenten Season is but a fortnight away. All are asked to bear in mind the pastor's home meetings for devotions and spiritual instruction, twice weekly in different homes of the community, beginning Ash Wednesday, March 5, and held on Wednesday and Friday each week at 8 in homes to be announced. Also, all are asked to look forward to sharing in the Holy Week-light services which the pastor will conduct here in Whitley beginning Palm Sunday night, April 11, and continuing through Friday when the choir will sing a special Good Friday presentation.

Next Friday evening, at 7:30, in the First Baptist Church in Graham, another meeting of the Better Alliance Association is scheduled to consider further activity of this organization. Men and women of the churches of the county are invited to attend.

Next Sunday evening at 6, the Pilgrim Fellowship group of our church will be guests of the Pilgrim Fellowship in the First Congregational Christian Church in Burlington. Members, make your reservations to attend the meeting, so cars can be provided.

Come not without a prayer for thyself, for those who minister to you and for those to whom we may be sent. For the healing of the hurt, the inspiration of the discouraged; fellowship for the lonely, strength of heart for the weary and salvation to the lost, this church offers its ministry in love.

Home fellowship and devotional meetings will be held this week, on Wednesday and Friday evenings, at 8. On Wednesday, at home of Mrs. D.H. Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. T.H. Mackintosh; on Friday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Marsh McLelland, on Woodale Drive. Letters went out Friday to our people indicating the home to which each family is specially invited, for these Lenten home gatherings. We hope every member and friend of our church will be present at one of these home meetings. Please let the hostess know if she may or may not expect you on the evening you are assigned to be her guest. If you are not able to attend the assigned meeting, you are invited to attend any other which is more convenient. Just let the hostess know, in any case, where you will attend.

Beginning this morning, the minister will preach through the Lenten Period on some of the great "I Am" texts of the New Testament. Next Sunday the text will be, "I am the Bread of Life."

Come not without a prayer for thyself, for those who minister to you and for those to whom we may be sent. For the healing of the hurt, the inspiration of the discouraged; fellowship for the lonely, strength of heart for the weary and salvation to the lost, this church offers its ministry in love.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We welcome back today our college choir, who have had one of their most successful northern concert tours, singing in churches of Virginia, New York, Connecticutt, Massachusetts and Washington, D.C. This morning, as we sing our opening hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy," the choir will sing a variation of the melody, during one or two of the verses, while the congregation sings the conventional air. This variation was used in the service in Washington Cathedral, and we believe it will prove inspiring to us in this service.

The Student Fellowship will meet in the parish house at 5:30 this evening. Following the devotional period, reports will be heard from Bob Phelps, who recently attended the regional council of the Student YMCAS, in Atlanta; and from the students who made the seminar visit to Washington, D.C. with Dr. Cunningham, during vacation. All students and faculty invited.

The Pilgrim Fellowship will meet at 7 in the parish house. Junior and senior high students are invited.

In the foyer are handbills announcing the showing in Town Theater, beginning Friday, April 2, of the great and heralded film, "Martin Luther." It is to be a great experience for all who can see this picture depicting the life and times of the major figure of the Protestant Reformation.

Home Lenten devotional and fellowship meetings this week will be held, Wednesday, at 8 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Loy; and on Friday, at 8, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Williams, Jr.

Come not without a prayer for thyself, for those who minister to you and for those to whom we may be sent. For the healing of the hurt, the inspiration of the discouraged; fellowship for the lonely, strength of heart for the weary and salvation to the lost, this church offers its ministry in love.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Your presence at our services, during this summer period is heartily appreciated. It will markedly strengthen the church if we all show special loyalty and devotion to the vital ministry of worship and the Sunday School in this brief interim preceding the arrival of our new minister, Rev. William J. Andes, of Winston-Salem. He will preach his first sermon here on Sunday, September 6th.

We are specially grateful to Mrs. T. H. Mackintosh for her work in directing the community choir during these Summer Sundays. Miss Shirley Cox is our capable organist. The fine loyalty and excellent ministry rendered by the choir adds greatly to the enrichment of our services. Thanks to all who are assisting.

The guest ministers for the month of August will be announced Sunday by Sunday in advance.

It will assist and hearten your guest minister if you sit well forward and in the center of the auditorium, during our worship services.

Keep up your church contributions during this summer period as far as possible. The church is necessarily involved in additional expense, due to parsonage repairs, and your generosity will be deeply appreciated.

Come not without a prayer for thyself, for those who minister to you and for those to whom we may be sent. For the healing of the hurt, the inspiration of the discouraged; fellowship for the lonely, strength of heart for the weary and salvation to the lost, this church offers its ministry in love.

It is the Aim of this Church to present a religion as considerate of persons as the teachings of Jesus; as devoted to justice as the Old Testament prophets; as responsive to truth as science; as beautiful as art; as intimate as the home and as indispensable as the air we breathe.

For the achievement of this goal we bid you welcome, and invite your presence, your prayers, your gifts, and your service.

CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

The Elon College Community Church is a part of the Congregational Christi Churches in America. This denomination is the result of the organic union 1931 of the National Council of the Congregational Churches and of the Gene Convention of the Christian Church. Today, these churches extend into eve state of the union and into many nations of the world.

The Congregational Churches were first organized in England in the 16 century in revolt against state control of worship and conscience. They ca to America as the Church of the Pilgrim Fathers, and together with the Purita who came later, they greatly influenced the founding of the American Republ

The Christian Churches grew out of union movements among Methodis Baptists and Presbyterians from 1792 to 1804. James O'Kelly led the moveme in North Carolina and Virginia.

The following principles are generally held by our churches:

1. The Lord Jesus Christ is the only Head of the Church.

2. Christian is a sufficient name for the followers of Christ.

3. The Bible is a sufficient rule of faith and practice.

4. Christian character is a sufficient test of fellowship and church memb ship.

5. The right of private judgment and the liberty of conscience is a right a a privilege that should be accorded to and exercised by all.

A Great Renewal of Religious Interest

In the last decade membership in religious congregations has increased by more n 27 million—over twice the rate of our population growth. Thousands of houses worship have been built, there has been an increase of 40,000 active clergymen d more Bibles have been published than in the previous four decades. Vast diences of religious radio and television programs also reflect our growing spiritual erests. Although we have made great gains in our material possessions, it is the ewal of spiritual interest that adds meaning and significance to these material gains. e stability of our families and homes and progress of the nation have their roots moral and spiritual values.

Mr. Gray uses an or nal technique which perfected at sea during long watches as he serv in our Navy. By maki the outline of the le conform to a part of familiar animal or obje then illustrating that let with the object, the lett are fixed in the mind by sociation to the object.

The Every Member Canvass

The Canvass is not operated on guess-work, airy speculation or wishful thinki but on principles. The first of these is that the Canvass is dedicated in Christ service to the worship of God. Necessarily it is immediately concerned with financ support, but its ultimate objective coincides with that of the church of which it a part. Every member and friend, regardless of financial ability, is encompassed with the philosophy, purpose and spirit of the Canvass just as fully as in the chu itself. Through the Canvass we cooperate toward spiritual ends.

Happy New Citizen

Six year old Robert Harrison Kingsbury was a proud and happy young lad recently when, at the U.S. District Court at New Haven, Conn., Judge Robert P. Anderson welcomed him as a new citizen after his naturalization. He will be with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. John A. Kingsbury, when they take up their work under the American Board in Turkey this fall.

Bobby was found by the Kingsburys in an orphanage in Germany in which the men from Chaplain Kingsbury's battalion spent their free time painting and fixing. Over one hundred children have come to America from this home.

Forefathers' Day

We rejoice in the heritage that is ours, reaching from the early Church at Jerusalem down through the Reformation to the Pilgrim Fathers. We can rejoice at the important formative influences of our Church on the political, social, educational and religious life of our land.

Our heritage is indeed a treasury; let us know our heritage, honor it, and tell it to the generations. Let us keep the ancient faith of freedom and fellowship.

From the treasury of our forefathers' gift let us find faith to build the kingdom of Christ on earth,—old faith to conquer new problems and new faith to fight old fears.

Dreams of Glory

Some dreams are but "castles in Spain," ways of trying to escape from unpleasant facts. There are other dreams that possess creative power over the self and the world. What determines the difference? The creative dream comes from God. Who can measure the power of such a dream? Such was Jesus' dream of the kingdom of Heaven on earth; such Paul's vision of Christianity as a universal faith; such the dream of the Pilgrim Fathers, when in the narrow hold of the Mayflower they solemnly signed the compact that united them in a Civil Body Politic and so laid the foundations of democracy.

Thanksgiving Prayer

We praise and bless thee, O God, for thy love and for thy goodness to us a family. We thank thee for life, health, and strength; for home, love, and friendsh for the discipline of our trials and temptations, for the happiness that has come us out of our labors. May thy fatherly benediction rest upon us, and thy grace given unto us that we may live before thee in peace, in righteousness, and in t holiness. May we love one another with a pure love fervently. May we bear c another's burdens. Put far from each one of us the spirit of envy and jealousy a of self-seeking. In honor may we prefer one another. May we have the spirit of l and service toward our neighbors and all with whom we come into contact. M thy love be shed abroad in human hearts until all the people of the world sh become one great loving family, honoring and worshiping thee and serving c another. In the name of Christ, our Saviour. Amen.

Share Our Surplus

Under the "Share Our Surplus" program of the communions cooperating in Chur World Service, more than a half billion pounds of foodstuffs and other commodit will be shipped to the needy abroad during the next three years. As an example the vast supply of food we now have stored; as of March, this year, our dried milk solids surplus amounted to 522,128,000 lbs. Through the S. O. S. program we can help hundreds of thousands of needy, hungry, undernourished and destitute, such as these patients receiving milk rations at a mission hospital in Bombay from the supplies given by the churches in America. This food will be a gift in the name of Jesus.

For over fifty years the people and churches of our denomination have contributed to the Christmas Fund for our retired ministers and widows of deceased ministers. These contributions supplement the regular grants made by the Ministerial Relief Division of the Board of Home Missions, and bring added physical and spiritual comfort to these fine old people.

The Christmas Fund has gathered over $100,000 annually since 1945. Last year an all-time record was set when the total reached $127,000.

Last Christmas 788 checks were sent and, as we do each year, the money not then used was set aside for any possible emergencies that might occur during the remainder of the year. Thus, the Christmas Fund serves our older people all through the year, and nearly every day is Christmas to at least one member of our "family."

How the Bible Came to Us

The inspiring story of how the Bible came down to us through the ages has been made into a feature length motion picture by the American Bible Society. It is available to churches from the Society.

The film treatment is divided into three parts: formation of the Bible, how it spread across Europe, and how the English Bible came into being.

These scenes depict "Our Bible—How It Came to Us."

1. In the synagogue at Nazareth Jesus reads from the book of Isaiah.

2. Philip, one of the disciples, on the road to Gaza, explains the book of Isaiah to the Ethiopian eunuch.

3. John dictates his Gospel.

4. Martin Luther at the Diet of Worms in 1521 declares that unless convinced by the testimony of Scripture he will not revoke anything.

5. Miles Coverdale examines a copy of the first printed English Bible which he had translated (1535).

6. King James orders a new "translation be undertaken by the best learned in the Universities. . . ."

It is the Aim of this Church to present a religion as considerate of persons as the teachings of Jesus; as devoted to justice as the Old Testament prophets; as responsive to truth as science; as beautiful as art; as intimate as the home and as indispensable as the air we breathe.

For the achievement of this goal we bid you welcome, and invite your presence, your prayers, your gifts, and your service.

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold him, born the King of angels;
O come let us adore him, O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ, the Lord!

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation,
O sing, all ye bright hosts of heav'n above!
Glory to God, all glory in the highest;

CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

The Elon College Community Church is a part of the Congregational Christi Churches in America. This denomination is the result of the organic union 1931 of the National Council of the Congregational Churches and of the Gene Convention of the Christian Church. Today, these churches extend into eve state of the union and into many nations of the world.

The Congregational Churches were first organized in England in the 16 century in revolt against state control of worship and conscience. They ca to America as the Church of the Pilgrim Fathers, and together with the Purita who came later, they greatly influenced the founding of the American Republ

The Christian Churches grew out of union movements among Methodis Baptists and Presbyterians from 1792 to 1804. James O'Kelly led the moveme in North Carolina and Virginia.

The following principles are generally held by our churches:

1. The Lord Jesus Christ is the only Head of the Church.

2. Christian is a sufficient name for the followers of Christ.

3. The Bible is a sufficient rule of faith and practice.

4. Christian character is a sufficient test of fellowship and church membe ship.

5. The right of private judgment and the liberty of conscience is a right a a privilege that should be accorded to and exercised by all.

A Prayer for the New Year

Eternal God, to whom a thousand years are as a day, by thy mercy we have come to the beginning of a new year. Grant that we may enter it with humble and grateful hearts. Let not the weariness of life nor the confusion of the world rob us of our faith in thee. Thou hast blessed us richly in the past—still lead us on.

Our needs are many. Our frailty cries out in despair. We are weak. Our attitudes are wrong. Prejudice possesses us and ambition overpowers us. At the opening of the new year take control of our lives. Make us large of spirit, brotherly, generous, merciful. As thou dost lift up the fallen and bless those who curse thee, do thou come to us with healing in thy wings.

We pray for courage. May we never falter under the burdens we are asked to carry. Thou who bearest creation without weariness and art not oppressed by the ages, teach us to stand unbowed by the burden of uncertain days and the weight of unexpected demands.

We pray for clear minds and open eyes as new days confront us. Enable us to see and understand life's changes and grant that we may rise to meet them in thy fear.

We pray for a fresh sense of the sacredness of life. May we call all men our brothers and reach out to them in the sure and certain faith that they too are thy children, the sons of light and hope of the days to come.

Guide our hands, our minds, our energies to those undertakings which are worthy of us and pleasing to thee.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

To believe much of God is to expect much of God. Faith is the act of casting our burdens upon God; it includes trust and reliance. Faith means believing the truth about Jesus and trusting the power of Jesus. In real faith our convictions are undergirded by his living presence and available power; we willingly entrust ourselves and our affairs to his control. We can only trust him so because we believe in him, and believing in him we commit ourselves to him.

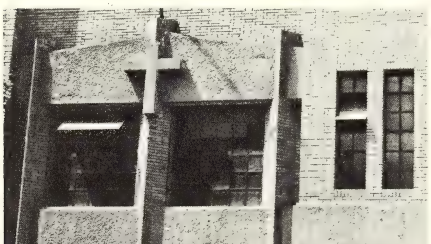
Fiftieth Anniversary

In the church where he was ordained, the Ludlow (Vermont) Church, Dr. Rodney W. Roundy marked the fiftieth anniversary of his service to the Christian ministry. It is not given to many men to observe such an occasion, and few men who do come to it with the measure of vigor and zest for living that Dr. Roundy possesses.

Ludlow Church was filled to capacity when Dr. Roundy preached on Sunday morning to men and women some of whom had joined the church under his ministry. Some had served under him when he was Conference Superintendent in Maine. Dr. Roundy has served the denomination in many capacities,—as Corporate Member of the Home Board, cabinet member of Missions Council; he now serves the State of Maine in the legislature.

Witness of Faith

Protestant churches in Spain have rarely been photographed. Rare also, in any church in Europe, is a congregation in which men make up half the worshipers. U. S. Navy men are welcome at the Second Baptist Church in Barcelona.



Visitors to Spain are acutely aware the fact that most Protestant church cannot be identified by any symbol name on the outside of the house of wo ship or on the minister's home. Servi men attending the Presbyterian Chur in Barcelona recently found this mode and attractive entrance. Those who h been in Spain several years ago were su prised now to see the cross displaye

The essence of Brotherhood is the sense of relatedness and belongingness of men, one to another, and to God. And there is a naturalness in this achievement which is not unlike the magic of attraction which young children have for each other and the spontaneous joy they share in communication and discovery. There are no "but—ifs" and exceptions in this state of mind and affection; for these are born of the stereotypes and distorted "pictures in our heads" of each other which cause withdrawal and suspicion. These are the vehicles of the gentle but pervading prejudices which harden conscience. If the Divine power of love is to express itself fully in us we must, perforce, slough off all the barriers of mental and social construct which separate us and prevent the extension of ourselves to our fellows in Christ.

Equality of All Men

From the beginning of our history we have been diversified, culturally and racially. It has been a great human experiment which has been launched and conducted on our American shores and plains — perhaps the greatest and most challenging in the history of human society. . . . We have set out here to demonstrate that peoples of all racial strains, of all colors, creeds and cultures, of widely varying background, can be accepted as equals, can learn to live and work and play together and become a firm unity by the force and attraction of noble ideals mutually shared — the dignity and worth of the individual, the equality of all men and the concept of the state as the democratic expression and the servant of free men and women.

Ralph J. Bunche

Resources of Council for Social Action

The Council for Social Action, through institutes, seminars and study programs, devotes the principal part of its resources to education of members on the Christian viewpoints in social issues. Ministers and members of Congregational Christian churches concerned about the application of Christian principles to social problems gather often to study what the churches can do in racial, international and economic affairs. The monthly magazine, Social Action, presents the principal positions on which Christians may fairly differ on current issues such as UN Charter Review, overcoming racial segregation in our schools and living together in a divided world. Packets on such subjects as School Construction Needs, Public Responsibility for Mental Health, Fair Play in Congressional Investigations are provided study groups.

Dwell Together in Unity

The Evanston Assembly of the World Council stated "It is Jesus Christ who revealed God as Father and who died for all men, reconciling them to God and to each other by His Cross. From every race and nation a new people of God is created, in which the power of the Spirit overcomes racial pride and fear." This new people of God has laid upon them an even greater moral imperative to dwell in unity with all men as brothers. "Have we not all one Father?" Has not one God created all races to dwell together in unity?

The Bonds of United Pray

To unite all Christians in a bon prayer, and in the United States make an offering for interdenominati missions projects, is the purpose of World Day of Prayer. It is a witnes individuals, that prayer is a world po for good. As a group we unite strengthen this power for good in world. From the rising of the sun Friday, February 25th, until its sett Christians will be making fervent tions in simple chapels, under thatc roofs, in humble churches, in g cathedrals, — but with one hope brotherhood and peace. A thousand fering tongues; one faith.

Making the Christian Gospel Effective

My strongest impression of the Second Assembly of the World Council Churches was the earnest effort which the delegates made to translate their the of "Christ the Hope of the World" into effective action in society. Time and ag they declared that the world's best hope, indeed its only hope, was Jesus Christ. tensions of society can be broken not by might, nor by power, but by His Sp "He rules over all history by the power of His cross and resurrection," declared Assembly, "and nothing can pluck this world out of His hands. . . . With assurance we can face the powers of evil and the threat of death with a good cour Our Christian hope directs us toward our neighbor." Delegates, in groups, wrest with social issues until they were seen under the light of the Cross. As churches a members deal with controversial social issues on which hang the destiny of men a nations they find common ground at the foot of the Cross. Because Christ is the h of the world the Congregational Christians established and maintain the Council Social Action "for helping the churches to make the Christian Gospel more effect in society, national and world-wide."

Brotherhood

A mark of respect for a man is to recognize that he is a person, someone with a name, identifiable. He wants to be known not as a Negro, or a Catholic, or a Jew, but as a person, with a name. It is his proper God-given right. May we see people, not as strangers, but as brothers with our same hopes and fears.

The Steep Ascent

LIFE finds its very essence, as well as its beauty, in alternations and variations of emphasis. There is a pulsation in all of nature. We breathe the fresh air into our lungs and then exhale it. We walk by continually losing balance, first on one side and then on the other. The tides sweep in and out, refreshing the coast line and keeping the waters purified and life-giving. The night alternates with the day, giving us the change from activity to rest. The seasons come and go. Sameness is staleness.

Even in our spiritual life, there are special times of emphasis. The Christian year has its stately periods and high moments. There is Advent, leading up to Christmas, then Epiphany, and later Pentecost. But in some ways Lent, with its climax in Holy Week and Easter Sunday, is for Christians the major season of spiritual renewal. Properly we are accustomed to giving a bit more thought to the cultivation of those inner attitudes and understandings that must sustain us through all the rest of the year.

For these next few weeks, in our daily devotions, let us as individuals and as families explore the pattern of Christian experience, in the company of those through all the ages who would "climb the steep ascent of heaven."

The Agnus Dei, Lamb of God, is an ancient, victorious symbol used by Christians to remind them of Christ's suffering and his victory over the cross and death.

Dr. J. E. Danieley is attending the National Laymen's Fellowship meeting in Chicago this weekend.

What May We Say About Christ?

We must go forward in our emphasis upon the Lord and Leader of our lives, even Jesus Christ. Let no church fail to proclaim his name. Let no church fail to make him the center of its life. To fail in making him the center is death — to make him the center is life. What may we say about our Christ? This. He startled the world with his birth. He amazed the world with his teaching and healing. He shocked the world with his death. He astounded the world with his resurrection. He filled the world with expectance. He gave men hope. He gives men hope. Because of him the lame walk, the blind see, the deaf hear, the dumb speak, the world shakes, the church is born and the good news of Christ goes hurtling through the world. He is our hope. Albert Buckner Coe

A Foretaste of the Kingdom of God

Who is able to bridge the chasms between East and West, between the church of diverse tradition? The answer? Only Jesus Christ. It is He "who revealed God a Father and who died for all men, reconciling them to God and to each other b His Cross." Through a program of study and action on Church and Race, th Council for Social Action helps to create a "new people of God" out of man diverse peoples, races and nations, "in which the power of the Spirit overcome racial pride and fear." It helps Christians "to strive through social and politica action to secure justice, freedom and peace for all, as a foretaste of that Kingdon into which the faithful shall be gathered."

* * *

There are so many kinds of darkness, so many shadows, it needs so many kind of light to scatter them all. Love has a power against which no shadows can stand faith by the grace of God is their final resolution, and there is peace at the end of the faith-guided pilgrimage. Gaius Glenn Atkins

God's Offspring

The Christian conviction is that all persons have an altogether unique place in the world. They are made in the image of God and are, in their separate and individual existences, dear to him. All other things, created by God or fashioned by man, are of secondary importance. The person is the crown of creation, and the value of everything else on earth is to be judged by its service to persons as the offspring of God. The Christian Gospel is the good news that human beings, taken one by one, are dear to God and that he lived on earth in Jesus Christ to prove it.

The Needful Thing

Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about so many things; but one thing is needed; that thou shouldst take time from the unnecessary tasks to sit at the feet of the Master, as did Mary, and hear his word. This is that good part which shall not be taken away from thee.

The companionship of Mary's spirit meant more to Jesus than the food which Martha was so busy to prepare. A shadow lay upon the road ahead. He was about to enter Jerusalem, the city which seemed so beautiful and so sacred, but which for him was dark with peril. His visit to this home, the hours with friends were precious. His words emphasized the need for quiet listening. In the road ahead for us, Father, help us not to be distracted from listening to Thee.

HYMN 141 "Crown Him the Son of God"
CALL TO REPENTANCE

Minister . . . from all unrighteousness. Let us therefore repent of our sins as we pray:
Unison prayer: Most holy and merciful Father, we thy wayward children do make humble confession of our shortcomings and our sin. All we like sheep have gone astray and have turned everyone to his own way. We have lived too much to ourselves and not unto thee. We have not loved our brethren as we ought, nor faithfully followed our Master in unselfish service. But wilt thou pardon all our offenses. Create within us a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within us. May we go on our way with gladness, assured of thy compassion; and forgetting the things which are behind, may we reach forth unto those things which are before; pressing toward the mark of our high calling in Christ Jesus our Lord. A Measure of Faith

While the Board of Home Missions in its present corporate form is less twenty years old, no religious organization in America is heir to a richer heri of endeavor and accomplishment. There is no major segment of the Nation's cul and spiritual life that has not felt the influence of Congregational home missio education, public and private; the shaping of our basic institutions and cust traditions of appreciative inter-personal and inter-cultural relations as they been slowly ingathering within our common life of peoples of diverse origin; espousing of equal justice and equal opportunity for members of minorities; proclaiming and demonstrating of the relevance of the Christian faith and to every area of individual and corporate life. Truman B. Dougla

Seeking a World View

In order to explore another culture and get a chance for a world view in Christian service, the Reverend and Mrs. William W. Mendenhall of Ithaca, N. Y., retired from YMCA service and began work in a much-needed field in Greece. They are stationed in Salonika where they will supervise the Alatini Street Day Nursery; work closely with Anatolia College students and alumni in rehabilitation projects; cooperate with the World Council of Churches, CARE, UNESCO; and direct the distribution of food and clothing shipped by our Congregational Christian Service Committee. It would be hard to find any couple with a richer background of experience and service to the college youth of our country.

Unto the least of these

The moment we see the facts of the world our duty and privilege become clear. We have concentrated in America an abundance which we are called upon to use creatively to serve mankind. Millions upon millions of people who have never known what sufficient food is oscillate between sleep and hunger. There is no pleasure in sleep and no relief to their hunger. Permanent blindness in the young because of lack of vitamins; boys as wild as wolves begging, stealing food; formerly self-supporting farmers living like animals in a cage; these are the people who can be reached through our One Great Hour of Sharing.

Time to Share

Today our church is joining thousands of others which have thankfully made offerings that will enable our denomination to do its part in alleviating the want and despair that rule the lives of so many in this "age of the homeless man." As we share as one in this great hour of sharing, the blessing and the spirit of the compassionate Christ joins with us. We act as "keepers" of Christ's brothers.

The Grace of an Endless Life

St. Paul saw life under the dimensions of eternity. Death had lost its sting and the grave its victory. All this he knew because of his vision in the Damascus Desert.

Easter will soon have passed with its beauty of message and song. Its symphonies of courage, comfort and hope will have circled the globe with its message. But its challenge endures because it is a door to the enduring dimension of life. "If you have been raised with Christ—set your mind on things that are above." By the grace of God, they do not lie beyond our reach or understanding and St. Paul made them the texture of his message, his life, and his death.

Listen therefore this morning for a voice heard across the centuries. Seek the ways of love and goodness. Let every deed be a part of that which has a right to endure and let the passing day possess some gleam from beyond the hills of time. Live as if you were to live forever. The risen Christ will be your comrade and your guide.

Relief in Hong Kong

Under the directorship of the Rev. Elmer W. Galt, Church World Service has built 192 neat, fireproof homes for Bamboo Curtain refugees. Faith Hope Nursery, pictured in the foreground, renders service to 100 destitute children in the settlement. Mr. Galt's work is supported by our Congregational Christian Service Committee. Before he retires this summer he hopes to see more homes being built for the needy.

Not my will,
but thine, be done.

IN THE GARDEN it was dark, and very quiet in the shadows beneath the olive trees. Jesus bade the main group of the disciples sit together at a certain place and wait for him. With Peter and James and John he went deeper among the trees. These three men, who had been with him at most of the great moments of his ministry, he drew round him again in this his darkest hour. In them there was a comradeship of understanding which he wanted now. "My heart is sad," he said, "even to the point of death. Stay here and watch."

Leaving them there, he went forward and fell on the ground, and the awe-struck disciples could hear him pray. Like one in agony he was wrestling with what confronted him. For a long time he had foreseen the enmity which was closing round him and the possibility of his death. But now he faced the imminent fact of it, the fact not only of physical torture and of death, but of the scattering of his disciples and the seeming defeat of the gospel he had proclaimed. He prayed that the bitter hour might pass away.

"Abba, Father," the disciples heard him say, "all things are possible to thee; take this cup away. Nevertheless, not what I will, but what thou wilt." Then in silence his figure still was kneeling, waiting for his answer from on high.

Our Fellowship of Indian Churches

As Congregational Chri tians we no longer have "mission to the Indians. Instead, we include in ou Fellowship Indian churche and Indians in churche Many churches welcom them as they would an person in the community They are no longer to b regarded as objects of ou special benevolence, to b patronized. The thirt churches which are our "Indian churches" have special problems, among whic young leaders and financial support are paramount. But since the earliest days o our work in them there has been growth, slow and sometimes halting, but growth And the future will see more. These are aided churches but not mission churches they are independent, self-governed and self-led.

The Board of Home Missions—Servant of Our Fellowship

Only a missionary church can be at once responsibly local and Christianly in clusive—with a sense of fellowship and concern as wide as the redemption of th Cross. It is to enable every local church to fulfill its own character and callin by dedicating its strength and resources to a nation-wide and world-wide mission that the Board of Home Missions—together with the other missionary bodies o the denomination—endeavors to be a faithful and fruitful servant of our Fellowship

The Way of Sorrow

Along this road in old Jerusalem, known as the Via Dolorosa, or Way of Sorrow, Christ carried the cross from the site of Pilate's court to Calvary. The fourteen stations of the cross are indicated by tablets at various points along the way, but the street itself is the site of only eight stations. The next five are in the Golgotha Chapels of the Church of the Sepulchre, and the fourteenth and last station is in the sepulchre itself. The street is the site also of the traditional House of the Poor Man (Lazarus) and of the House of the Rich Man (Dives). The Way of Sorrows has changed little since the time of Christ.

Easter Day

Easter Day sheds its light on the Church of Jesus Christ, revealing it in its full, its deathless dimensions.

When you and I, like the first disciples after the first Easter, hear the voice of the risen and majestic Christ, we know that the Church must be something more than our group of neighbors who gather for worship every Sunday morning in the steepled building on Main Street. To be in touch with Christ is to have the mind expanded. The boundaries of selfhood are razed. To know him is to know that his concern is not limited to any self-concerned group. It goes out to the ends of the earth. When you enjoy his compassion you do not underguage the extent of it. You realize that the number of those who consciously accept it—which is the Church—cannot easily be counted.

But that is only one aspect of the Church.

On Easter Day the veil between time and eternity thins to gossamer. Jesus Christ declares himself the Lord and Friend not only of us who live here but of those who live there. He is the bond between us and those whom we have loved and lost—and yet not lost, because in the power and love of God they cannot be lost. "O blest communion, fellowship divine—we feebly struggle; they in glory shine." Easter discloses the Church as a divine as well as an earthly society.

Easter shows the Church to be what our old Cambridge Platform of 1648 say it is, "the whole company of those that are . . . called . . . unto . . . grace . . . in Jesus Christ."

CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

The Elon College Community Church is a part of the Congregational Christian Churches in America. This denomination is the result of the organic union in 1931 of the National Council of the Congregational Churches and of the General Convention of the Christian Church. Today, these churches extend into every state of the union and into many nations of the world.

The Congregational Churches were first organized in England in the 16th century in revolt against state control of worship and conscience. They came to America as the Church of the Pilgrim Fathers, and together with the Puritans, who came later, they greatly influenced the founding of the American Republic.

The Christian Churches grew out of union movements among Methodists, Baptists and Presbyterians from 1792 to 1804. James O'Kelly led the movement in North Carolina and Virginia.

The following principles are generally held by our churches:

1. The Lord Jesus Christ is the only Head of the Church.

2. Christian is a sufficient name for the followers of Christ.

3. The Bible is a sufficient rule of faith and practice.

4. Christian character is a sufficient test of fellowship and church membership.

5. The right of private judgment and the liberty of conscience is a right and a privilege that should be accorded to and exercised by all.

Our Family's Hope

With Christ we face the world and the future unafraid. In him we catch a vision of the oneness of mankind—that we are all members of his family. Christ revealed the nature of God's love for us and this is our measure of hope. Our family is greater than love itself for it includes, ennobles and makes permanent all that is best in love.

SEASON OF PRAYER for our homes:

Minister: O Father in Heaven, we name our family after Christ, thy Son. And for our dwelling, our food, our health, for all who serve our home -
People: We thank thee.
Minister: For making us dear to one another, for good times in happy union, and for all our many blessings -
People: We thank thee.
Minister: That thou wilt lead us day by day in ways of love and tenderness one to another -
People: We pray, Lord Jesus.
Minister: That each may stay close to all the rest, that we may be mindful one of another with sympathy and understanding -
People: We pray, Lord Jesus.
Minister: That honest and cheerful, brave and true, we may quick and ready to help each other meet the day's work and cares -
People: We pray, Lord Jesus.
Minister: That we may so respect and love each other that quarrels may have no place in our home -
People: We pray, Lord Jesus.

Minister: For home life and its memories; for his keeping us one and secure; for him in whom we live and trust -
People: Bless we our God.
Minister: For his holy Church in all the world, God's greater family, that bids us share her gifts with God's children everywhere -
People: Bless we our God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Women Unite on May Fellowship Day

Mrs. Edgar A. Bark, newly elected Women's Fellowship president emphasizes the theme, "The Responsible Family" for May Fellowship Day, (a day when church women all over our nation unite within their own communities in bonds of friendship and love), thus: "We're all familiar with the practice of measuring the physical growth of our children against a door or wall and we are often loath to remove such "growth marks" when cleaning. How shall we determine whether we are achieving satisfactory growth as mature and responsible members of a family unit? In no other period in history has there been greater need for the witness of a Christian family, and by the same token never have parents found it so difficult to maintain the values and standards by which Christian homes will always be judged. A family which takes time for the study of God's word will further enrich the lives of its members. A knowledge of the Bible will be a continuing comfort and inspiration to the church and community." Observe May 6th by tying fellowship and action together to make the day more vital.

Africa, Our Greatest Opportunity

Africa offers the greatest opportunity confronting the Christian churches today. In the next thirty years fifty million persons in Africa could be won to the Christian faith. We cannot do the whole task, but in Angola, Rhodesia and South Africa we can do our part in strategic areas. If we fail to meet our responsibilities we betray ourselves, our fellow men and the Church of Christ. Now, before it is too late, we must respond with vastly multiplied resources adequate for the task.

Rev. Frederick W. Hyslop.

Doctors Who Care

"The doctor who cares" is the way some villagers near Talas, Turkey, describe Dr. William Nute, Sr., American Board member who has served the Near East since 1924. His trips to the villages far from the clinic at Talas, his headquarters, are frequent and long. Here he visits a patient in a Turkish home in a village to which he is often called. In the course of a year almost 5000 persons are cared for by this Christian physician whose concern is as big as the area he serves. The largest part of our Near East work is in the new and progressing democracy of Turkey where our vision must match the changing needs.

At God's Right Hand

Faithful are those who love the truth, and dare the truth to tell, who steadfast stand at God's right hand, and strive to serve him well. And faithful are the gentle hearts to whom the power is given, of every hearth to make a home, of every home a heaven.

OLD HYMNS:

The Old Rugged Cross

1 - On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
The emblem of suffering and shame;
And I love that old cross where the dearest and be
For a world of lost sinners was slain.

2 - To the old rugged cross I will ever be true,
Its shame and reproach gladly bear;
Then He'll call me some day to my home far away,
Where His glory forever I'll share.

Chorus:
So I'll cherish the old rugged cross,
Till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross,
And exchange it some day for a crown.

When the Roll is Called up Yonder

1 - When the trumpet of the Lord shall sound,
And time shall be no more,
And the morning breaks eternal, bright and fair;
When the saved of earth shall gather Over on the other shore,
And the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there,

2 - Let us labor for the Master from the dawn till setting sun,
Let us talk of all his wondrous love and care;
Then when all of life is over, And our work on earth is done,
And the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there.

Chorus -
When the roll is called up yonder (repeat 3 times)
. . . I'll be there.

Will there be any stars?

1 - I am thinking today of that beautiful land,
I shall reach when the sun goeth down;
When through wonderful grace by my Savior I stand,
Will there be any stars in my crown?

2 - Oh, what joy it will be when His face I behold,
Living gems at His feet to lay down;
It would sweeten my bliss in the city of gold,
Should there be any stars in my crown.

Chorus -
Will there be any stars, any stars in my crown
When at evening the sun goeth down;
When I wake with the blest in the mansions of rest,
Will there be any stars in my crown?

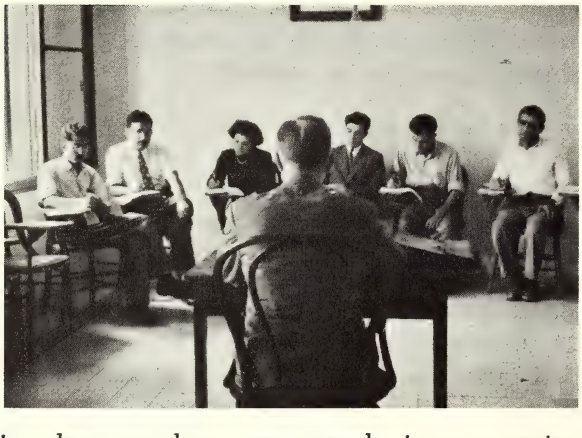
The Christian Home

The deepest purpose of the Christian home is to make love, understanding and helpfulness incarnate in daily life, that God Himself may be revealed in its experiences. Parents are set in their place not only to give life to their children but that their lives may so express love and goodness that God may be understandable to their children. The home is the most influential school of religion.

Only Protestant Seminary in the Near East



The only Protestant seminary in that part of the world, the Near East School of Theology, Beirut, Lebanon, is an important institution. Founded by Congregational Christians it now receives its support from Presbyterian and Congregational sources in America, and from the Armenian Evangelical Union, The Arab Evangelical Episcopal Church and the Syrian Protestant Synod. Its student body, numbering about two dozen young people, is representative of the region. Its graduates serve in all parts of the Middle East, and in the United States. The American Board began work in the Bible lands 135 years ago.

For the Purposes of God

The pastoral ministry is the foundation of all organized religion in the life of our world. As a leader in worship, the minister builds reverence into the lives of individuals and into the life of the community and nation. As a preacher of the Word, the minister directs all minds and hearts to the wisdom of God for the life of man. As a pastor and counselor, the minister stands as a shepherd of the flock and as a friend to the family of God in the full range of their joys and sorrows. In the life of the denomination, the community and all ecumenical interests, the minister leads in serving the purposes of God throughout the world.

Guadalajara Church School

Mexico is our nearest foreign mission land. Our work in this country covers the four coastal states bordering the Pacific immediately below the United States boundary line. Centers are in Guadalajara and Mazatlan, though we support also the Union Theological Seminary in Mexico City. The "Cathedral Church" of our churches in Mexico is in Guadalajara. Last year it moved to a new location in one of the attractive suburbs. Shown here are members of the church's youngest group, now comfortably settled in their new church home.

Church Vocations

For the person of broad talents, deep love of God and man, and a great concern for the coming of God's kingdom, church vocations offer large opportunities and abiding satisfactions, whether in the pastoral ministry or in the ministry of education. What the family doctor is to medicine, the minister and the director of Christian education are to the moral and religious health of the Christian family, the Church and the community. There is real need for strong, well-trained leaders to serve God and man through our churches. God still calls, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?"

Race, Problem of World Peace

Many authorities say that the problem of world peace is really the problem of race. Southern Africa has a racial complexity greater than that found in any other place in the world. Southern Africa is therefore a key area for the Christian mission of love and good will which transcend race. In Southern Africa our mission personnel and institutions serve in most difficult situations, but they demonstrate that racial problems can be solved. John A. Reuling, American Board Secretary

Serving two fine schools in Africa, Miss Louise Torrence (left) recently returned to Mt. Silinda Institute, and Miss Monona Cheney took up her work in Inanda Seminary. Miss Cheney, an experienced teacher from Wisconsin, hoped to return to China where she taught from 1917 to 1923, but finds her new work in Africa "a bridge to understanding between peoples." Miss Torrence has been a teacher for over 25 years among the Vandau people, specializing in domestic science.

Dr. Horton Heads Harvard Divinity

The Reverend Douglas Horton, minister of our General Council for the past 17 years, will become the dean of Harvard Divinity School on July 1st. Dr. Horton will head the development of the divinity school as a world center of religious learning. Here increasing numbers of ministers will be trained and interdenominational religious scholarship advanced. Dr. Horton, outstanding leader in cooperation among the churches of the world, has served the Congregational Christian Churches with great distinction. May God bless his new services.

Sacrifice, Industry and Determination

Dr. John A. Reuling, American Board Secretary for Africa, and Ndabaningi Sithole, who has begun three years training at Andover-Newton Theological Seminary, recorded Mr. Sithole's message to the churches in America. The dramatic story of a boy who began life in pagan surroundings and, by sacrifice, industry and determination became teacher, historian and Christian leader, is a stirring example of the success of the opportunities offered by our mission schools.

Ronnie Sharp and Margaret Ann Boland to be married today at the First Evangelical and Reformed Church in Burlington.

Robert Kinch and Vergie Coggins to be married next Saturday at Mt. Gilead, N. C. Bob has just returned from serving with the army in Korea.

WELCOME to Cub Scout Pack 51. Waverly Hughes is the Scoutmaster and Sam Webster is the assistant.

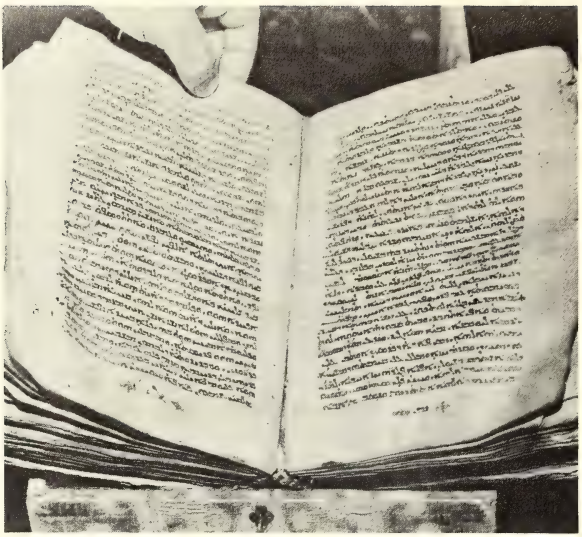
GREETINGS to Kim Shields Varney, born June 12, 1955 to Coach and Mrs. H. E. Varney.

ENROLLMENT at our Bible School this past week reached 130, plus 24 teachers and workers. Their offering of $19 bought athletic equipment for Moonelon. A group of students, along with Miss Melva Foster, the Director, went to Burlington and purchased the equipment, and then presented these balls, bats, ect., for their offering and dedication Friday at the closing service. Thanks to all who have made this a successful school.

YOUR MINISTER will be attending the "Fellowship of Campus Ministry" June 23-29 in Chicago. He will be accompanied by "Dick" Jackson of Chapel Hill and Bill Scott, Jr. of Durham. Dr. Earl Danieley will be our guest speaker next Sunday.

NEXT SATURDAY - all day: Men of the churches in N. C. are urged to come to Moonelon and work! The grounds are to be cleared and cleaned up in general. Summer Camps start the following week. Bring axe, shovel, mattock, or other tools..... Thanks men for cleaning the grounds around the Parish House. Parish House grounds should be "The Green" of our town!

BOTH CHOIRS rehearse this week.



Unique Bible Manuscript Displayed

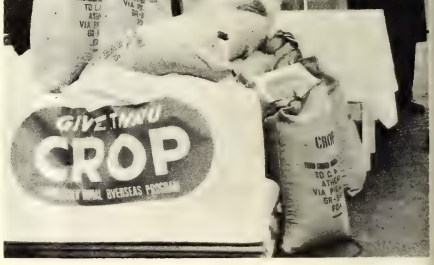
This 1,600-year-old Aramaic manuscript, said by several Biblical scholars to be the oldest known copy of the New Testament, went on display at the Library of Congress. Known as the Yonan Codex, the manuscript is owned by Norman Yonan, a retired business man who came to the United States from Iraq after World War I. Mr. Yonan said the manuscript has been in his family for nearly fifty generations.

The Most Urgent Need

"Spiritual vitality cannot be put into books and sent by mail from one country to another. It must be exemplified in lives. I am convinced that the finding and training of a larger number of better fitted workers for the Church is the most urgent need we face." So writes Dr. Alford Carleton, Executive Vice President of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. The Board is seeking at present, for 1955 needs, 64 persons to serve with the churches in Christian institutions which our missions support overseas. Young people who are spiritually alive, professionally competent, emotionally stable and willing to adjust their living to a level where they can identify themselves with those with whom they work—pioneers of life—these are the people who can fulfil the commission of the American Board.

Dedication of Gift to Greece

The Rev. R. Norris Wilson, Executive Director of Church World Service, broadcast direct to Greece from the decks of the S.S. Ferncape which carried 420,000 lbs. of hybrid seed corn to refugee farm communities in northern Greece. The gift by Americans, through Christian Rural Overseas Program, will plant 60,000 acres and yield, under normal conditions, 3 times as much as native Greek varieties. With Mr. Wilson at the dedication are Dr. Eugene Blake, National Council of Churches president, CROP director Albert W. Farmer, Greek Orthodox clergy, church, government and business leaders.



The More Abundant Life

"You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Those who follow this teaching of the Master give meaning and nobility to their labors, and know their obligations cannot be limited by the borders of our own country. One of the greatest of all new movements of our century is the sharing of the knowledge and methods whereby a better and more abundant life for the peoples of the world can, in time, be created by their own efforts and through their own institutions.

Through Heart and Fingertips

"To one who is deaf and blind the spiritual world bears no difference from the physical world. A man without religion—I can as easily fancy a living body without a heart." These are the words of Helen Keller, now 75, who calls deaf-blind people "the world's most lonely."

Although doubly handicapped physically, Miss Keller's spiritual life began to grow as she sat upon the knees of Phillips Brooks and "learned that God is Love." No teacher, parent or friend could have foreseen how much her religious faith, fortified by this knowledge, would come to inspire her and humanity, for as counselor, author and social worker, her contacts are international.

Through her heart, mind and fingertips this woman learns and gives comfort to less "lonely" fellow men.

From Dr. Alford Carleton's Notebook

Dr. Alford Carleton has kept a notebook of choice nuggets of wisdom and inspiration for many years. From time to time bits of his treasure will appear in these bulletins.

"Every man is a missionary, now and forever, for good or for evil, whether he intends or designs it or not. He may be a blot, radiating outward to the very circumference of society his dark influence; or he may be a blessing, spreading benediction over the length and breadth of the world: but a blank he cannot be."

A Doctor for India

Dr. Hale Henry Cook, with Mrs. Cook and their four children, Stephen, Timothy, Martha and Miriam, begins a second term of service to India. They are enroute to Satara where Dr. Cook will develop among the Marathas a public health program including infant and child welfare, a small maternity hospital and roadside clinics for lepers.

Dr. Cook helped realize the goal of the American Board for Pierce Memorial Hospital at Wai; to develop adequate Christian Indian professional leadership so that the hospital would be fully Indianized and carried on by Indian personnel. He was Medical Superintendent of that hospital on his first term of service which began in 1947.

A Communion Prayer

O God, the help of those that flee unto thee, the hope of those who cry unto thee, cleanse us from our sins and from every thought displeasing to thy goodness, that with a pure heart and a clear soul, with calm trust and perfect love, we may worship thee as we seek through these sacred symbols to remember and realize thy love in Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Call to Prayer 531 - Minister and Choir
Prayer of Confession: Almighty and merciful Father, who in thy tender compassion didst send thy Son to be our Saviour, we confess in thy presence that we have broken thy commandments and sinned against thee; and we are not worthy to lift up our eyes unto heaven. Our sins are the more grievous because of the light thou hast given us. Thou hast made known thy will to us in thy Word; thou hast revealed the greatness of thy love by giving thy Son for our redemption. If thou shouldst deal with us according to thy justice, none of us could stand before thee. Forgive us, we pray, for the sake of Jesus Christ. Grant us thy pardon, that, putting on the new man, we may walk in the liberty of those whom thou hast forgiven; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Minister: Lord, have mercy upon us.

The Communion Service

The communion service is an opportunity for an unhurried waiting before God, when symbols are more important than words and silence has a chance to work its healing ministry with our souls. Each celebration of the Lord's Supper serves to recall into the focus of attention the memory of the cross and the spirit of love and sacrificial service for which it stands. If we make it so it can be a time of self-analysis and frank facing of our life's ideals linked together with a mystic open-mindedness toward God as revealed in Jesus Christ.

The Regional Meetings

MID-WEST, OCTOBER 18, 19, 20. MADISON, WIS.
EASTERN, OCTOBER 25, 26, 27. CONCORD, N. H.
NORTHWEST, NOVEMBER 1, 2, 3. SEATTLE, WASH.

Our regional meetings are intended to be educational and inspirational program for our Congregational Christian Fellowship. Ministers and church delegates—men women and youth, meet to listen, discuss, study and benefit from the highest type leadership; no effort is spared to obtain these able speakers and leaders. The theme for the Mid-West Meeting will be "Stewards of His Treasure", emphasizing the united expansion and functional program of all our Boards and Conferences. "The Christian's Responsibility in Today's World" will be studied at the Eastern Regional. A special "Ambassador Through Music", Rosa Page Welch, will be soloist and lead group singing.

Stewardship

Stewardship is a principle, a plan and a power. The principle that gives direction to life and behavior is the acceptance of God's entrustment to us. The plan makes provision for the continuous flow of our gratitude to him and our responsible concern for our fellow man. The power rests in the multiplied increase of the gift when dedicated to God.

The Bible

This Living Book is our Christian record of those experiences of men in which they most directly and personally encountered God through his prophets and in his Son. It is our indispensable and original witness to our faith and is a living book because the truth which it holds can never be confined by any human expression of it. The Bible is also much more than a book; it is a "mould cast of the world" — that world with which we are so familiar and the world that is hidden from us by our preoccupation with the surface of things. We cannot open the Bible without opening its world for its words are a bridge between our experiences and God's purpose for us. The message of the Bible is not so much of knowing something about God as of realizing we are known by him.

Tolle, Lege: Take, Read

The great spiritual benefit from Bibl reading is brought to mind by thi poster which is being used by th American Bible Society to foster world wide Bible reading from Thanksgivin to Christmas. The illustration was in spired by the story of St. Augustin who, being torn between many gros teachings and tormented by moral weak ness, heard a child in a nearby garde say "Tolle, lege" (take, read). He use these simple words, not meant for him to a new purpose and began readin Paul's Epistles. Never again did he lac divine power to overcome evil.

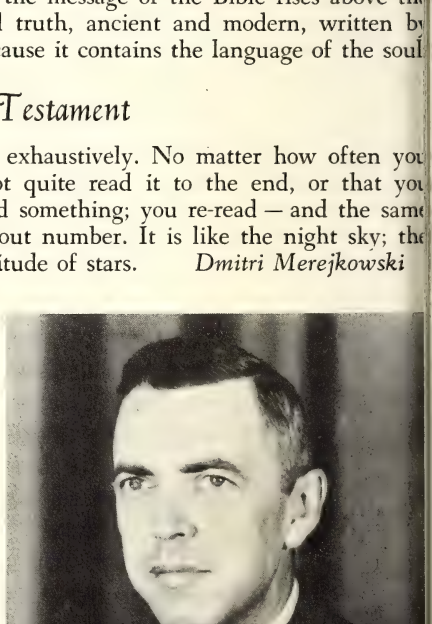
The Timelessness of the Bible

The Bible has characteristics which give it unique value as a book of devotion One of them is the timelessness of its message to the human soul. Other writings ar conditioned by time and circumstance, but the message of the Bible rises above th immediate and the temporary. It is eternal truth, ancient and modern, written b men of the past, applicable to every age because it contains the language of the soul

The New Testament

It is a strange book; you cannot read it exhaustively. No matter how often yo read it, it always seems that you have not quite read it to the end, or that yo have forgotten, or have failed to understand something; you re-read — and the sam thing happens again and again, times without number. It is like the night sky; th longer you gaze at it the greater is the multitude of stars. Dmitri Merejkowski

Chaplain Martin Honored



Because of his outstanding work at Fort Myer, Va., where he was stationed until his transfer to Newfoundland, Chaplain (Major) Clyde M. Martin, a Congregationalist of Wilmington, Mass., was named "Air Force Chaplain of the Year." The honor was given him by the District of Columbia Department of the Reserve Officers Association. The association cited Chaplain Martin as the Protestant recipient of similar honor given to a Jewish chaplain and a Roman Catholic priest in service.

Ceremonies were held in connection with the unveiling at National Memorial Park of a fountain honoring the four heroic chaplains of World War II fame.

Righteousness and Peace

By the guidance of a star did God manifest to the Gentiles the glory of the only-begotten Son. The wise men followed the heavenly light, found Jesus and rejoiced. In presenting their gifts they brought him also the offering of their loving hearts. Led by the light of the Holy Spirit may we yield ourselves to his service in love and reverence, that the kingdom of righteousness and peace may be advanced among all nations, to the glory of his name, forever.

The New Year

And Ezra stood on a pulpit of wood . . . He opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was above all the people . . . And Ezra blessed the Lord the great God. Nehemiah 8:4-6

At the beginning of the New Year it is well for us to meditate upon the Christian pulpit. We are familiar with such phrases as, "He was called to the pulpit of First Church," or "The pulpit of Old South Church is famous," or "Phillips Brooks occupied the pulpit of Trinity Church." The church through the centuries is marked by great preachers such as Athanasius, John Donne, Thomas Chalmers, John Wesley, Jonathan Edwards, Henry Ward Beecher. These men preached from pulpits, a mighty force in the Christian world.

The pulpit is like a mountain. We do not have little thoughts upon a mountain. "When I consider thy heavens, what is man that thou art mindful of him?" In such a position can we speak anything but mountainous truth?

Again, the pulpit is like the shore of the sea. I preached one summer in an American church by the sea. It was a lonely white church beaten by the winds. Inside the church the pews were plain, the organ squeaky and a desk served as the pulpit. The roar of the sea came through the open windows. People from the hill section and others from the shore were there to worship, and eager for God's truth. Timidity and awe possessed me as I walked to the pulpit — this pulpit by the raging sea. We do not have little thoughts by the sea.

Let us think of the pulpit as a throne. The Christian minister occupies that regal position. People sit before that throne — all kinds of people — rich, poor, educated, uneducated, cheerful, broken-hearted. To all these the minister is to proclaim God's truth — not his own truth — God's truth. He is speaking for God. He is saying, "Thus saith the Lord." For that reason he must be prepared in mind. For that reason he must be prepared in spirit. For that reason he approaches the pulpit in awe and sometimes with trembling feet. The Christian pulpit is a throne, high and lifted up. We approach it reverently. With Jacob we say, "how awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God!" With Ezra we stand in the pulpit to bless the Lord, the great God.

Director of Evangelism

Dr. Robert W. Spike took up his new duties as Director of the Department of Evangelism of the Board of Home Missions on January first. In announcing the appointment, Dr. Truman B. Douglass states: "It is important to reach persons who retain some fundamental attitude of acceptance toward Christianity, but even more important, we must find ways of presenting the Christian faith to those who have given positive allegiance to the alternative faiths and anti-faiths that are now aggressively in the field."

Mr. Spike's outstanding church and civic leadership in New York ably qualifies him for this new work.

Our Concern for Civil and Religious Freedoms

Congregational Christian churches have a long history of interest and concern for civil and religious freedom. They established town meetings, free public schools and the colleges and seminaries required to train leadership for Church and society. In their own church meetings they promoted consideration of public issues. They strengthened the philosophy and produced the forms of political expression which gave this country the pattern for its future growth. In more recent years these churches led in the establishment of schools and colleges for the liberal education of Negroes and, in 1934, they established the first church-supported agency for social education—the Council for Social Action. In full cooperation with other churches and other faiths they have furthered programs designed to promote a sense of civil responsibility and to strengthen civil liberties. Ray Gibbons

CSA Civil Liberties Project

Miss Fern Babcock began work for the Council for Social Action as Program Secretary with special responsibilities for the civil liberties study project which the Council is conducting in churches of the denomination throughout the country. This project will encourage church groups to carry out programs of education in the interest of better understanding of the "antecedents and nature of our religious and political liberties."

Miss Babcock is a graduate of Kansas State Teachers College, Teachers College Columbia University. She has served the YWCA in the southwest and nationally.

God's Offspring

All people are made in the image of God and are, in their separate and individual existences, dear to him. Christians believe that all persons have an altogether unique place in the world, and that all other things created by God or fashioned by men are of secondary importance. The person is the crown of creation. The value of everything else on earth is to be judged by its service to persons as the offspring of God. All persons are dear to him; he lived on earth in Jesus Christ to prove this good news to us.

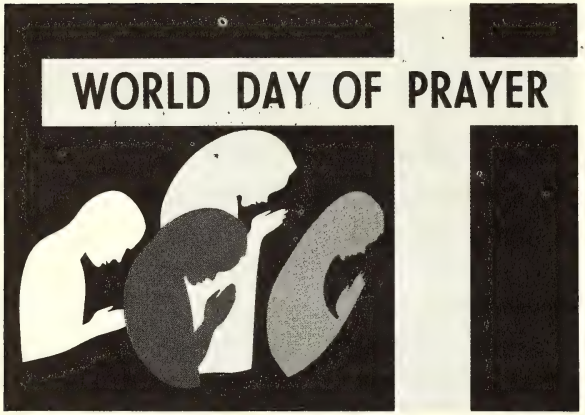
Chain of Prayer Around the World



Poster-reminder for World Day of Prayer observance—Feb. 17, 1956

The observance of World Day of Prayer is a unifying force in the world community and in each locality which has become a link in the chain of supplication encircling the globe. The impact of this day increases with each year. America worships in stores, banks, factories and chapels, reminding all of the opportunity and power of prayer. The reign of God is proclaimed; one God who speaks to all races and tribes; one shepherd, one flock.

Part of the Answer

Without discounting the power of law, under certain favorable conditions, to change people through changing the social relationships of people, it still is true that "out of the heart are the issues of life"—and death. The man or woman whom the Spirit of the Living God has freed from hate, jealousy, fear and false pride into good will and a deep inward sense of one's own dignity and security as a child of the Heavenly Father, has been genuinely and wholly emancipated. Such persons become emancipators of others—"part of the answer and no longer part of the problem." Galen R. Weaver, Sec'y Racial and Cultural Relations, CSA

Christian Educators

This family will represent the Congregational Christian churches of Vermont in Africa. They are the Rev. Charles P. Blakney, Mrs. Blakney (the former Lorrayne Grimm of Jamestown, N. D.) and their sons, Robbie and Richie. The Blakneys are enroute to Chikore, Southern Rhodesia where they will serve as Congregational Christian educators among the Vandu people. Their special responsibility will be the supervision of 40 missions primary schools.

Mr. Blakney, a graduate of Williams College and Andover Newton Seminary, is the son of Dr. Raymond B. Blakney, president of Olivet College, Michigan.

Prelude to Pilgrimage

One day, "in the fullness of time," Jesus was ready to begin his ministry. As a prelude to that day, in keeping with the ringing call of the rugged old prophet, John the Baptist, he brought his life in humble, human dedication, even receiving the same baptism as his fellows. The coming of the kingdom of heaven before Jesus' day, at his day, and now, has always required the sternest moral and spiritual disciplines. This week we enter the gateway to the Lenten journey, as with stout hearts we obediently remove whatever hinders our confident commitment to Christ's purpose. The ashes of Wednesday may have indeed marked us with humility, for we are not worthy to enter the Lord's company; but with cleansed hearts we set about courageously to make ready The Wonderful Way. Wofford Colquitt Timmons

Prayer of Repentance: Most holy and merciful Father, we thy wayward children do make humble confession of our shortcomings and our sin. All we like sheep have gone astray and have turned every one to his own way. We have lived too much to ourselves and not unto thee. We have not loved our brethren as we ought, nor faithfully followed our Master in unselfish service. But wilt thou pardon all our offenses. The Wonderful Way of Christ

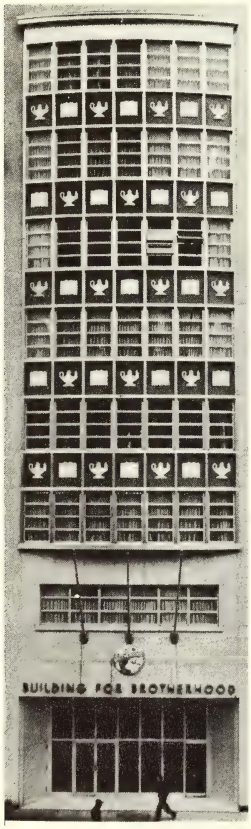
These Lenten days can afford us the experience, in the imagery of our hearts, of walking quietly and thoughtfully over the wonderful way of Christ, our Lord, and finding it to be, in truth, the highway that leads to God. The series of seven messages for this spiritual journey towards Easter has been written by Dr. Wofford Colquitt Timmons.

Express your utmost horror and detestation of the man who wishes . . . to overturn the liberties of our country, and who wickedly attempts to open the floodgates of civil discord and deluge our rising empire in blood. George Washington

Prayer for Students

Thou Greatest of All Teachers, show our students by thy great wisdom how best to let their lives count for thee and for a stricken, despairing world. Increase their boldness, Lord, to attempt great and even dangerous things for thee. Save them, we earnestly pray, from complacency, from compromise, from petty living and hardness of heart. Be with them in their daily decisions and conflicts and help them faithfully and humbly to walk with thee, the dearest of all companions. Amen.



Brotherhood

This two-foot bronze sculpture representing the hands of all races, creeds and nationalities reaching toward the common goal of brotherhood was unveiled at the new headquarters of the National Conference for Christians and Jews in New York. An eight-story structure, made possible by a million dollar gift of Ford Motor Company Fund, the national center will serve as the headquarters for promotion of the Conference's program of combatting prejudice and discrimination. The symbols will be presented to the three co-chairmen of the faiths, Benjamin Fairless, James Twohy and Roger Straus. As new chairmen are elected the piece will be passed on.

Direction and Destiny

The importance of right direction cannot be over-stated, because it is inseparable from the matter of destiny. It is always the purpose of exploration to eventuate in occupancy, as the Lord's dealing with his people so well shows. Surely the true procedure is for us to settle upon where God wants us to go, and then set out in all courage in that direction. Right now the question confronts us as Christian citizens: Which way shall we take? The national way of independent sovereignty? The racial way of separateness? The pursuit of temporal and earthly satisfactions? These are dangerous turning points, especially with the unleashing of awesome powers in the hands of frantic men. We need to heed the authoritative word of him who said: Follow Me.

They are Miss Leonara Flores of Dumaguete, Philippines, and W. Dalrymple of Nova Scotia, shown here greeting O. Osinuga, teacher, and P. K. Sago, Sunday School superintendent of Lagos.

Prayer for Lent

O Lord and Master of us all, by every token of thy life, the words thou hast said, the promises thou hast made, the sweet ministries of both rebuke and healing, thou hast been faithful. Let us now, this Lenten Season, find thy Spirit within our hearts, sending us forth with a straight and steadfast purpose to know and make known thy saving love to all mankind. To the glory of thy name we pray. Amen.

Evangelism in the Great Plains Region

The Great Plains regior has been selected by our Board of Home Missions Town and Country Depart ment, for special attention We have a large represen tation here where a grea shuffling of people and trade centers left some of our churches isolated in space and fellowship. No church can live unto itself; there must be provision for fellowship even at great cost in time and transportation. The Board has chosen the Rev. Charles V. Lee of Flasher Larger Parish who, by plane, will establish projects of church self-study and engage in evangelistic preaching missions. This creative experiment carefully planned and executed should help these churches in re-thinking their essential ministry in each parish.

Our Concern in Campus Ministries

Thousands of Congregational Christian youth attend colleges and universities which are not church related; they are scattered on campuses which reflect the secular life of the world, where vocational preparation often overshadows liberal education. The Church must follow its young people wherever they are. It is doing so through its Campus Ministry in which ordained men and women, working in 73 campus centers, are helping students witness to their faith in their daily living. These ministries are a primary concern of churches through our Board of Home Missions.

With a Christian Purpose

For more than a century the YWCA, a world-wide, democratic membership organization with a Christian purpose and a pioneering program of health, education and recreation, has served girls and women of every race and creed. April 22d to 28th is National YWCA Week, a time of annual rededication and membership enrollment. On Sunday, April 22d, YW members will attend churches of their choice and take others with them. The theme of this week, "See the World in a New Light," illustrates the YWCA's emphasis on the growth of the individual physically, mentally and spiritually. For a second century the YWCA helps women express the highest and best of themselves by responsible action in their daily lives and in service to others.

School in Best Tradition

Our mission work in Ceylon dates bac to 1816 when it was established on th Jaffna peninsula. One hundred and thir years ago American Board missionari founded Uduvil Girls' English Schoc where now 600 Christian and non-Chri tian girls are integrated with equality f all, disregarding caste or economic statu The first national principal of this schoc Miss Ariam Hudson Paramasamy, is prominent Christian educator. The cha el, here being dedicated, is open to th beauty of nature in the semi-tropics.

Churches of Asia Move Forward

"We believe that the missionary task of the church is the responsibility of th entire Church, the whole body of Christ. There are, therefore, in reality, no sendin churches as applied to the 'older churches' and no receiving churches as applied t the 'younger churches'. Both 'older' and 'younger' churches are sent and both hav received. It is the Lord who has commissioned and sent them, and it is the Lor who has rewarded and blessed them."

Thus speaks a newly formed Asia Council on Ecumenical Mission whose mem bership is made up of official delegates from the churches of Korea, Japan, th Philippines, Thailand, Hongkong, and four Mission Boards of the United State together with representatives from Malaya, Formosa, Indonesia, and England.

Truly the Churches of Asia move forward as they meet together, discuss mutu problems, and plan for an interchange of needed personnel without regard to eithe national or denominational lines, in an exciting movement of more far-reachin significance than any development in the history of these churches in the past fift years.

A STATEMENT OF FAITH OF THE CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

We believe in God the Father, infinite in wisdom, goodness and love; and in Jesus Christ, His Son, our Lord and Saviour, who for us and our salvation lived and died and rose again and liveth evermore; and in the Holy Spirit, who taketh of the things of Christ and revealeth them to us, renewing, comforting, and inspiring the souls of men. We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord, made known or to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of the Church of Christ to proclaim the gospel to all mankind, exalting the worship of the one true God and laboring for the progress of knowledge, the promotion of justice, the reign of peace, and the realization of human brotherhood. Depending, as did our fathers, upon the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all truth, we work and pray for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God; and we look with faith for the triumph of righteousness and the life everlasting.

POLITY

We believe in the freedom and responsibility of the individual soul, and the right of private judgment. We hold to the autonomy of the local church and its independence of all ecclesiastical control. We cherish the fellowship of the churches, united in district, state, and national bodies, for council and cooperation in matters of common concern.

THE WIDER FELLOWSHIP

While affirming the liberty of our churches, and the validity of our ministry, we hold to the unity and catholicity of the Church of Christ, and will unite with all its branches in hearty cooperation; and will earnestly seek, so far as in us lies, that the prayer of our Lord for His disciples may be answered, that they all may be one.

We believe in God the Father, infinite in wisdom, goodness and love; and in Jesus Christ, His Son, our Lord and Saviour, who for us and our salvation lived and died and rose again and liveth evermore; and in the Holy Spirit, who taketh of the things of Christ and revealeth them to us, renewing, comforting, and inspiring the souls of men. We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord, made known or to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of the Church of Christ to proclaim the gospel to all mankind, exalting the worship of the one true God and laboring for the progress of knowledge, the promotion of justice, the reign of peace, and the realization of human brotherhood. Depending, as did our fathers, upon the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all truth, we work and pray for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God; and we look with faith for the triumph of righteousness and the life everlasting.

POLITY

We believe in the freedom and responsibility of the individual soul, and the right of private judgment. We hold to the autonomy of the local church and its independence of all ecclesiastical control. We cherish the fellowship of the churches, united in district, state, and national bodies, for council and cooperation in matters of common concern.

THE WIDER FELLOWSHIP

While affirming the liberty of our churches, and the validity of our ministry, we hold to the unity and catholicity of the Church of Christ, and will unite with all its branches in hearty cooperation; and will earnestly seek, so far as in us lies, that the prayer of our Lord for His disciples may be answered, that they all may be one.

Chosen as Moderator

George B. Hastings, of Grant, Nebraska, who is serving his Church and state with great distinction, was chosen Moderator of the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches by the 1200 delegates at the recent meeting of that body in Omaha.

Mr. Hastings is a director of our Board of Home Missions, former chairman of the American Missionary Association, and serves the cause of education as a member of the Board of Trustees of Dillary University, Doane College and Talladega College. He has been an active layman in Grant Congregational Church for fifty years. A graduate of Harvard Law School he has served Nebraska in many civic capacities.

The Strong Will Endure

Men are like monuments or markers; the soft and the weak are eroded, sooner or later, by the pressures of life, while those of stronger character resist the stress of day-to-day living. The strong will endure to become not only the cornerstones, but also the foundations of our homes, churches, business and government. Just as the artisan working the stone can estimate its enduring qualities, so we, working with those around us can point out those men whose character and Christian spirit will endure beyond life itself. Renwick K. Caldwell, M.D.

Where God Answers Questions

The clean air, forests, mountains, lakes and sky at the Colorado Conference grounds, LaForet, inspire praise, worship and study. Here is held the annual Pastors' School, and at LaForet, this week, state and local leaders of Christian social action assemble to seek Christian answers to questions on the next steps toward racial integration, America's role in world affairs, the Church and social welfare, and the responsibility of the church for public life. Pictured are the Chapel and Nature's cathedrals.

A Gift to My Son

A father sometimes sees himself as a selfish person when he observes his son among friends. In the feature film of the year, "A Gift to My Son", from which such an incident is pictured, father learns that the greatest gift possible to give his son is a desire for God's love in the heart, and a sense of brotherhood.

The Every Member Canvass

A church which plans to meet real human needs, and provide a day-to-day program ministering to all of life may justifiably expect to rally the time, talent, treasure and hearts of its people.

The purpose of the Every Member Canvass, usually conducted each fall or spring, is two-fold: It can give each member of the parish a new sense of his stewardship to God, and help him discover ways of expressing his gratitude to God by serving him through the Church. This means simply that everything one possesses comes from God and belongs to God. We are stewards because he has entrusted these gifts to our care. In gratitude to God for his countless gifts, we commit a worthy share of our time, our talents, and our treasure to the fulfillment of his purposes and the building of his kingdom. In doing so we find our own lives have gained new meaning and richness.

The Every Member Canvass is a laymen's responsibility: its purpose, to build a better Church in a better world.

African Christian Students Meet

Twenty-seven delegates discussed Christian student work in colleges at a meeting in Ibadan, Nigeria, this summer. They represented Protestant youths and church organizations from Sierra Leone to the French Cameroons. Evangelism among high school and college students throughout West Africa was the chief concern.

Minister: Now the whole earth had one language and few words. They said one to another:

People: "Come let us make bricks and let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth."

Minister: Then the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the sons of men had built. And the Lord said:

People: "They are one people, and they have all one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; and nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. Come, let us go down, and confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech."

Minister: So the Lord scattered them, and they left off building their city.

People: Therefore its name was called Babel because there the Lord confused the language and from there the Lord scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

Life Devotion

Like every other genuine call, the summons to the ministry comes first from God. An authentic call to the devotion of life to the Christian ministry usually gains its full force in three principal stages: An observation of need, a sense of involvement, and an awareness of capacity. The warrant for a man's response is not the assertion of power — "I can do all things!" It is rather the confession of dependence — "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me!"

The Nature and Nurture of Christian Education

THE CHRISTIAN'S CONCERN AND EFFORT TO HELP THE YOUNG GROW INTO A FULLNESS OF CHRISTIAN PERSONALITY BEGINS AT THE CRADLE.

Because we are Christians we are concerned that God's will shall be done, that every person shall become what God intended him to be, and that the purpose and spirit of Jesus Christ shall influence all of the relationships of life. Every Christian generation must help those who are younger grow in the knowledge and grace of God. Such growth can best be nurtured within the fellowship of the home and the church. A planned effort to do this is called Christian education. The methods used in this effort must direct a child's interest to things that are important to him, or will be important to him — the Bible, God's love, a Christian's love for his fellow men; and help him to understand and to express the Christian religion. The motivation behind a teacher is to see the child's growth Christ-ward — towards loving, worshipping, trusting, and serving God wisely.

Bread of the Upper Room

In so simple a way the greatest of the Christian sacraments was instituted. How the table became an altar or the bread the "real presence" belongs to the theologian; the bread blest and broken belongs to life. For whatever love and sacrifice have consecrated is thereafter a sacrament — the outer and evident sign of the inner and spiritual grace.

Surely if bread is to become a sacrament, the labor that baked it, the mill which ground the flour, the field which grew the grain, the toil that sowed it, and the rain and sunshine which quickened it should all be sacred. Beneath Jesus' touch all right ways of life are transformed, our very tools transfigured.

Prayer of Confession - Almighty and most merciful Father: We have erred, and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But thou, O lord, have mercy upon u Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous and sober life, to the glory of thy holy name. Amen.

To Deepen our Faith

From all over the country have come suggestions of what should be the emphases of the next year. Mainly these are prayers that we have a greater sense of unity, a greater sense of mission, a greater sense of responsibility to be, in fact, churches which submit to the immediate headship of Christ, a deeper experience of our faith in free but responsible fellowship and effective ways to relate members to all the separated parts of the Church of Christ.

Fred Hoskins, Minister
Congregational Christian Churches.

The Fellowship of Communion

In the observance of Holy Communion there is a definite experience and expression of fellowship. The Church acknowledges the sacramental significance of this service. In a very special manner, designed by Christ himself, this service is a unique means of grace to quicken, nourish and strengthen the spiritual life of the participant. Whatever the interpretation, the Lord's Supper is accepted by the Christian Church as a service of fellowship. It is a witness to the truth that fellowship is real. John S. Stamm

Degree for Dr. Widenhouse

Dr. Philip M. Widenhouse, center, general secretary of the newly created Division of Higher Education and the American Missionary Association, Board of Home Missions, receives degree of Doctor of Laws from Pacific University. With him are Dr. Charles J. Armstrong, university president, and the Rev. Paul A. Davies, superintendent of the Oregon Conference.

Congregational students at Pacific University outnumber any other denomination — a reversal of the situation of a few years ago.

Congregational Library a Treasure House

How many of us know that we have access to more than 200,000 books, pamphlets including the newest in theology, literature of the Bible, homiletics, religious education, history, missions, church architecture, world affairs, biography, and a special collection of books on Congregational history through the Congregational Library 14 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.? The ordinary public library does not have books in most of these categories. At the beautiful library Reading Room the best new religious books from this country and some from England can be read and enjoyed. Not only ministers and laymen from our denomination, but people of all faiths take advantage of this fine service by sending lists requesting that books be sent to them one or more at a time. No fiction is available.

Laymen's Sunday is Source of New Power

New life and power has come into many churches because laymen have, through the discipline of getting ready for Laymen's Sunday, and the power that comes from witnessing, become more dedicated and more active. A church without laymen would scarcely be a church at all for the work of a church reaches fruition only when the Christian ideals which it teaches are put into practice by its laymen in their everyday life.

The witness of 4600 men marching to the Protestant Laymen's Communion breakfast was felt in Boston but each laymen knew that his daily work and life spoke louder than marching feet.

Mature people are made not out of good times but out of bad times. Man's extremity is God's opportunity. It is in a crisis that the best in us comes to the fore. This very age in which we live, which is so turbulent, so confusing, so uncertain, is an anvil upon which God can remake us for the good, for the better. The diamond is not beautiful until it is cut nor gold until refined in the fire.

Dr. Hyman J. Schachtel.

Men Concerned with Men

A movement promoting individual contacts among people in all walks of life, to show them how faith can play an important role in their lives, was spearheaded by Admiral Ben Moreell and Dr. Samuel M. Shoemaker in Pittsburgh. Now going into its third year, the successful "Pittsburgh Experiment" is concerned with men and women in business, industry and professions with a view to developing Christian leadership in those fields. These men believe that the place where a man earns his living is the spot where he can bring the power of the Gospel to bear upon the life of the world.

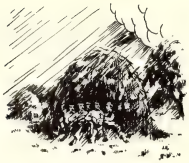
The young people of the Durham First Church will furnish the organist and music. For many years the Chapel has stood empty. What better day than this Reformation Day to be reminded of "The Faith of our Fathers" as we celebrate the heritage in which we stand.

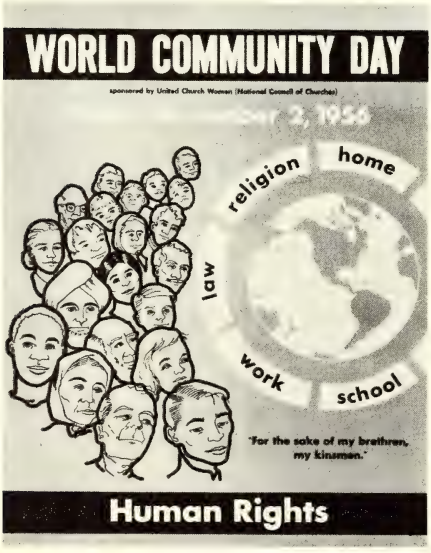
The monument to Mr. O'Kelly stands on this campus, to the east of the entrance of Whitley Auditorium. His grave is at O'Kelly's Chapel.



For the Cause of Christ Around the World

"There are more and darker kinds of darkness than this," said young Samuel Mills from the depths of The Haystack which has since become famous as the symbol of our expanding, bound-less concern for the cause of Christ around the world. The spark, there kindled, was in reality struck on the zeal of those early home missionaries going out to the frontiers of Maine and New York; it was natural that a disciple of Christ somewhere in this religion-conscious young country of ours be inspired with concern for heathen men and women in far away places. Thus, home missions begat foreign missions, and the latter pointed to the plight of Negro and Indian within our borders, completing the circle of beginning missions in our churches.

But Our Christian World Mission is not only missionary activities at home and abroad. It is the whole life of the Church which now, even more than the days of the Haystack meeting, so desperately needs ministers, teachers, doctors, nurses, Christian laymen and homemakers to fulfill its purpose.



World Community Day

As we come to World Community Day let us consider the wonders of God's continuing revelation to us in his law of freedom and of love. In the long struggle, over the centuries, for order with justice and freedom, great stepping-stones have been built. The Ten Commandments leaped upward with individual responsibilities, and the Magna Charta sowed the seeds of liberty in government, carried further by the French Declaration of the Rights of Man and the American Bill of Rights. We tend to take our freedom for granted; let us acknowledge that we are free only as we grant freedom to others. As God has given to us, let us pray that we may be used as instruments of his freedom and love.

Many women have done excellently. Proverbs 31:29

Let Her Works Praise Her

What are the contributions of church women? Women have prayed, studied, and entered into every aspect of our denominational work. That our Mission Boards are indebted to our women is an indisputable fact. Facing current needs of their day, they have pioneered as missionaries and in mission work at home and overseas. They have trained leaders, endowed schools, colleges and hospitals, raised funds for churches and parsonages, and sent food and clothing to the needy.

Believing that religion is related to all of life, our women, united with those from other denominations, have supported measures representing world-wide social concern. Today, may God set, anew, upon their minds and hearts, the mission which they are seeking to fulfill.

PEACE

A man can stand almost anything except the fear that when he has given his best, or endured the worst, his life has made little difference. A Beautiful Partnership

The late Rev. Dr. Warren H. Dennison, stewardship evangelist and churchman extraordinary, bequeathed to the Church a life-time philosophy that "stewardship is indispensable in a Christian's life."

"God is a benevolent God," wrote Dr. Dennison. "Growing out of a heart of gratitude to God for all that he entrusts to us, faithful stewardship is fundamental in our religion. A steward is one who manages another's property in the mind and spirit of the owner."

"There is an alchemy in Christian stewardship that changes dissatisfied lives into lives of peace and happiness, that gives a keener sensitiveness to the plan and work of Christ. I have often been surprised to see the understanding of the Christian enterprise from someone whom I would not ordinarily expect it. That person had caught the meaning of stewardship and realized that it is not a needless sacrifice to be borne, a burden subtraction from life and purse, but an exalted privilege, a sacred trust, a beauti partnership, a joy, a rich spiritual experience with eternal values. The great object of stewardship is character. It is a principle on which daily life must be organized be fully Christian. It is not the primary purpose of stewardship to raise funds, but develop givers. It is ours to show what Christian giving is, what it does, and how develop it. God was the first giver; at the first dawn of history he made man a partne

Hymn: "All People That On Earth Do Dwell"

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with mirth, His praise forth tell,
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

Know that the Lord is God indeed,
Without our aid he did us make;
We are His flock, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

Call to Prayer

O Give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good: for His mercy endureth for ever. Be thankful unto Him and bless His name. For the Lord is good: His mercy is everlasting, and His truth endureth to all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Adoration

O God, who art infinite, eternal, and unchangeable, glorious in holiness, full of love and compassion, abundant in grace and truth; all Thy works praise Thee in all places of Thy dominion; and Thy glory is revealed in Jesus Christ Thy Son. Wherefore we praise Thee, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, blessed for ever. Amen.

Confession (in unison)

O God, most merciful and gracious; we confess that we have sinned against Thee, and against one another. We have forsaken the path of life, transgressed Thy holy commandments, and grieved Thy Holy Spirit. Forgive and cleanse us, we beseech Thee, and grant us courage, insight, and a deeper faith, that we may more truly serve and follow Thee.

Let Thy mercy come upon us in great fullness, even as our sins against Thee have been many; and let Thy forgiving love overflow all our transgressions, that they may be covered and blotted out, and we be purified unto newness of life; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

R. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

M. O God, who has shown us thy eternal will in the life of Christ our Lord,

R. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

M. O God, who art ever working in men's hearts by the operation of thy Spirit, to make us fellow-workers with thy will,

R. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

M. O God, who willest that all men should be saved, and come to the knowledge of thy truth,

R. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

M. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

M. From all reliance on ourselves, from trying to limit the range of thy purposes, from doubts of thy mightiness in operation,

R. Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O, Lord.

M. From all unwillingness to learn thy will, from clinging to our own plans and desires, from all want of faith in self-commital to thy guidance,

R. Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O, Lord.

M. From cowardice in following thy leading, from ever suffering our own ambitions to cloud the vision of thy will for us, from trying to serve thee and escape the cost,

R. Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O, Lord.

M. From weakness when we are faced with big decisions, from over-confidence in making them, from acting without trying to learn thy will,

R. Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

M. From shirking the responsibility of our place in the divine order, from fearing new truth and new ways of thought and life,

R. Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O, Lord.

M. From seeking to set forward human progress, whether in the Church or in the world, by doing our own will instead of loyally asking to know thine.

R. Save us, and help us,we humbly beseech thee,O,Lord.

Bidding Prayers

M. O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully to receive the prayers of thy people which call upon thee; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfill the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

M. Thy kingdom come.

R. Thy will be done.

Hymn: "Before the Cross of Jesus"

Before the cross of Jesus our lives are judged today;
The meaning of our eager strife is tested by His way.
Across our restless living the light streams from His c
And by its clear, revealing beams we measure gain and l

The hopes that lead us onward,the fears that hold us ba
Our will to dare great things for God,the courage that we lack,
The faith we keep in goodness, our love, as low or pure
On all,the judgment of the cross falls steady,clear, and sure.

Yet humbly, in our striving, O God, we face its test;
We crave the power to do Thy will,with Him who did it b
On us let now the healing of His great Spirit fall,
And make us brave and full of joy to answer to His call Amen.

Forefathers' Day

The American Thanksgiving and the heritage of the Forefathers belong in a very special way to the Congregational Church. It was the Pilgrims at Plymouth who first set apart the day for thanks-giving to Almighty God. We do well to honor the early leaders and to pledge ourselves to support the foundation ideals of our country, for "not by their own sword did they win the land, nor did their own arm give them victory; but Thy right hand, and Thy arm, and the light of Thy countenance . . ."

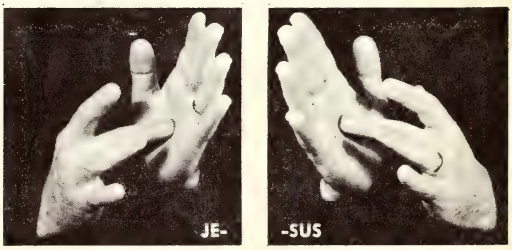
AID THE HUNGRY THROUGH YOUR CHURCH — SHARE OUR SURPLUS

Uncontrollable natural disasters and man-made disasters continue to wreak hav among millions of the world's underprivileged. To as many of these millions as po sible, the churches minister through Share Our Surplus and similar programs. Givi in the name of Christ — always the better way — our church people seek throug these efforts to keep faith with those in need by sharing the abundance with whic a Divine Providence has endowed America. Through our Congregational Christia Service Committee workers and our missionaries, these supplies are distributed t people who will benefit most from them. Without the regular support of our regul programs such special efforts could not be carried through successfully.

The Music of Thy Name



When eternal silence falls upon the ears, the sweet sound of the name of Jesu lives within the heart of the Christian through memory, or is symbolized through th hands of those who minister to the deaf in pulpits, classrooms, homes and hospita of our country. In worship services for those who cannot hear, this expressive sign made by placing the middle finger of one hand into the palm of the other, signifyin the wounded hands of the Master. Thus many learn to "speak" his name.

The Hope of an Old Tree

There is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease. Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground; yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

If a man die shall he live again? All the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come. Thou shalt call and I will answer thee . . . Job 14: 7-9, 14,15.

The Annunciation

We are told that the place was Nazareth; that the girl chosen by God to be the mother of our Redeemer was Mary, pure, full of grace, and willing to accept the Divine will announced to her by the angel. Through conflicting traditions of how and when this took place the fact remains that in this little town the life of God and the soul of man met, and history became different. The ages have not been able to forget that somehow the Incarnation shows at once God's willingness to save and the historic fact that in Christ he made salvation possible.

The Christmas Rose

Many early Christians could not read or write, therefore the system of symbolic teaching among them was the expedient way of conveying accepted traditions of the faith. For centuries the fleur-de-lys, above, has conveyed the thought of the human side of our Lord, and is often used to symbolize the Annunciation.

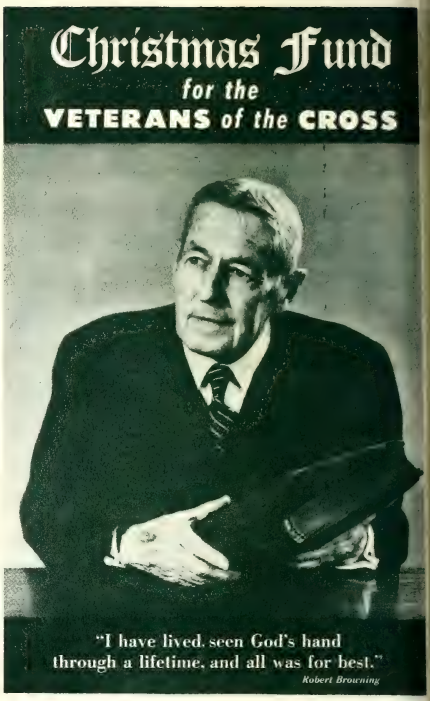
The Christmas Fund For the Veterans of the Cross

"I don't know what I would do without this extra lift from the Christmas Fund." These words, or words similar to them, appear in letter after letter from those who receive Christmas checks—an extra income to the regular grants which the Ministerial Relief Division makes to our retired ministers and widows of ministers. Last year 811 checks were mailed at Christmas time; some helped meet unpaid bills and some went for a special something to make lives more enjoyable.

These checks, made possible by gifts to the Christmas Fund, are the tangible evidence that the churches which these men and women served with sacrifice and devotion continue to be concerned for their welfare. Part of the Fund (last year's $141,051 was the largest ever collected) is used as an Emergency Fund to help in emergency expenses which might not be met in any other way.



The Christian's Year

For the sake of convenience men rightly arrange time into a calendar. But our Lord, Master of Time and Lord of all Good Life, would have us transmute it into character for Christianity's sake. To do this is to transform the Christian year into the Christian's year. Time for the Christian is not the ticking of a clock upon a shelf, but the etching of it into the making of a soul. Wedding time to aspiration the Christian gives momentum to the moment, and eternalizes the ephemeral. To live by Christ while living by the clock is to realize the spiritual significance of time.

Fred Smith.

Youth Raise Fund for Refugees

Through the efforts of an alert group of young people, Miss Linda Miller, Herndon, Va., was able to present to the Rev. Russell Stevenson, Director of Church World Service activities in Asia, a check for $130 to help provide housing for homeless Chinese refugees in Hong Kong. Miss Miller and fellow members of her Sunday School class at Forestville raised the money by collecting and selling station wagonsful of old newspapers, staging candy sales and tea after their teacher, Mrs. Raymond Berthrong (center) told them of the refugees plight.

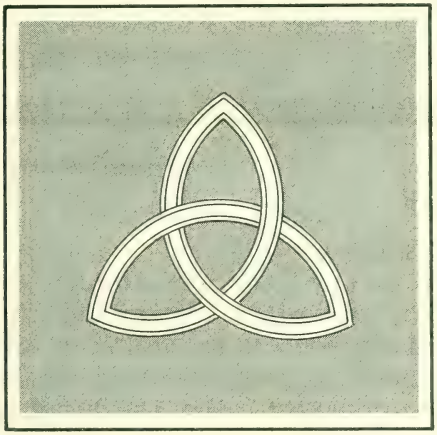
The Season of Advent

This month shall be unto you the beginning of months. Exodus 12:2



The Preparation

The Drama of Redemption as manifest in Jesus Christ our Lord begins in this season of Advent. As the day of the Nativity approaches we ask, "How shall we receive Thee, how greet Thee, Lord, aright?"

In humility, in charity, in joy and in peace we await the fulfillment of God's promise. We prepare our hearts and our homes to honor the Babe of Bethlehem, knowing that no joy lies in the present or the future which was not hidden in the instant of his birth. .

The Christmas Rose

A symbol is a story told by a familiar sign. The Triquetra, often used as the emblem of the Holy Trinity in Christian church symbolism, expresses Eternity in its continuous form, Equality in the three arcs and Indivisibility in its interweaving.

For Bible Sunday

Saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart.

Turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness.

It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

Thou shalt seek the Lord thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart and with all thy soul.

The Lord hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the heathen.

Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of the Lord? let it come now.

All the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

Then answered Jesus and said unto them . . . . . Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

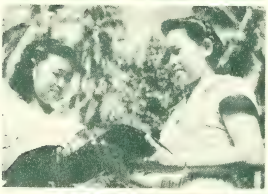
The Bible Around the World



The Bible is no compilation of magic ritual to be recited by the unthinking in some strange tongue. It is the book by which the Spirit of God reveals the Living Word, but it must speak in the mother tongue of every people if it is to be understood and taken into the heart.

The American Bible Society says there is no language into which the Bible cannot be translated; it has been put into more than 1100 tongues, but there are 1000 more languages that have nothing of the words, which as a Congo boy said, "make holes in my heart!"

The Anticipation

We are gathered for prayer, but prayer is praise upon our lips for that Thou, O Heavenly Father, has spoken to us so simply, hast come to us so fully, and hast revealed thy redeeming power and purpose so movingly. O grant us eyes to see, and ears to hear, and minds to know that thou desirest only to pour thy Spirit into our lives, even as thou didst pour it into the life of Jesus Christ, our Lord. He is proof of thy power, prophecy of thy purpose, the morning star of life's fuller meaning. So touch us now that we may make room for thy coming; we ask it in the name and for the sake of Jesus Christ, whose birth into the world we celebrate. Amen. A Book of Worship

Shepherds But Also Wise Men

Shepherds came first, as if to say that the path to His door can be followed by plain people in working clothes. But wise men came, also, as if to put it down right at the beginning that the profoundest and most sophisticated can kneel there.

Throughout Christian history you could depend upon the shepherd kind of people — men and women not well acquainted with books and schools — to love Christ and understand the main things about him. But in our time many "shepherds" do not know that Christ is for them and with them. We Christians have changed his locale, taken him away to be the private chaplain of our race or class, our nation or social order. The little people — the dispossessed, hurt, struggling folk — can't find him, or they see him as one far removed from their everyday human needs. We must put him back where he belongs, where any shepherd can find him.

But wise men came also, for here, after all, was not merely an innocent child but the wisdom and truth of God. In our day many educated people had thought themselves too wise to kneel before Christ. Some of them, happily, are no longer so sure that their science and their philosophy are all we need. The Christian faith begins to seem wiser and profounder than they had supposed, and they are more willing than once they were to kneel and worship.

This is the marvel — that the same Christ should be at once so beautifully simple and so incredibly profound. We can adore him and proceed with him in the simplest ways. And if we are always asking "what?" and "how?" and "to what purpose?" we will find him inexhaustable.

"Joy to the World, the Lord is come." We know no word more welcome. Too many of God's children are completely out of joy. Though we may have a larger portion of the earth's riches, count our privileges by the hundreds, have freedom to come or go, to do or to refuse, we cannot escape our need to be rescued from our poor use of money, from our evil exercise of our privileges and from our abuse of freedoms. Though we try, we cannot forget those about the whole world who, in poverty or threat of war, or in sickness or sorrow or sin, move in perpetual frustration and distress. As natural as the sunrise is our hearts' hunger to taste joy. At Christmas God came to us in Christ and gave us our Lord. And every Christmas he comes again to those whose hearts are ready and right. This is the everlastingly joyous truth.

"Joy to the World, the Lord is come." We know no word more real. The Lord has come and he does come again and again. The darkness of our purposes becomes light in his presence. The seeming futility of life becomes a Pilgrim's Progress. The dreary round becomes a Jericho Road of immortal service under the aegis of his Spirit. The patterns of home and community life grown empty become the very steps to heaven for those who open their eyes to see that Christ is born anew in them.

Not poetry, not myth, not imagination, but the substance of history is the glad refrain, "Joy to the World, the Lord is come." No other word is more real.

In this new year we lift up our eyes unto the hills. Through all the circling years we will trust in Him who made them. In joyous faith we sing: "The Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In his hand are the deep places of the earth; the strength of the hills is his also. The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord."

Next Sunday we will have the Feast of Lights, a service for Epiphany. Holy Communion will be held and then the service will emphasize the Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles. Three choirs, the clergy, Board of Deacons, and Ushers will assist in the service.

Epiphany - The origins of the Christian feast held on January 6 are not clear, but that there have been special celebrations on this day at least since the beginning of the 4th century is abundantly evidenced. At one time or another, the celebration has been in recognition of the nativity of Jesus, of the visit of the Magi, of the baptism of Jesus, of his miracle at Cana, and in honor of the world-wide mission of the Church.

We measure our lives in terms of days and years. We turn the leaves of our calendars as the months of the year pass by; and now we hang up a new calendar for the year of 1957. In so doing we remember the continuity of Divine Purpose through the ages, and we lift our eyes unto the hills seeking God's help, trusting him, unafraid.

In our mind is a picture of our cabin high in the Rocky Mountains, near Estes Park, where we visit each summer. It nestles there safe among huge boulders and towering pine trees. We have an open view across the valley to the distant peaks beyond. Far below is the silver thread of a stream; the Big Thompson. Twin Sisters rises majestically at our left, its dual peaks emerging from sharply ascending slopes into masses of rocks lying in tumbled confusion. Central in our view stands the jagged, awesome east face of Long's Peak. It is high above all the rest. Trailing off to the west and completing the vast panorama of mighty mountains are Hallets, Little Matterhorn and Flat Top. These are the handiwork of God to whom "a thousand years are but as yesterday when it is past."

We take courage from these timeless mountains, so boldly outlined against the blue heavens above, for there they stand, year after year, mighty and unmoved, eternal. The winds beat upon them, the winter snows pile upon them. The heat of summer and the cold of winter strike them with the regularity of time and season, yet each year these mountains tower above us, untouched, unchanged. They are a symbol of strength and eternal values.

May God's richest blessings be yours in the year that lies ahead.

The Circuit Rider

The Pilgrim Circuit Rider, with the Rev. Leila Anderson at the wheel, began its second tour of the U. S. recently. In the first tour lasting 3 years, nearly 800 meetings with Church groups were only part of the purpose of 73,000 miles of travel through the by-ways of our land. A special project of the Board of Home Missions in the interest of Christian education, car No. 2 is filled with books, pamphlets, films and other aids for carrying the story of Our Christian World Mission into isolated communities and local churches. Certainly the Pilgrim Circuit Rider has captured the hearts of people who have heard, read, or seen (first-hand or on TV) this unusual adventure for the Church.

The Mid-Winter Meeting

Congregational Christian churches raise and spend over $80,000,000 a year now as contrasted with $26,000,000 ten years ago. Our churches conduct many joint missionary undertakings on a national scale and with worldwide outreach. To consult on work of such magnitude is imperative. The Mid-winter Meeting of the Missions Council brings together over 500 Congregational Christian laymen and lay women, pastors, state conference and board executives for highly important deliberations. The meeting this year will again be held at Buck Hill Falls, Pa., from January 28th to 31st.

Epiphany

The stars in their courses do not determine the destiny of men; astrology has given way to the Light born in a manger; and the story of Epiphany is that "God is light; there is no darkness in him at all." The Wise Men, thought to be astrologers, no longer relied on the stars after Bethlehem but placed themselves in the service of their Lord. Like Simeon, they had seen that saving power which God had prepared "before the face of all peoples to be a light of revelation for the Gentiles, and a glory to thy people Israel."

Have you beauty, that leads the heart from things fashioned of wood and stone to the Holy Mountain? The Rev. R. Norris Wilson, Director of Church World Service, which is the relief arm of the National Council of Churches, was honored by Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa., by the conferring upon him of the Doctor of Divinity degree.

The Nature of God

Life does not grow more simple with the passing years, but its deeper needs are unchanging. The secret of peace is not to be sought at the end of the road, but in the spirit in which we journey. It is to be sought in the consciousness of the sustaining love of a God who is committed, by the very nature of his Godhead, to a real participation in all our strife; who does not release us from the battle, but who shares the fight; who does not set us free from the possibility of pain and tears, but who feels the hurt of our wounds, the bitterness of our sorrow; who spends himself not only with us, but for us.

Gaius Glenn Atkins

Personal Courage and Devotion to God

Miss Dosia Carlson, high school teacher, choir director, composer of more than fifty hymns — church-woman extraordinary, was honored by youth attending Pilgrim Fellowship Planning and Training Conference at Defiance College. Honor was conferred on Dosia because of her courage and devotion to religious service despite an 11-year battle with polio. Pictured are Mrs. Helen Parsons, who directed her early musical interest; the Rev. John Huston, former Youth Director of Ohio Conference; Dosia, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Carlson; and James Schmidt, president of Ohio Pilgrim Fellowship, who narrated the story of her life and service.

The Church and Life's Purpose

The Church, your church and mine, needs to be thinking and ministering in terms of the whole man. Each one of us is a whole being with distinct correlation not only between the parts of the body but also between the areas of living — mental, social, spiritual, physical. The ministry of Jesus is an example of concern for all of life. Life is one and finds its purpose and meaning in the Father and his will. Through the Church a man should find the meaning and purpose which give his life reason and zest; the deeply rooted spiritual ties with the Father which continuously color and refresh life; and those ethical and moral ideals which give guidance to health in every area of living.

Bible Study on the Swing Shift

Church school officer and teachers working in Marietta, Ga., aircraft plan during the "swing shift" from four to midnight, take time out during their evening mealtime to study the following week's Church school lesson. Some 35 employees attend these Thursday night classes in the basement of the factory. Started several months ago this study and worship time gives men and women a chance to compare notes and methods of teaching in several churches.

The Quest of the Christian Church

The Christian Church exists to bring men into a vital relationship with the living God. It is constantly engaged in a quest for the will of God. It finds in Jesus, its founder, the most convincing and compelling revelation of the mind of God. His teaching, his ministry and his death proclaim that the deepest meaning of life is to be found in the realm of the spirit rather than in the world of things material.

Stanley U. North.

Indian Son in Father's Footsteps

Set apart by his church to study for the ministry, Mr. Dennis Buffalo and his family are at a Christian training school. He has pledged himself to carry on the work of his father, the Rev. Youth and Life's Work

Being a Christian is the most serious commitment of life; being Christian in daily life is fundamental to our faith. Youth Week, sponsored by the United Christian Youth Movement, focuses attention on the great importance of one's occupation. What one does for a livelihood and how he does it is his answer to God for the loan of time and energy. In thinking about life's work a Christian youth wants his efforts to go into making a better world. To some comes the call to the ministry; to some, social work. Others answer distant calls as missionaries. The sciences, medicine, farming, business, and service as statesmen can all be the answer to God's call.

An Important Partnership

The greatest need in the world is true Christian character. Its worth is unquestioned as a quality for leadership, but it can never be abundant at high levels until it is commonplace in all walks of life. That is why, for more than a century, the Young Men's Christian Association has been a vigorous partner of the churches of the world in developing Christian character in peoples of all races. And that is why, on this Sunday, your church and YMCA once again call attention to this important partnership.

Together, Closer Drawn

It is good to draw nearer to God with friends in other fellowships — to blend our prayers and hopes for the future of our church and country with young people who are separated from us in name only. A plan of union to merge campus organizations of five Protestant denominations is being studied by student leaders, and will be submitted to campus groups for study and action. The group, to be known as the United Campus Christian Fellowship, will include Congregational Christian, Evangelical and Reformed, Presbyterian in the U. S. A., Disciples of Christ and Methodist youth.

Amercan Board Benefits

Mrs. Alexander H. Davis of Chicago, president of the Women's Board of Missions of the Interior, turned over the society's assets, $350,000, to the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions of the Congregational Christian Churches, and thus closed books on the society's 88 years of service. Dr. David M. Stowe, educational secretary of the American Board, accepts the certificate of transfer. Originally interdenominational but now Congregational, the society's purpose was to serve women over the world through women.

Freedom is an indivisible fabric. Pull any strand of this fabric and others are seriously weakened. Freedom of religion depends upon civil liberty. A free church cannot thrive in a totalitarian society nor can free society prosper when the churches are repressed. Cultural, religious, economic and political freedoms are so interwoven that each strengthens the other and damage to any weakens all. Ray Gibbons

For the facing of this hour,

Lo! The hosts of evil round us
Scorn Thy Christ, assail His ways!
Fears and doubts too long have bound us,
Free our hearts to work and praise,
Grant us wisdom, Grant us courage

God's Neighborhood

To remember Abraham Lincoln is to remember his devotion to what we have come to call "an American dream"; that here, in this free land, which contains a mixture of men and women of almost every race, creed, and national background, we shall, with God's help, give substance to our deep religious conviction that all men are created equal, and as such deserve equal opportunities, equal representation, and equal consideration as human beings. This great dream is not new. The only new thing is our attempt in this nation to live and practice this dream of our forebears — embody it for all the world to see and take heart.

Our Father, we ask thy mercy upon all of us whose lives are impoverished by raci prejudice. Have pity upon us whose friends are restricted to persons who look like u and think as we do. Forgive us if we have rejected the opportunity to know peopl whose skin recalls ancestors in other lands. Be with the mother who is groping t find a way to tell her young son that he is a Negro and must fortify his spirit as h faces the realities of life in America. Open our eyes and spirits to the rich variet of the peoples of thy creation. Help us to rejoice in the unity and the diversity of th children, and to accept them as our brothers. Amen.

For the Christian it is not too much to say that his hope is that the world shall one day be "God's neighborhood." This is part of his greater dream for his country. But dreamers must be realistic else their dreams will not come true; so we, as Christians, are forced to say the dream is not yet realized. The world — our country — is not God's neighborhood, where men are equally regarded and rights and freedoms equally available to all. No genuine Christian can be satisfied with things as they are.

We revere the words in our historic documents because they keep us ever seeking the embodiment of our cherished religious convictions that men ought to dwell as brothers. Robt. D. Dewey

Welcome to the Southern Convention Laymen's Fellowship meeting here this afternoon. The Executive Committee is worshiping with us this morning.

J. E. Danieley is president of the Southern Convention Laymen's Fellowship.

Walter A. Graham is the Director of the National Laymen's Fellowship.

Dr. Raymond A. Dudley, missionary to India for more than 20 years, is now Secretary for India and Ceylon for the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. He is replacing Dr. Alford Carleton, Executive Vice President of the American Board, for the services today. Dr. Carleton has the flu and was unable to come.

Two of our Laymen greeting you at the doors this morning are H. H. Edgerton, president of the Laymen's Fellowship of our Church, and H. H. Cunningham, past president of our Laymen's Fellowship.

The Laymen's Fellowship of the Southern Convention will convene at 2:30 here in the auditorium. The banquet will be served at 6 p. m.

Flowers today are given to THE GLORY OF GOD and in memory of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, parents of Mrs. J. B. Long, by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Long.

Wednesday: 7 p. m. Community Choir Rehearsal at the Parish House.

Day of Prayer ... for Student

Once again the World Student Christian Federation calls the whole Church of God to make special intercession for students. Within this family activity students of many nations will be praying for each other with informed understanding. United by common circumstances and aims, students ask the same questions about life and its meaning and measure. They seek the answers to problems of peace, ambition, understanding, family relationships; the character and to culture.

We declare our belief that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is for all men without distinction as to race or color. We further believe that the Church is by its nature a fellowship whose only test for membership is the individual's faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and the intent to follow him . . . Residential segregation makes integration difficult. . . . Patterns of restriction based on race are maintained in the housing market . . . We pledge ourselves to support non-segregated practices in selling, buying, and leasing property, and we call upon our fellow Congregational Christians to do likewise. . . . Adopted by the General Council, Congregational Christian Churches, Omaha, Nebraska, June 1956.

The Christian religion teaches that all men were created by the same Father, redeemed by the same Son and share a common destiny. It is a part of the wonder and fascination of life that no two persons are ever exactly alike; but when we say that all men are created equal, we mean they are essentially the same regardless of creed, color, or place of origin.

Despite this basic oneness, men are more often prone to emphasize their differences than their similarities. It is obvious, as our world grows ever closer together, that those events which affect one man or group affect all; that in fact we are our brother's keepers; and that we can ill afford the luxury of prejudice based on fear, distrust, anger, or hatred and which works to separate man from man. Indeed, if we would contribute to the achievement of peace in our time we cannot avoid the necessity of ordering our lives according to that spiritual law implied by him who said, "Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them." George D. Alle

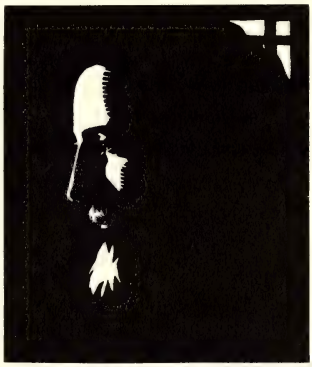
FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT



God's Word Fulfilled

This Lenten meditation is being written on Christmas Eve . . . a strange time, perhaps, for one to crystalize the meaning of Christ's Passion. Yet, Christmas Eve, celebrating as it does the birth of the Saviour of Mankind, gives us the real essence of Lent. Luke records the words of the Angel Gabriel to Mary:

> "He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High . . . and of his kingdom there will be no end."

Luke tells us, too, that the aged Simeon took the Child in his arms, and said:

> ". . . mine eyes have seen thy salvation . . . a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to thy people Israel."

These sayings were fulfilled this Tide so many centuries by-gone. As Christmas announces his birth, Lent and Easter proclaim his living presence, his endless kingdom, his eternal salvation and glory!

We have not loved our brethren as we ought, nor faithfully followed our Master in unselfish service. But wilt thou pardon all our offenses. Create within us a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within us. May we go on our way with gladness, assured of thy compassion; and forgetting the things which are behind, may we reach forth unto those things which are before; pressing toward the mark of our high calling in Christ Jesus our Lord. Matching Hope with Faith and Charity

When Roger William left Massachusetts to foun the Rhode Island Colon he chose hope as the Chri tian virtue which should b the motto of his enterpris In the same spirit a littl group of Congregationalist formed Hope Church a East Providence, in 1904 For many years their ente prise seemed to live mostly on hope as they worshipped and tried to carry a fu church program in a tiny frame building. When their community began to overflo following the last war, they matched hope with faith and sacrificial giving, and bui a new church, with better facilities for Christian education for these children. Cor gregational Christians in Rhode Island and the whole denomination, who assiste through the Church Building Loan Fund Campaign, can be proud of the new ente prise in Hope.

Christian Education for Children of Armed Forces Overseas

Because of the unsettled state of world affairs thousands of American familie have been uprooted and are scattered throughout the world in military areas. Th Armed Forces Chaplains Board has concerned itself with the religious nurture c the children and young people in the overseas homes of our military personnel. Ther are about eighty-five thousand such boys and girls for whom the Protestant churche have a responsibility. An interdenominational committee offers a complete curriculur of Protestant Christian education for this specialized constituency and the respons has been gratifying. Included in this Protestant curriculum are twenty-one Pilgrir Series courses which have been prepared by the Division of Christian Education c our Board of Home Missions.

Air-borne Evangelist

The Board of Home Missions is engaged in a continuous search for new forms in which to carry the Christian Gospel to our nation. This is the modern frontier of evangelism. One experiment under way in the Northern Great Plains, under the direction of the Rev. Charles V. Lee, uses the techniques of community self-study combined with a preaching ministry in communicating the Christian faith, with the hope that some of the lonely outposts of the Kingdom might come to a rebirth of the Spirit of the Church. Mr. Lee uses this well-equipped plane in this work of the Town and Country Department of the Board of Home Missions.

THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT

Christ, The Disturber

Why did men crucify the Lord of Life? One would suppose that such a One would be allowed to live and bless the world. The answer lies in this: he offended at almost every turn. He was a "rock of offence," a disturber. In the Hebrew religion the priestly tradition coupled patriotism with pride and contempt of others. Christ's way was based on humility and love. He would have his people follow the teachings of the long-ignored Prophets . . . a religion of justice, mercy and of humble fellowship with God.

The all-but-blinding light of purity and truth that illumined every act of the Christ was far-reaching and exposing. So, little men in high places shouted—hammer blows echoed—a cross fell with a thud into a hastily dug hole, bearing the body of Christ, the Disturber of Galilee, and the Disturber of the Ages.

Men With a Will

In remembering the fine work of our new churches in California we should not forget the sacrifices and hard work of our older churches in meeting needs created by tremendous increases in population. Our church in Mojave, small in membership and budget, became appalled at the number of children in the community who were growing up ignorant of the Gospel. Almost every able-bodied man in this fellowship turned to erect additional Church School classrooms. In reality, they were aided by all churches which participated in the Church Building Loan Fund Campaign, from which a loan was made possible to these men of good will.

Each-One

So that young leaders such as these might be helped in service to Indian people, two Indian women sent individual, sacrificial gifts of money earned by themselves, to their mission society. Both gifts came in names of inactive churches but represented love and memory for fellowships long dispersed. Active membership of each church—one.

Church Members Study American Ideals

About twenty-five men and women of different denominations meet every other week in the parsonage of The First Congregational Church, Great Bend, Kansas, to study courses planned by the minister, the Rev. Henry E. Wright. Speakers from other denominations and faiths participate. The current course, on American ideals, is designed to study the Medieval and Reformation background of our country's early life with emphasis on the growth and expansion of the Church. It includes biography, literature and philosophy and their connection with religion in our United States.

One Great Hour of Sharing

Over the years, "One Great Hour" has come to symbolize in a dramatic way the interest of our churches in their continuing ministry to the refugee wherever he is in this deeply troubled world. Ours has been called "The Century of the Homeless Man," and I think, as the history of this century is written, the fact of man's homelessness and need will be one of its most unhappy chapters.

But in and through this story of war, and hate, and separation, and loneliness there will be written also the story of those ministries of friendship and of mercy, whose warrant rests in the Gospel of God's love as it is in Jesus Christ.

Surely this responsibility rests nowhere so fitly as upon the Church and upon us, its members, who give of our money and our prayers today in the belief that it is in the love of Christ, in his peace, and his healing touch, that finally and really, all men are "at home." R. Norris Wilson

OF HIS KINGDOM THERE WILL BE NO END

FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT

The Risen Lord is the Crucified Lord

Lent is an affirmation that "God has brought his people forth into joy from sadness." But it is also the symbol of suffering and of struggle in the Christian's life—a meeting face to face with the fact that Christ arose that he might reign from the Cross. Christianity must never cancel out the Cross. Rather, it must lift the Cross for all the world to see.

The Risen Lord is also the Crucified Lord. The sin of man and the love of God met each other on the Hill of Golgotha. Since that momentous event, all sincere Christians have longed to "know him and the power of his resurrection" . . . not to escape suffering, not to run away from pain and terror, but to "share his suffering, becoming like him in his death."

THE MULTITUDE that acclaimed Jesus on Palm Sunday assumed that he was at last ushering in the longed-for kingdom. And he was; but of God's, not man's design; a spiritual and abiding kingdom, not a physical and transitory one. Once again Palm Sunday returns. What are our expectations? What do our hosannahs and our palms mean for us and our society? Tomorrow will bring its happiness and its sorrow, its victories and its defeats, its heroism and its cowardliness, its prophets and its mobs. Must Calvary yet again follow too? It need not if the hosannahs we voice on Palm Sunday we also mean, and meaning, we bear witness to our discipleship.

RECEPTION OF MEMBERS

CHURCH COVENANT as accepted and adopted April 19, 1891 by 19 charter members of our Community Church.

Thankful for God's everlasting mercy and for His great Gift of Salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord, we covenant and agree together to seek to know and to do His holy will and to promote, so far as in us lies, the triumph of our Savior's Kingdom over a wicked world.

Heartily believing that the Holy Scriptures were given by inspiration of God and that they are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction and for instruction in righteousness; and also that Christian freedom requires that they be interpreted by individual judgment, we covenant together to accept the Bible as our supreme standard of faith and duty and to recognize as Christians and worthy of our wship all who devoutly love the Lord Jesus

t and sustain a life of vital piety as taught e Word of God.
iously desiring that all differences which ate Christ's people may be removed and that may be one Flock and One Shepherd, we covenant her to lay aside all distinctive and party names aking our title from the Great Head of the h to be known simply and only as Christians.
furthermore realizing that the success of each Church depends on the consecration of its idual membership, we covenant together to d the services of the Church, to contribute ding to our means for its support, to labor her to maintain its peace and harmony and so s possible in every way to promote its temporal piritual welfare, looking for our reward to the of God which passeth all understanding and to rown of rejoicing laid up for all who love t's appearing.

The Easter Fact

THE MESSAGE OF THE RESURRECTION, which the Church throughout the world proclaims at Eastertide, is not a claim that there is no mystery surrounding the how of this occurrence. It is a declaration of complete certainty concerning the fact of this Event.

This is a familiar distinction in human experience. We do not know how a spoken word conveys a thought, nor how a sequence of sounds is transmuted into the ecstasy that accompanies the hearing of great music. But we know that these things occur.

So with the Resurrection. How it came about is a mystery, as the variety of narratives and legends surrounding it attests. But that it did occur is the most solidly established fact of history.

There was an Event. The crucified Jesus became the Living Christ. The disciples who "forsook him and fled" became flaming apostles, whom no peril of suffering or martyrdom could silence. A shattered remnant of defeated followers became the Church Militant, which went forth to conquer the Roman Empire. A new power entered history, and the story of man's life since that day is in large part a record of the impact of that power upon human affairs. Once in the world's history a Man trusted God to the uttermost, and God vindicated this trust. The result was a Victory so vast as to shatter the human heart with wonder and shake the world with hope. To proclaim this Victory with joy and thankfulness is the message and mission of the Christian Church.

The Family

Most of the deep continuing hopes of the human heart arise and have their fulfillment within family relationships. For realization of their noblest hopes, — to grow and grow up, to live now and forever, to love and be loved, the Christian family depends upon God.

Leader: Happy are fathers and mothers who can see life through the low windows of childhood.
People: For the Kingdom of Heaven itself is of those who have a child-like spirit: and when God is in the parents, His Kingdom is within the home.
Leader: Happy is the family whose home, though large or small, is a temple of God.
People: Whose members seeking God need not go far away, but find Him in their midst.
Unison: Where faith, hope and love are all in the daily course incarnate in domestic ways.

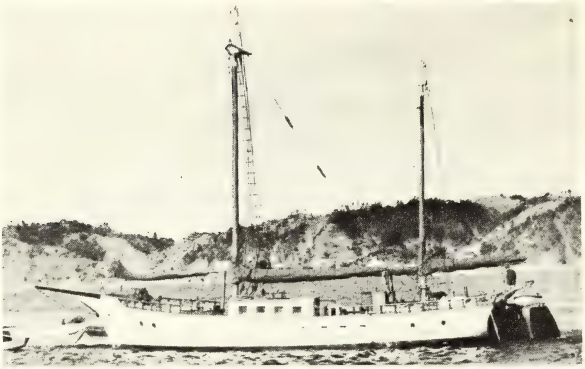
An Island to Island Floating Church



This sixty-foot ketch, the Morning Star VII, will soon be in service among the more-than-a-thousand Marshall Islands. The Rev. Eleanor Wilson, Congregational missionary who has served the American Board in these and the Carolina Islands for sixteen years, will be behind the wheel as the Star puts in at island after island in ministry to parishioners who are located by island name rather than house number. Hundreds of friends in this country, including many children, have helped answer Miss Wilson's prayers by contributing to this very necessary medium for carrying the Gospel. In many unusual services the Morning Star VII will bring the Church to Micronesian people.

For the Blessings of this Season

Now again we come to the season of planting. We seek our Father's blessing upon this abundant soil on which we live, the sowers, and the seed. We recognize the reliance and dependence of farmer-man upon the sun, the rain and wind which make his labors profitable. We see the significance of rural life in our national history and our common good. To the farmer's strength and wisdom in tilling the soil to harvest, we ask God to add unselfishness in the hearts of those who distribute that harvest. Remembering their own debts to the Giver of all Good Gifts, may they, the farmer and distributor, help wipe hunger from the faces of children starving on the world's sidewalks.

Long Service to Japan

Three generations of distinguished Christian service to the people of Japan are represented by the Cary family. Miss Alice Cary, secretary for the Pacific Area on the staff of the American Board, was born in Japan. She is a co-founder of Yodogawa Neighborhood House in Osaka. Nephew Otis Cary, whose parents and grandparents had been missionaries in Japan, married Alice Shepard, M.D., whose parents and grandparents had been missionaries of the Board to Turkey. On leave from Amherst College for this year, Mr. Cary will serve as professor of American History and Director of Amherst House at Doshisha University; Mrs. Cary is medical supervisor for 400 missionaries representing eight mission boards.

A Love Never Failing

"Her children rise up and call her blessed:" when in the delights or tumbles of childhood's earliest explorations they find her love never failing, and her guidance steady and kindly; when in the turbulent years of youth's adventures into self-discovery they find her of understanding mind, of patient spirit, and of trustful heart; when in their own adulthood they are moved to pray that they may have her quiet faith, her quick good humor, and her redeeming confidence in what the children of our human homes can yet become by God's grace and a parental love that never falters.

The Christian Home

In this day and time when deterioration of family life is one of our chief concerns, we no longer think of Mother's Day as a day of sentimentality only. It is a time for evaluation of our family life—the seeking of ways to enrich it. "God is Our Hope" can become the very heart-theme of our home life. When we seek the ideals for our homes that Jesus set as an example, we will come to realize that a Christian family is the most significant group to which we can belong. The experiences of joys and sorrows shared in a Christian home will become our most cherished memories.

A Pioneering Program

A pioneering program of the Board of Home Missions, American Missionary Association Division, begun in 1954, provides scholarship grants to promising youth of Indian American and Spanish American backgrounds. Potential leaders are being discovered where once only a small percentage of these two groups were able to take advantage of higher education. Not only does this project contribute to the welfare of these citizens, but to friendly understanding between our church and people who have a special burden to bear. In the field of race relations, where Americans have important lessons to learn, our church accepts this trust to cultivate informed leaders.

Standards of Christian Higher Education

We must disclaim any conception of Christian higher education which implies that piety may be substituted for academic excellence. The doctrine of Christian vocation is as relevant to institutions as it is to individual persons. Just as a doctor's Christian commitment may be revealed less in the regularity with which he says his prayers than in the way he applies his skill and wholehearted self-abandonment to the practice of medicine, so a genuinely Christian enterprise of higher education will never allow the offering of courses in Bible and religion to be a justification for slackness in its standards of scholarly attainment. We do not believe that obedience to the God of Truth can thus be fragmented.

Truman B. Douglass

1806-1956

This year Christians around the globe will celebrate a decision which took place in a haystack one hundred and fifty years ago, where five students from Williams College continued their prayer and meditation through an August storm. What happened in Williamstown, Mass., that day in 1806 was a burst of new spiritual vigor organized by a group of students and reaching out to claim the eager support of the churches. The organization of the American Board, many phases of the Home Missionary movement and the formation of the American Bible Society grew out of that group and their decision. Anniversaries should not only revive the past but lead on to stirring events of the future.

SPREADS broad and green the leafy tent, upon whose grassy floor our feet, too long in cities pent, their freedom find once more. Thou, who has given me eyes to see and love this sight so fair, give me a heart to find out thee, and read thee everywhere.

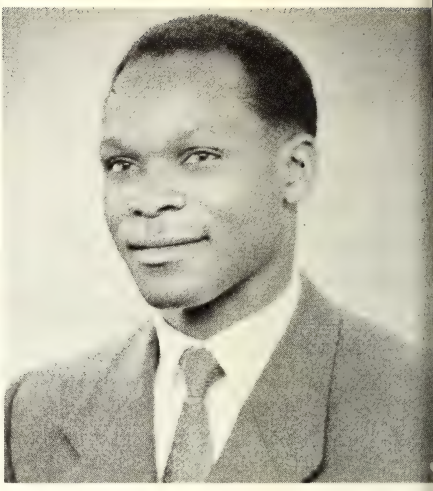
The Second Generation

"My grandfather, as descendant of the royal line, did no work. He was a man of the wilds, fearful of fetishism and a believer in it. With the arrival of the missionaries at Elende, my father was converted to Christianity, learned to read and write, knew the word of God. I had the happiness of being born at the mission in a Christian home." So writes Jose Liauca, product of the work of Angola missions, as he begins study to become a doctor. Funds are to be provided by the American Board. If he completes the course successfully he will be the first of his tribe of over a million and a quarter people to become a doctor!



Girls in Christian Projects

Students at a college in Missouri practice Christianity by voluntarily participating in various community projects to help their neighbors. One of the girls is shown reading to children at a church nursery while parents attend morning services. Others work in city nurseries, including one for Negroes, conduct vesper services in hospitals and give religious instruction. They also conduct evening prayer service in the college chapel. Out of 1500 girls enrolled 1000 participate in projects which are conducted every day in the week.

The Future of Inanda

Inanda Seminary is called "the school for Christian homemakers." Started in 1847 it is one of the pioneer American Board centers. The impressive curriculum, beautiful campus, fine African and white staff ranks this school among the very best for girls on the continent. The Board will increase its support when government subsidy stops, if Inanda is allowed to continue as a private school.

How revealing the human hand can be! In some hands we see reverence, trust, devotion, unmistakable and unforgettable without a spoken word. These maintain the fabric of the world, and "in the handywork of their craft is their prayer." The fruits of our labors, placed in the hands of others, are transformed into opportunity for work beyond our skills and beyond our circle of life. Hands that work are praying hands. Hands that give pray doubly.

The Dignity of Labor

Religion has always, from the very dawn of faith, consecrated labor and made it comradeship. The recovery of that truth has marked an epoch in the life of the mod ern church, for what God has joined together no society or industrial system ca safely put apart. Religion is not the opiate of unrewarded labor; it is the enduemen of it with dignity and meaning, the investment of its relationships with justice, th enrichment of its toil with comradeships, and the hallowing of all toil, till the simple task is touched with spiritual beauty. We thank God for every skill and strength May we hold them as a trust and accept what they bring us as from his hand. Ma he who has shared with us the enterprises of his still unfinished creation and mad us fellow craftsmen forgive us all that embitters our ways with our fellow worker

Responsible for Program of Missionary Education

One of the responsibilities of the Rev. Theodore S. Horvath in his capacity as Associate Executive Secretary of Missions Council is to recruit and assign personnel —missionaries and other workers—to the service of speaking about Our Christian World Mission in summer camps and conferences. This year, about 60 persons fulfilled assignments in more than 250 camps and conferences across the country. This is an important avenue of contact where young people and families take advantage of camping. Mr. Horvath will have general supervision of missionary education with Missions Council, working primarily with Conference leadership in the building of a strong missionary program in the local church.

RESPONSIVE READING

Minister: Remember now thy Creator.

People: We will remember the Lord our God.

Minister: Remember the day in which ye came out of bondage and that the Lord God brought thee out.

People: We will remember the Lord our God.

Minister: Remember the Lord thy God, for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant with thee.

People: We will remember the Lord our God.

Minister: Remember, O Israel, what doth the Lord require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve him with all thy heart and with all thy soul.

People: We will remember his commandments.

Minister: Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, he said, it is more blessed to give than to receive.

People: We will remember his words.

Minister: Remember that the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take eat, this is my body, which is broken for you.

People: We have eaten of the bread and we do remember him.

Minister: After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood; this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

People: We have tasted of the cup and we do remember him.

Minister: Remember the Lord Jesus Christ who humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

Unison Prayer: O Christ, our only Saviour, so come to dwell in us that we may go forth with the light of thy hope in our eyes, and thy faith and love in our hearts. Amen.

Giving, a Culture of the Spirit

There is no more reason to withhold a gift from God because we do not like the particular minister, the music director, or the detailed management of the church than to withhold government taxes because we do not like a certain teacher in our schools, or the patrolman on our beat, or our mayor when he is of another political party. This is a matter of government and not of personal likes or dislikes. Giving too, is on a different plane than many of us have thought. Christian giving is a function of the soul, a culture of the spirit. It is an act of worship, and as such it becomes a personal thing which no one can perform for another. Our giving, little or much, is to God.

American Board Executive

Dr. Daniel Bliss joins the company of the dozen men and women who, under the Prudential Committee, plan the policy and administration of the work of the American Board. As administrative assistant to Dr. Alford Carleton his particular concern is to develop and interpret the Board's work to churches in the homeland, and to help administrate its services overseas, coordinating them with the work of Christian agencies in all lands. He has served as Prudential Committee member, also chairman; as pastor, soldier and chaplain in both World Wars. His services to civic organizations and the Church are many. Dr. Bliss was a teacher at the American University at Beirut, Lebanon, which was formed out of Syrian Protestant College, founded by his grandfather, Daniel Bliss, 90 years ago. His father, Howard S. Bliss, was the college's distinguished second president.

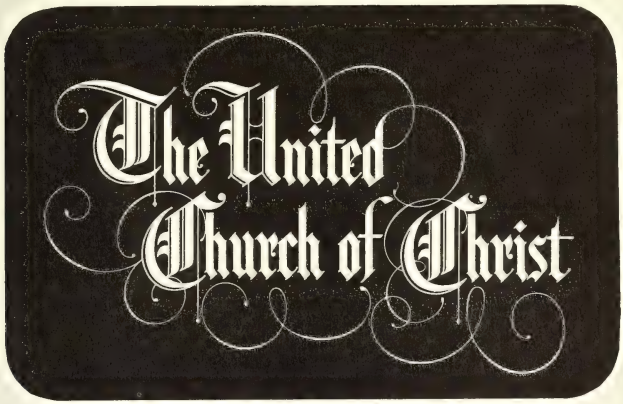
Autumn Splendor

Thy beauty, O God, is upon us; autumn splendor everywhere. Days are lucid with vision, or dim with mist, haze and smothered sunshine; nights wistful with summer memories. Trees are touched with ripe, mellow colors; their leaves begin to fall and flutter away, as frail as the generations of men. The birds going south follow a viewless path, like the homing instinct in the soul of man. Thou hast made our life a summer sowing, an autumn harvest, and a great white winter; too short for hate, and only long enough for love that lifts the load we all must bear.

Sermon Recordings Unlimited

An Oklahoma City couple have made it possible for many people to hear the voices of leading preachers and speakers from this country and abroad. Mrs. Charles Hoefle, who with her husband, records inspirational addresses and talks given at conventions and other meetings, is shown filing their records. The couple head the non-profit enterprise known as Spiritual Recordings Unlimited. They travel around the country recording, then catalog and file each one ready to fill requests. They were recently appointed official recorders for the group which sponsors prayer breakfasts in Washington, D.C., and elsewhere.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY, 1956.
Southern Convention of Congregational Christian Churches.



For two hitherto separate communions of the Church of Jesus Christ, the first step toward full union has been taken. The Evangelical and Reformed Church, which stems from the Protestant Reformation on the continent of Europe and the Congregational Christian Churches, whose spiritual ancestry can be traced through the Pilgrim Fathers, the Puritans, and to later reforms on this side of the Atlantic, have bound themselves together to become the United Church of Christ. This union has been possible because the two companies of Christians hold the same basic belief—that Christ, alone, is the Head of the Church. From him derive the understanding of God as Father, the participation in the same Spirit, the doctrines of faith, the influence toward holiness, the duties of Divine worship, the apprehension of the significance of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, the observance of church order, the mutual love of Christian's, their dedication to the world's betterment.

The union of churches is in itself an empty objective save as it is made the means of conveying Christ's redemptive purpose to man in the realm of personal and social life. In every particular church let us pray that there may be a new awareness that God has appointed us for a special witness in this day, and has summoned us to outdo our past in every ministry of worship.

While we do not begin with the ultimate in all the dimensions of our hope, God has covenated with his people that when they give his word free course and glorify it, as our union is designed to do, he is faithful: he "shall stablish you and keep you from evil." Our union brings forth treasures old and new. The old treasures we intend to conserve; we turn toward the new in limitless anticipation, praising God for the beginnings of the United Church of Christ.

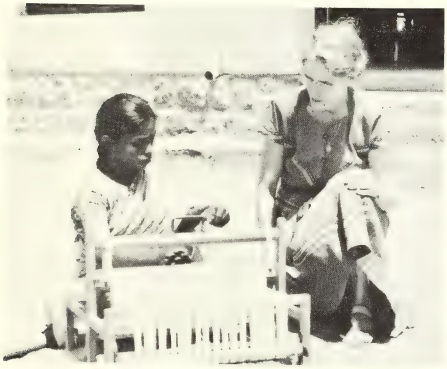
A Day for Christ

Saturday will see many busy groups of young people working and contributing their proceeds to projects that will help them know about, care about and share with neighbors at home and abroad. Last year the P.F. group of Waukesha, Wisconsin, spent two Work Days shining shoes. It was more than a simple project for them for they thought of Christ's humility as he served his disciples. This is a practice session for a good job.



Educated to be Useful

Miss Oline Nicholson and pupil adjust a loom at the Lucy Perry Noble Institute in Madurai, South India. At this school girls are taught to read and write and do many useful things. Because these students come primarily from very poor village homes—some too poor to furnish clothes for them—the Institute teaches skills which will be used to great advantage in the home later: basketry, pottery, weaving and toymaking. This American Board school is 65 years old.

True Missionary Church

Dr. Harold J. Ockenga, pastor of Park Street Congregational Church, Boston, Mass., looks on as the church treasurer, Elwyn Mariner, uses an adding machine to count the contributions of members of the parish to the missions fund. These contributions were made during a missionary convention. The church is seeking to raise $250,000 by 1958 for the support of the missionaries it has sent to foreign fields. A proud record of one hundred and twenty men and women sent out can be claimed by this church. With a legacy of $50,000 left to the church, the congregation has a good start toward its goal. Organized in 1809, Park Street church lists over 2100 members.

World Order

We cannot be the protagonists of a democratic world order if we are not prepared to be world citizens ourselves. This will involve very great efforts and sacrifices on our own part, but these are part of establishing the kind of world order we want to live in. The only basis on which we can ask other people to share the four freedoms and to be willing to accept their guarantees through effective world government is our own use of them. We cannot hope to go forward, either materially or spiritually, on this planet, by ourselves. The citizen of the past was a national citizen; the citizen of the future must be a world citizen or there will be no order.

Part of Church Life

Fellowship, such as these men share at Communion breakfast in Boston, is one aspect of Protestant laymen's church life. Worship, work and study are also essential. The Laymen's Fellowship of Congregational Christian churches is no mildly religious club but is one part of the life of our churches,—a force of, by, for and from the churches.

We pray for the peace of the world. This universe and our lives within it are full of mystery beyond our understanding, and sometimes of tragedy beyond our enduring. Yet light is here, too,—light that no darkness has put out. Lift us out of discouragement today as in great hours gone by, to believe in the light. Spirit of the Eternal, win a victory in our lives that we may believe in and commit ourselves to the light and not the darkness. Make us worthy to live in so momentous a time. Amen.

Harry Emerson Fosdick

"A layman sometimes feels that he is unimportant in a church unless he is an officer or at least a member of a committee. He should remember that a church without laymen would scarcely be a church at all. The work of a church reaches fruition only when the Christian ideals which it teaches are put into practice outside the church by its laymen in everyday life."

Frederick C. Shipley

History moves in long waves; we are caught in the roughest surf today and hurled about by it. But in the midst of the ocean it will be calm tomorrow. In its depths it is calm today. Men before us have forgotten that darkness hides the morning star!

We Need World Friends

Foreign students by the thousands who come to us to study and to observe our way of life return home without a single contact which would make them aware that in our homes and churches lies the basic strength of our country. A concerted effort by our churches and members to make friends of these leaders would be a service to God and Country.

RELIGIOUS REVIVAL, the Reformation attempted to give man a new assurance in the presence of God and a new motivation in the moral life. How far it succeeded no one can ever tell. Nothing is so interior as faith; nothing is so exclusive as piety. . . . This only one can say, that the Reformation at once rent and bound. External unities were shattered, but the Christian consciousness of Europe was renewed.

The Flowers are given to the GLORY OF GOD and in loving memory of the late Charles Fletcher Moore, Sr., by the Elon College Choir.

Welcome to the parents of the members of the Elon College Choir. The Elon College Community Church wishes to thank you for the privilege we have of hearing your son or daughter sing with the choir these Sundays. Picnic lunch for you will be in the dining hall, upstairs. Then we want you to return to Whitley Auditorium for a Hymn Sing at 2 p.m.

Hymn Sing at 2 p. m. is for everyone to come and enjoy the hymns of the ages. This will give local members of our congregation a chance to meet the parents of the choir members.

Pilgrim Fellowship groups eat together at 6:30 p. m.

Officers and Committee members of our Church will meet at 7:30 p. m. in the Parish House for organizational and planning purposes.

On October 31, 1517, a young Augustinian monk named Martin Luther posted on the doors of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany, ninety-five theses or arguments against the sale of indulgences by the Church of his day. This incident touched off a long train of events known as the Reformation.

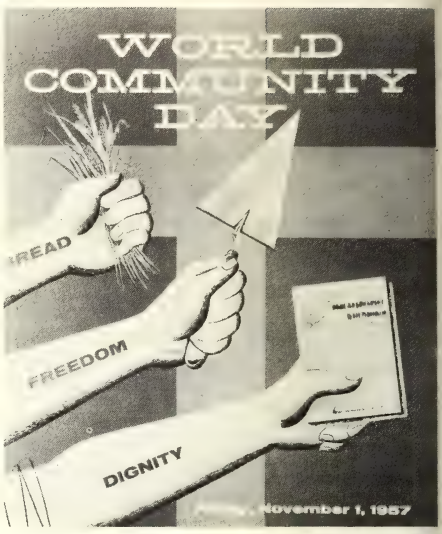
Bread, Freedom and Dignity

World Community Day is a spiritual undertaking through which ten million church women rededicate themselves to building life, friendship and universal peace. As church women who believe that prayer, study and action are one, offerings taken on that day, November first, will be given to help "emerging peoples."

Human beings by the millions, living on all continents, are seeking new opportunities to help shape their own destinies. Most of these emerging peoples live in underdeveloped areas and are a chief concern of the United Nations. The objectives of this World Community Day are to promote programs of study, peace and special self-help through sharing.



Cared For by Christian Love

An orphanage which provides unfortunate little ones in Madurai, South India, with their "wings" to go out into the world, is appealingly named The Birdsnest. Miss Miriam Brown, shown with some of the "birds" says, "I wish so often that you sharers in our concern for these children could share in the joy of seeing bodies and minds changing under the influence of Christian love." More than three hundred children have gone from The Birdsnest Orphanage to establish happy homes and lives. The superintendent, now Dr. Grace Kennett, was the first "bird". She is one of the city's most respected doctors and the doors of all homes are open to her as she goes about healing and helping the helpless. This is not an American Board institution, but it is a Christian venture in faith, an extension of mission work.

Religion in American Life

Each November mass communication media will aid Religion in American Life campaign in pointing out potential family strength in worshipping God together. This poster and message will be seen and heard throughout our nation. May we heed these wise words.

They Serve the Cause of Christ

PURPOSE

"TO CULTIVATE THE SPIRIT OF CHRIST IN EVERY AREA OF HUMAN LIFE; TO ENLIST AND UNITE THE WOMEN OF THE CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CHURCHES IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND ITS TERRITORIES AND POSSESSIONS, IN A FELLOWSHIP OF WORSHIP, EDUCATION, SERVICE AND GIVING TO UNDERGIRD THE PROGRAM OF THE CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CHURCHES AS THEY SERVE THE CAUSE OF CHRIST IN THE COMMUNITY, STATE AND NATION AND THROUGHOUT THE WORLD."

With our purpose in mind many of our Women's Fellowship groups will be conducting special services on this second annual Women's Fellowship Sunday. They will seek to promote their program through various ways, each realizing they must first cultivate the spirit of Christ within their own lives, and then reach out into home, community and the uttermost parts of the earth. Salutation: How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, thy God reigneth! Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem: the Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. Youth Undertake Unique Project

When young people set out to build bridges, distances shrink. Word came to the Muskegon Association Pilgrim Fellowship, Michigan, of the need of a very bright Negro girl for funds to attend high school miles away from Cotton Valley School when she finished 8th grade there. Financial hardships in her family and rigid segregation prohibited her fulfilling her potential without aid, and this aid Muskegon PF decided to give. They "adopted" Susie Cooper and decided to try to send her through high school for the next four years. A "Susie Supper," given by 12 young people at the Newago church, added $100 in offerings to the scholarship fund. On the night of the supper an elderly Negro man drove 12 miles over dangerous roads to "add his bit to the fund," then drove back home without staying to eat. It is difficult to tell who benefits most in such a project.

Around the World in Minutes

At the Annual Conference meeting in Lakewood, Ohio, those who attended were able to listen in on telephone conversations between their Conference Superintendent, the Rev. Everett A. Babcock, and missionaries in different parts of the world. This phone was installed in the church and contacts established direct to the mission stations by the Ohio Bell Telephone Company. It proved to be an exciting and worthwhile experiment for it shortened the lifeline between missionary and home support and made the bond of fellowship between the two more personal and meaningful.

"Worship Together This Week"

Our foundation on faith in God and our freedom to worship God constitutes a precious national heritage. Our struggle to guarantee a peaceful world demands the strength and endurance of spiritual conviction. Religious faith, rooted in our churches, is the historic source of these virtues. It strengthens the bonds holding the family as well as the nation together. To support a way of life based on the lasting principles of religion is the most vital task facing America today.

hands

How revealing the human hand can be! In some hands we see reverence, trust, devotion, unmistakable and unforgettable without a spoken word. These maintain the fabric of the world, and "in the handywork of their craft is their prayer." The fruits of our labors, placed in the hands of others, are transformed into opportunity for work beyond our skills and beyond our circle of life. Hands that work are praying hands. Hands that give pray doubly.

Workers Build Their Own Chapel

"All Faith Chapel" is a prayer room and a haven from daily cares to the men and women of the Solar Aircraft Company in San Diego, California. The site, plans and materials for the small chapel were contributed by the firm, while the workers gave their labor for construction during their free time evenings and weekends as well as holidays. Employees, from top company executive to junior factory helper, seek refuge here. Company president, Edmund T. Price, makes his contribution to the devotional purpose of this unusual chapel.

The Dignity of Labor

Religion has always, from the very dawn of faith, consecrated labor and made it a comradeship. The recovery of that truth has marked an epoch in the life of the modern church, for what God has joined together no society or industrial system can safely put apart. Religion is not the opiate of unrewarded labor; it is the enduement of it with dignity and meaning, the investment of its relationships with justice, the enrichment of its toil with comradeships, and the hallowing of all toil, till the simplest task is touched with spiritual beauty. We thank God for every skill and strength. May we hold them as a trust and accept what they bring us as from his hand. May he who has shared with us the enterprises of his still unfinished creation and made us fellow craftsmen forgive us all that embitters our ways with our fellow workers.

Responsible for Program of Missionary Education

One of the responsibilities of the Rev. Theodore S. Horvath in his capacity as Associate Executive Secretary of Missions Council is to recruit and assign personnel —missionaries and other workers—to the service of speaking about Our Christian World Mission in summer camps and conferences. This year, about 60 persons fulfilled assignments in more than 250 camps and conferences across the country. This is an important avenue of contact where young people and families take advantage of camping. Mr. Horvath will have general supervision of missionary education with Missions Council, working primarily with Conference leadership in the building of a strong missionary program in the local church.

Come ye thankful people, come

More than three centuries ago a group of stalwart souls set out in a raw, new land to worship God in their own manner and to order their affairs by their own wills. The seed they planted helped build here a land of the "otherwise minded," diverse in race and creed, united in hope. We give thanks that implanted in the very soil was the fundamental thesis of the law: no wrong without a remedy.

Confirmed as Christian

This is the first confirmation class of Christ Congregational Church in Chicago, Ill. With the minister, the Rev. George Aki, are eleven young men and women who have accepted the Christian faith as their way of life. The parents of several are Buddhists or have not yet joined their children's church; however, the parents of some have recently become members through confession of faith. Still a young church in point of years since organization, this inner city congregation has over 200 members of Japanese descent.

Their Daily Food

Because of funds given through the S O S campaign children at the Messina orphanage in Greece can look forward to two meals a day with milk and supplemental foods. Both of these are absolute necessities for life and health. Just to live, without extras, has been a struggle absorbing all thought and strength in many lands. We invite Christ to eat with us when we share with the helpless.

THE HIGHEST ART

Man is what he is, not alone because of his mental powers but because of his spiritual endowments. His rise is the result of his consciousness of contact with God, connecting him with holy influences from whence every noble impulse has sprung. Along the way of oneness with God every step in the upward climb has enlarged his understanding. As man reaches for the eternal Father, he stretches his mind and heart to divine dimensions, finding the essential reality of his own personality identical in kind with that which Jesus revealed. The experience of this upreach we call worship, the highest of all arts. Wofford Colquitt Timmons

Herein we pay tribute to a faithful servant of the Church—to his loyalty to the Church Calendar Service and his gracious way of fulfilling any request made by Missions Council for his writings. Dr. Timmons used his talents to the worship of God.

expectation

The Hebrew people fervently believed that a Messiah was to come who would once again re-establish the power and grandeur of the Davidic kingdom. He was to be called Wonderful, Counsellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

It is our faith that Israel's expectation had its fulfillment in the birth of Jesus, the celebration for which Advent calls us to prepare. Expectancy of great events is in order. Advent is at once an historical fact and a continuing experience — if hearts be open and minds receptive to God's gift, precious beyond price.

Along with all our Christmas preparations, so full of traditional meaning, let us take thought lest once again the Christ returns and in our preoccupation recognition of him be denied to us.

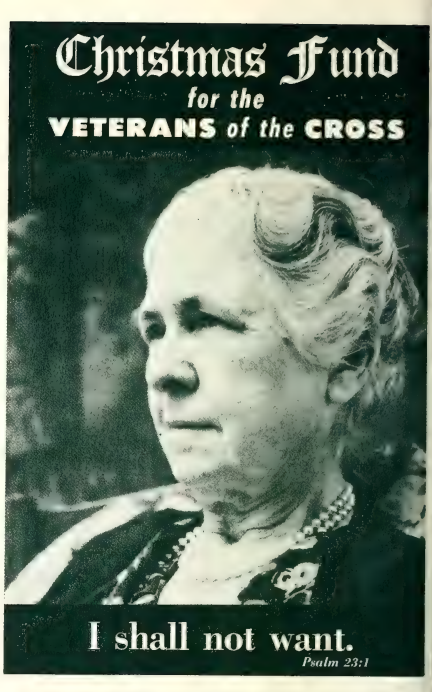
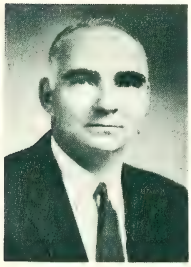
Veterans of the Cross

Each year, for over fifty years, the churches of our denomination have joyfully and generously contributed to the Christmas Fund. The Fund is an expression of their appreciation of the aged, retired men and women who have given themselves and their talents in long years of Church service, and who need financial assistance, now that their earning power has ceased. The Ministerial Relief Division of the Board of Home Missions makes regular grants to these ministers and widows of ministers — grants which keep them supplied with the basic necessities of life; but the Christmas Fund is the special gift which provides a few additional comforts, and lets them know they are warmly remembered and still "belong." Last year almost 800 checks were sent out in time for Christmas. The remainder of the Fund, held to meet emergency expenses, made Christmas for many days to those who needed this aid.



To Get Acquainted



These men have recently become staff members of our Board of Home Missions: both are qualified, able men. The Rev. Joseph M. Merchant, left, Secretary for the Inner-City Church, will counsel with churches caught in the uncertainties of neighborhood change. The Rev. Harris E. Heverly, Asso. Secretary for Church Advisory Service, will assume duties formerly carried by Mr. LeRoy Eide, now of the Missions Council staff.

The Church, largest non-Roman Catholic body in the entire East, is observing its 10th anniversary. Formed in 1947 through a merger of Anglican, Methodist, Presbyterian, Reformed and Congregational bodies, it represented the first successful attempt at union between Anglicans and denominations of non-episcopal backgrounds.

*HYMN 142 "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name"

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We believe in God the Father, infinite in wisdom, goodness and love; and in Jesus Christ, his Son, our Lord and Saviour who for us and our salvation lived and died and rose again and liveth evermore; and in the Holy Spirit, who taketh of the things of Christ and revealeth them to us, renewing, comforting, and inspiring the souls of the men.

We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord, made known or to be made known to us.

We hold it to be the mission of the Church of Christ to proclaim the gospel to all mankind, exalting, the worship of the one true God, and laboring for the progress of knowledge, the promotion of justice, the reign of peace, and the realization of human brotherhood.

Depending, as did our fathers, upon the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all truth, we work and pray for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God; and we look with faith for the truimph of righteousness and the life everlasting.

Christian Education for Our Children?

The future of Puerto Rico and of our homeland rests in children like these members of our Naguabo Church School. Education facilities here have recently been enlarged, with the help of the Board of Home Missions, through funds raised in the Church Building Loan Fund Campaign. In Puerto Rico, as here, many thousands of children are entirely without Christian education. The burden upon the heart is that our Board cannot extend its help further to care for this need with its present resources.

Husband and Wife Make Effective Teaching Team

Writers of future Church School courses will take note of the many men who are now teaching classes of children, from the earliest ages up. Of significance is the growing practice of inviting a husband and wife to assume equal responsibility for the leadership of a class of children or young people. In the church, as in the home, children are most effectively taught when they are in close relationship with a husband and wife through whom the Christian way of life is made manifest.

World Day of Prayer Unites Around the Globe

The observance of World Day of Prayer on Friday should challenge Christians everywhere to translate ideals into action and thus bridge the gap between conviction and practice. Our prayers will differ in nature and there will be diversities in customs, languages, places and conditions of worship, but through the day should be the reality that nothing separates us from the love and concern of Christ and each other.
